Making an application:

Please complete the short on-line application form and attach the following 5 documents:

- a) A covering letter setting out how you meet the requirements of the role as set out in the person specification.
- b) A full curriculum vitae (CV) including any publications. You should provide information on the range and content of your teaching and supervision experience, as well as on curriculum development. You should also specify your 4 most significant papers published within the past 5 years (or an equivalent number appropriate to being an early career researcher). Applicants from within the UK should indicate which publications have been submitted to the REF 2014 and any assessment of the rating for each piece of work; For more information about the REF visit www.ref.ac.uk
- c) An education statement of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your track record in terms of contribution to pedagogical developments and, where appropriate, the development of professional practice. You should also include a reflective statement on your approach to research-led education and how it draws on pedagogical research. Also indicate how you ensure your continuing professional development as an excellent teacher in higher education.
- d) A research statement of no more than two sides of A4 providing details of your research plans for the next three years. This should include details of books, chapters or papers in progress together with planned publication dates. For journal articles please provide details of target journals and planned submission dates. If you have papers that are currently under review please detail the stage these have reached and the timescale you expect those papers to be accepted for publication. If you have papers that have been accepted for publication but not yet published please provide the date the paper was accepted for publication.
- e) A document of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your three year plan for generating external funding to support your research.

Shortlisting is undertaken by a panel after the closing date on the basis of information provided and failure to upload the requested documents will result in an application being rejected.

We recommend that you take a copy of this recruitment pack to help with your preparation.

A commitment to sustaining an inclusive and diverse community is one of the University's Core Values and we are keen to address any imbalances in our workforce.

The University of Essex is proud to be part of the Disability Confident scheme and is committed to supporting diversity and equality, representative of our inclusive community. As part of our commitment to this scheme any candidate who has a disability and meets all the essential criteria for the role will be offered an interview. We also work in partnership with national disability organisation AccessAble who provide detailed online access guides to many of our campus buildings and facilities which you may find useful.

Please note: We are only accepting on-line applications for this post. However, if you have a disability that makes it difficult for you to provide us with information in this way, please contact the Resourcing Team (01206 876559) for help.

Closing Date: 30 May 2019

Interviews are planned for: 27 June 2019

Expected start date: 1 August 2019, or as soon as possible thereafter

UNIVERSITY OF ESSEX
JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title and Grade:	Lecturer (ASER); Grade 9
Contract:	Permanent, Part-time
Hours:	A notional minimum of 14.4 hours per week
Salary:	£40,793 - £48,676 per annum, pro-rata
Department/Section:	Department of Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies
Responsible to:	Head of Department (HoD)
Purpose of role:	To take up a role in delivering and developing the taught programmes MA in Jungian and Post-Jungian Studies, and BA Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies. To conduct high quality research and contribute to the Department's outstanding research profile. In time, to take up a key role in the Department.

CONTEXT

The Department of Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies is recognised internationally as one of the leading Departments for work that focuses on the role of the unconscious mind in mental health, culture and society and the many psychosocial factors, which influence our lives.

We are now seeking to appoint a Lecturer in the field of Jungian Studies to support and develop our internationally recognised programmes. This is a permanent, part-time role for 14.4 hours per week starting on 1 August 2019, or as soon as possible thereafter. You will take up a teaching and module leadership role on our MA in Jungian and Post-Jungian Studies, and our BA Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies. Ideally, you will be a member of the British Psychoanalytic Council, the Council for Psychoanalysis and Jungian Analysis (a college of the UK Council for Psychotherapy), the Association of Child Psychotherapists, the British Association of Psychotherapy and Counselling or an equivalent organisation.

You will have a relevant doctoral level research degree in Jungian and Post-Jungian studies or equivalent area (or be close to completion of PhD), or equivalent professional experience or practice. In addition, a strong track record in research, with evidence of published research of peer-reviewed international quality is essential, and you will show strong evidence of being able to meet the requirements for the department's research submission to the Sociology panel in REF 2021. You will also need to be committed to participating positively in a growing department and helping to create and sustain a top-quality learning and research community. You will have the capacity to take a key role in the department in due course.

As an enabling academic environment for all of our students and staff we are committed to the principles of Athena Swan and equality for all. We particularly welcome applications from those who identify as female or non-binary and those from an ethnic minority to improve their representation in PPS.

