The University of Essex - a profile

The University of Essex was founded in 1964 when it opened its doors to a cohort of just 122 students. Since then, we have grown in both reputation and size. There are now more than 9,000 students studying at three campuses - in Colchester, Southend and Loughton (East 15 Acting School). All academic activity is organised into three faculties – Humanities, Science and Health and Social Sciences. We employ more than 2,000 members of staff.

We are an internationally diverse campus university with a genuine longstanding commitment to internationalization. Today more than 130 countries are represented within the student body and 38% of our students are from overseas.
