Disability Statement

The University of Essex, in conformity with its Charter, is committed to a comprehensive equality policy and strategy and welcomes disabled students. The University aims to offer academic support in response to individual needs, and strives to ensure that the buildings are physically accessible. We have experience of supporting disabled students including those who's mobility, hearing or sight is impaired, student with a specific learning difficulty such as dyslexia, students with mental health issues as well as students with hidden disabilities, medical conditions and temporary injuries.

The University publishes information on the facilities and the services available for disabled students. This includes information about the buildings, academic support and funding as well as other details about the University. This information is published on the University Disability Service website.

If you would like further details, please contact the Disability Service.
