Making an application:

When completing the on-line application form you will be asked to answer questions to help you demonstrate how you meet the requirements of the post. Your answers will be used at the shortlisting and interview stages of the recruitment process. We therefore recommend that you take a copy of this recruitment pack to help with your preparation.

NOTE: You don't have to answer the questions in one attempt, but can save your incomplete application and return to it at another time. You may want to draft your answers using Microsoft Word and then copy your text into the application form. Please be aware that formatting (e.g. underline, bold, bulleting) will be lost in this process. If you are using an Apple product you will need to use an alternative web browser to Safari such as Google Chrome.

- Links to Guidance Notes and Frequently Asked Questions can be found on the Search Results page. These pages will open in a new window.

A commitment to sustaining an inclusive and diverse community is one of the University's Core Values and we are keen to address any imbalances in our workforce.

The University of Essex is proud to be part of the Disability Confident scheme and is committed to supporting diversity and equality, representative of our inclusive community. As part of our commitment to this scheme any candidate who has a disability and meets all the essential criteria for the role will be offered an interview. We also work in partnership with national disability organisation DisabledGo who provide detailed online access guides to many of our campus buildings and facilities which you may find useful.

Please note: We are only accepting on-line applications for this post. However, if you have a disability that makes it difficult for you to provide us with information in this way, please contact the Resourcing Team (01206 874588/873521/873461) for help.

Closing Date: 01 May 2018

Interviews are planned for: 22 May 2018

JOB DESCRIPTION – Job ref REQ01179

Job Title and Grade:	Graduate Trainee Grade 3
Contract:	Fixed-Term, Full-Time. This post is fixed-term for 12 months due to a compelling reason for the rotation of these appointments.
Hours:	36 hours per week
Salary:	£16,655-£18,777 per annum
Department/Section:	Library Services
Responsible to:	Director of Library Services and University Librarian
Reports on a day to day basis to:	Student Engagement and Learning Support Manager
Purpose of job:	To undertake a wide range of tasks including assisting with information literacy and Library induction sessions, dealing with enquiries and providing support for library users in accessing and using facilities and equipment. The post holder will also provide support for acquisitions and cataloguing of library materials and contribute to student engagement, information literacy and other projects as part of a team. As this is a trainee post opportunities to visit other academic libraries in the region and to attend relevant training and development events will be provided.

Duties of the Post:

The main duties of the post will include:

1. As part of a team, to assist with Information Literacy and Library induction sessions, introducing users to Library procedures and the underlying information skills necessary to use them effectively.
2. To participate in Student Engagement projects, including assisting with the planning and delivery of Library Advisory Group meetings and workshop activities.
3. To help develop training materials and digital learning objects, such as videos and Moodle lessons, in support of Information Literacy sessions.
4. To undertake other small-scale projects as required, for example, the organisation and digitisation of Special Collections/archival material or contributing to exhibitions focusing on a particular aspect of the Library's collections or services.
5. To contribute to the development of the reading list database using Talis Aspire, and to assist with training and advocacy for academic staff and students.
6. To participate in work within the Collections Team which is responsible for acquiring, processing and managing the print and digital resources required to support library users.
7. As part of a team, providing first line support to users at the library helpdesk or whilst undertaking roving support duties.
8. Responding to users' enquiries by communicating effectively in person and by phone, explaining sometimes complex procedures and resolving problems or complaints, escalating these as necessary.

9. Identifying users in need of assistance and supporting them in identifying, locating and accessing library resources which cater for their needs.
10. Assisting users in using self-service equipment for routine transactions (eg borrowing/returning library materials, printing, photocopying, scanning) as well as library search tools, such as Encore and other online databases.

Other requirements:

11. Work in evenings and at weekends, as and when required.
12. Ability and willingness to travel to other campuses as necessary.
13. Any other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Director of Library Services or their nominee.

These duties are a guide to the work that the post holder will initially be required to undertake. They may be changed from time to time to meet changing circumstances.
