University of Essex National Scholarship Programme (NSP) 2012-13

This is an accommodation subsidy of £3,000 for identified University-owned accommodation for 200 students. This covers the first year of your study.

Who is eligible?

To be eligible you must meet all of the following conditions:

- be ordinarily resident in England;
- have an annual household income of up to £25,000 (as assessed by SFE and available to the University by 10 August 2012);
- register for a full-time undergraduate course at the University of Essex, with first enrolment in 2012-13;
- be in the first year of your study at our University;
- apply to the University of Essex through UCAS by 3 August 2012;
- apply to the University of Essex for the NSP accommodation subsidy by 3 August 2012; and
- apply for accommodation at the University by the published accommodation application deadline.

Students not eligible

The following students are not eligible for the NSP regardless of meeting the above criteria:

- students funded by the NHS;
- students funded by the Training and Development Agency for Schools;
- students directly continuing from one course to another (for example from a foundation degree or HND on to the final year of your honours degree);
- students transferring from another institution;
- students undertaking a postgraduate qualification;
- part-time students studying at less than 25 per cent intensity of the full-time equivalent; and
- any other students whose fees are paid or part-paid through a sponsorship arrangement.