The post holder will be expected to:

1. Teach on the MA Jungian and Post-Jungian Studies.
2. Teach on the BA Psychosocial and Psychoanalytic Studies.
3. To supervise and support UG and MA students in their research projects.
4. Support students as a personal tutor in a pastoral or advisory role
5. Fulfilment of any assessment and examination duties.
6. To attract and supervise PhD students and contribute to PhD supervisory boards and examinations where appropriate.

7. To develop and submit high quality grant proposals and funding applications.
8. Where appropriate, contribute to the development of new initiatives in Jungian studies.
9. Conduct high quality research leading to publications in peer reviewed international journals, and contribute the requisite number of high quality peer reviewed items to PPS' submission to the Sociology panel in REF 2021.
10. Active participation in departmental research culture including research meetings and seminars.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POST

- To contribute to excellence in education by designing and delivering substantive and effective teaching and learning support, at undergraduate and postgraduate levels (e.g. curriculum development and review, assessment and feedback, research supervision, etc.) as agreed with the HoD.
- To engage in individual and/or collaborative research activity (resulting in internationally excellent publications) that is in keeping with REF criteria.
- To generate external research funding, including in collaboration with colleagues, appropriate in scale to career stage and subject area norms.
- To undertake leadership duties related to research and education appropriate to career stage and as allocated by the HoD.
- To enhance the scholarly reputation of the Department and the University by contact with the wider academic community and the dissemination of knowledge via public communication and other activities.
- To contribute expertise and knowledge to departmental and/or institutional initiatives as directed by their Head of Department.

MAIN DUTIES OF THE POST

Education

- To engage effectively in substantive teaching and learning support roles in the Department, and develop a broad understanding of how such activities contribute to high-quality student learning.
- To design, plan and deliver learning (modules, programmes of study, etc.) in creative and innovative ways appropriate to the subject area and level, taking into account department planning and priorities.
- To assess and feed back to learners (UG, PG, work-based, etc.) in evidence-informed ways appropriate to the subject and level.
- To supervise student projects, fieldwork and placements.
- To supervise postgraduate taught students appropriate for the discipline.
- To complete, within their probationary period (usually three years), a recognised higher education qualification or recognition process aligned with Descriptor 2 of the UKPSF (e.g. Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy).
- To contribute to faculty and departmental quality assurance procedures and quality enhancement initiatives to ensure that teaching and learning support meets the standards expected within a research-led university.

Research

- To develop a research agenda which pursues individual and/or collaborative research objectives and proposals of high quality that will as a minimum meet the University's expectations for future Research Exercise Framework (REF) exercises.
- In collaboration with colleagues as appropriate, identify sources of funding and contribute to the process of securing external research income appropriate to discipline norms.
- To produce research outputs for publication at acceptable levels of volume and academic excellence and disseminate the result of research and scholarship through appropriate Knowledge Exchange activities (such as at relevant national and international conferences and scholarly publications not intended for the REF).
- To contribute to generating societal impact beyond the academic sphere and to contribute to impact case studies in keeping with REF criteria.
- To supervise and mentor postgraduate research students into relevant communities of research at Essex as appropriate to the departmental context to generate meaningful connections between research and education at Essex.
- Active participation in departmental research culture including PGR research forums, research meetings and seminars, supervisory panels and examinations where appropriate.
- Supervise and support UG and PGT students in their research projects.

Leadership and Citizenship

- To undertake leadership of specific areas of organisational activity within the department (e.g. recruitment, admissions, acting as undergraduate or postgraduate director) as may be reasonably required by the HoD.
- To play an active and constructive role in the Department and engage in activities beyond your own research and education duties, (e.g. admissions or undergraduate recruitment, etc.), as may be reasonably required by the HoD.
- To undertake peer mentoring of colleagues on the request of the HoD.
- To participate in, build and develop internal and external networks and establish links with relevant academic and professional bodies, contacts and employers.
- To engage in continuing professional development in relevant subjects/disciplines and their pedagogy, incorporating the outcomes from research, scholarship and the evaluation of professional practice.
- To produce papers, articles, reports or other publications on aspects of professional practice as appropriate to career stage and discipline norms.
- To ensure knowledge and skills relevant to the profession are up-to-date and applied in education, research and leadership/citizenship.

These duties are a guide to the work that the post holder will initially be required to undertake. They may be changed from time to time to meet changing circumstances.
