The Feeling of Certainty
A Conference in Recognition of the Work of Karl Figlio

Saturday 8
November 2014
9.15am – 4.30pm
Lecture Theatre Building, University of Essex, Colchester Campus

Karl Figlio is founder of the Centre for Psychoanalytic Studies at Essex. ‘The Feeling of Certainty’ is a complex idea connecting much of his work over the last decade. This one-day conference explores its implications across three strands of psychoanalytic research (reflecting the breadth of his contribution to the field): absolute states of mind; masculinity; and the history of science.

Cost: £70 for the day (£40 students/unwaged)

Speakers include:
Nicola Abel Hirsch (Institute of Psychoanalysis)
Karl Figlio (Essex)
John Forrester (Cambridge)
Bob Hinshelwood (Essex)
Jeffrey Murer (St Andrews)
Barry Richards (Bournemouth)
Michael Roper (Essex)
Robert M. Young (Sheffield)
Christina Wieland (Essex)
