- Job Description
- Person Specification
- Additional information

**Previous applicants to job reference REQ02015 (Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, Reader in Economics) need not apply again****

Making an application:

Please complete the short on-line application form and attach the following 5 documents:

- A covering letter setting out how you meet the requirements of the role as set out in the person specification.
- A full curriculum vitae (CV) including any publications. You should provide information on the range and content of your teaching and supervision experience, as well as on curriculum development. You should also specify your 4 most significant papers published within the past 5 years (or an equivalent number appropriate to being an early career researcher). Applicants from within the UK should indicate which publications have been submitted to the REF 2014 and any assessment of the rating for each piece of work; For more information about the REF visit www.ref.ac.uk
- An education statement of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your track record in terms of contribution to pedagogical developments and, where appropriate, the development of professional practice. You should also include a reflective statement on your approach to research-led education and how it draws on pedagogical research. Also indicate how you ensure your continuing professional development as an excellent teacher in higher education.
- A research statement of no more than two sides of A4 providing details of your research plans for the next three years. This should include details of books, chapters or papers in progress together with planned publication dates. For journal articles please provide details of target journals and planned submission dates. If you have papers that are currently under review please detail the stage these have reached and the timescale you expect those papers to be accepted for publication. If you have papers that have been accepted for publication but not yet published please provide the date the paper was accepted for publication.
- A document of no more than two sides of A4 setting out your three year plan for generating external funding to support your research.

In addition to the above, your Job Market paper and three letters from referees must be submitted at <https://econjobmarket.org>.

You must complete both steps; otherwise your application will be incomplete and cannot be considered by the Hiring Committee.

Shortlisting is undertaken by a panel after the closing date on the basis of information provided and failure to upload the requested documents will result in an application being rejected.

External assessor's reports will be requested for shortlisted candidates as part of the selection process for this role. External assessors are provided with the CV only, and asked to comment on candidate's suitability for the role against the published job description and criteria. If you have any queries regarding this, please contact resourcing@essex.ac.uk

We recommend that you take a copy of this recruitment pack to help with your preparation.

Salary:	£51,630 - £58,090 per annum
Department/Section:	Economics
Responsible to:	Head of Department (HoD)
Role description:	To research any area of applied or theoretical economics. To teach economics at the undergraduate and postgraduate level and to supervise undergraduate projects and postgraduate research. To contribute to the effective administration of the Department.

CONTEXT

The department is ranked 5th among all UK economics departments for research excellence (REF 2014). The department is also ranked in the top category for teaching excellence (TEF 2017). The Department of Economics provides a vibrant research environment and has a strong collegial culture. It is a growing department, currently comprising 43 full-time academics, with distinctive clusters in microeconomics, macroeconomics, applied economics and econometrics. The University of Essex is located 60 miles northeast of London. For more information about the department and its programs see www.essex.ac.uk/economics.

The offer is competitive, and includes a generous relocation allowance, the possibility of paid research leave, and research funds. In addition the University currently operates a Market Supplement policy (see Additional Information).

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POST

- To contribute to the delivery of excellence in education through successful and sustained engagement in curriculum development, undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, and research supervision at both an individual and a strategic level.
- To engage in individual and/or collaborative research activity resulting in internationally excellent publications that is in keeping with REF criteria.
- To provide research leadership and engage in activities that will enhance the research profile of the Department.
- To generate research income appropriate in scale to career stage and subject area norms.
- To provide leadership in ensuring your own research and that of others in your department generates impact beyond the academic sphere in keeping with the REF criteria
- To contribute to the development of the University's national and international profiles through the development and delivery of excellent education and research.

MAIN DUTIES OF THE POST

Education

- To design and deliver a broad range of innovative teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- To make research-led and pedagogically informed contributions to module/curriculum design and development.
- To support faculty and departmental quality assurance standards and procedures to ensure that teaching and learning support meets the standards expected within a research-led university.
- To engage in sustained and influential ways with substantive teaching and learning support roles in the department, including those which involve the organisation, leadership and/or management of specific aspects of teaching and learning provision.
- To develop a good understanding of how effective approaches to teaching and learning support make key contributions to student learning across the University.

Research

- To pursue research of internationally recognised importance and quality that will make a significant contribution to the University's submission to future Research Excellence Framework exercises, enhance the international profile of the University and contribute to the development of its own communities of research.
- To engage in a sustained, successful and influential way with high-quality research grant applications as indicated by external grading, on an upward trajectory and - where appropriate - leading collaborations with other institutions and bodies that would produce demonstrable benefit to the University.
- To publish research outputs that are rated internationally excellent, which have significant impact in their field and to disseminate their results and scholarly findings in other appropriate and meaningful ways (e.g. at relevant national and international conferences).
- To make a major contribution to public engagement and dissemination of knowledge in the wider community and generate societal impact that will contribute to Impact Case Studies for the Research Excellence Framework
- To provide leadership for the department research-strategy at sub-departmental level as directed by the HoD.
- To, supervise, manage and/or mentor an above average number of postgraduate research students and/or other staff engaged in research, as part of developing the Department's research community.
- To make a major contribution to cross-departmental and inter-University research projects.

Leadership and Citizenship

- To undertake specific, strategic or significant areas of organisational activity within the department (e.g. recruitment, admissions, acting as undergraduate or postgraduate director, research group lead) as may be reasonably required by the Head of Department.
- To undertake a senior leadership role within the department such as Director of Education or Director of Employability, responsible for a substantial portfolio and/or cross-departmental projects, identifying areas for improvement and taking action as agreed with the Head of Department.

- To develop and/or lead internal and external networks and establish links with relevant academic and professional bodies, contacts and employers.
- To demonstrate an active commitment to, and engagement in, continuing professional development related to academic, institutional and/or other professional practices, and to encourage this actively in others.
- To ensure knowledge and skills relevant to the profession are up-to-date and applied in education and research, and that the implications of quality assurance and quality enhancement for professional practice with a particular focus on teaching are fully understood and enacted where required.

These duties are a guide to the work that the post holder will initially be required to undertake. They may be changed from time to time to meet changing circumstances.
