This document includes the following information:

- Job Description
- Person Specification
- Additional information

Making an application:

Please complete the short on-line application form and attach the following 5 documents:

- a) A covering letter setting out how you meet the requirements of the role as set out in the person specification.
- b) A full curriculum vitae (CV) including any publications. You should provide information on the range and content of your teaching and supervision experience, as well as on curriculum development. You should also specify your 4 most significant papers published within the past 5 years (or an equivalent number appropriate to being an early career researcher). Applicants from within the UK should indicate which publications have been submitted to the REF 2014 and any assessment of the rating for each piece of work; For more information about the REF visit www.ref.ac.uk
- c) An education statement of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your track record in terms of contribution to pedagogical developments and, where appropriate, the development of professional practice. You should also include a reflective statement on your approach to research-led education and how it draws on pedagogical research. Also indicate how you ensure your continuing professional development as an excellent teacher in higher education.
- d) A research statement of no more than two sides of A4 providing details of your research plans for the next three years. This should include details of books, chapters or papers in progress together with planned publication dates. For journal articles please provide details of target journals and planned submission dates. If you have papers that are currently under review please detail the stage these have reached and the timescale you expect those papers to be accepted for publication. If you have papers that have been accepted for publication but not yet published please provide the date the paper was accepted for publication.
- e) A document of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your three year plan for generating external funding to support your research.

Shortlisting is undertaken by a panel after the closing date on the basis of information provided and failure to upload the requested documents will result in an application being rejected.

External assessor's reports will be requested for shortlisted candidates as part of the selection process for this role. External assessors are provided with the CV only, and asked to comment on candidate's suitability for the role against the published job description and criteria. If you have any queries regarding this, please contact resourcing@essex.ac.uk

We recommend that you take a copy of this recruitment pack to help with your preparation.

UNIVERSITY OF ESSEX
JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title and Grade:	Senior Lecturer (ASER); Grade 10
Contract:	Permanent, Full-Time
Hours:	A notional minimum of 36 hours per week
Salary:	£51,630 - £58,090 per annum
Department/Section:	Essex Business School
Responsible to:	Head of Department (HoD)
Role description:	The purpose of this post is to enhance the School's research profile and to both contribute to and lead in developing the field of Accounting; to develop and actively engage in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and supervision; and to extend the School's profile regionally, nationally and internationally through collaboration with other institutions.

CONTEXT

The Accounting Group at Essex Business School has an international reputation in two largely overlapping lines of expertise in accounting research, namely (i) critical, social and qualitative approaches to the study of accounting and (ii) an interdisciplinary perspective of accounting, with a strong emphasis on the study of accounting in emerging and developing economies. The Group founded the British Accounting and Finance Association's (BAFA) special interest group on Accounting and Finance in Emerging Economies, edits the Journal of Accounting in Emerging Economies and more recently launched an international conference on Accounting and Accountability in Emerging Economies (AAEE). In addition, there is an emerging cluster within the Group which relies on quantitative methods and market-based perspectives in the context of both developed and developing countries. Within this context, the Group's research concentrates on four broad themes, namely (i) sustainability, social responsibility and corporate governance; (ii) (management) accounting change in privatized, public and third sectors (social enterprises, NGOs); (iii) global development, corruption, accountability and gender; (iv) reporting, accounting regulation and market-based accounting research.

Essex Business School seeks to strengthen and expand its teaching and research activities, and is seeking to make further appointments in any area of accounting. Reporting to the Dean, Essex Business School, the post-holder will, subject to the level of appointment, engage in and publish international and/or world leading research; generate significant research income; successfully supervise PhD students; offer leadership in research; undertake teaching responsibilities relevant to programmes of the School; and contribute more widely to the School through service, administration and, where appropriate, informal leadership.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POST

- To engage in curriculum development, undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, and research supervision at both an individual and a strategic level.
- To engage in individual and/or collaborative research activity resulting in internationally excellent publications that is in keeping with REF criteria.
- To provide research leadership and engage in activities that will enhance the research profile of the Department.

- To generate research income appropriate in scale to career stage and subject area norms.
- To contribute to the development of the University's national and international profile through excellent research.

MAIN DUTIES OF THE POST

Education

- To design and deliver a broad range of innovative teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- To make significant research-led and pedagogically informed contributions to module/curriculum design and development.
- To develop and deliver assessment and feedback strategies (e.g. through the setting, marking and moderation of exams and coursework) that support student learning.
- To support faculty and departmental quality assurance standards and procedures to ensure that teaching and learning support meets the standards expected within a research-led university.
- To engage in sustained, influential and successful ways with substantive teaching and learning support roles in the department, including those which involve the organisation, leadership and/or management of specific aspects of provision.
- To contribute actively to the co-ordination, support, supervision, management and/or mentoring of others (whether individual and/or teams) as directed by their Head of Department.

Research

- To pursue research of internationally recognised importance and quality that will make a significant contribution to the University's submission to future Research Excellence Framework exercises, enhance the international profile of the University and contribute to the development of its own communities of research.
- To engage in a sustained, successful and influential way with high-quality research grant applications as indicated by external grading, on an upward trajectory and - where appropriate - leading collaborations with other institutions and bodies that would produce demonstrable benefit to the University.
- To publish research outputs that are rated internationally excellent, which have significant impact in their field and to disseminate their results and scholarly findings in other appropriate and meaningful ways (e.g. at relevant national and international conferences).
- To contribute to generating societal impact beyond the academic sphere and to contribute to impact case studies in keeping with REF criteria.
- To provide leadership for the department research-strategy at sub-departmental level as directed by the Head of Department.
- To supervise, manage and/or mentor postgraduate research students and/or other staff engaged in research, as part of developing the Department's research community.

Leadership and Citizenship

- To undertake leadership of specific, significant areas of organisational activity within the department (e.g. recruitment, admissions, acting as undergraduate or postgraduate director) as may be reasonably required by the HoD.
- To undertake a senior leadership role within the department such as Director of Education or Director of Employability, responsible for a substantial area of curricula and/or cross-departmental projects, identifying areas for improvement and taking action as may be reasonably required by the Head of Department.
- To develop internal and external networks and establish links with relevant academic and professional bodies, contacts and employers.
- To demonstrate an active commitment to, and engagement in, continuing professional development related to academic, institutional and/or other professional practices, and to encourage this actively in others.
- To ensure knowledge and skills relevant to the profession are up-to-date and applied in education and research.

These duties are a guide to the work that the post holder will initially be required to undertake. They may be changed from time to time to meet changing circumstances.
