Faculty of Social Sciences Masters Scholarship eligibility
Department of Government

The scholarship is available to students studying any of our undergraduate (BA) courses:

- Economics and Politics (LL12)
- Economics and Politics (including Year Abroad) (LLIF)
- International Development (L900)
- International Development (including Year Abroad) (L901)
- International Relations (L258)
- International Relations (including Year Abroad) (L259)
- International Relations and Modern Languages (including Year Abroad) (LRF9)
- Law and Politics (ML12)
- Modern History and Politics (LV21)
- Modern History and Politics (Including Year Abroad) (LV2C)
- Modern History and International Relations (VL12)
- Modern History and International Relations (including Year Abroad) (VL1F)
- Philosophy and Politics (LV25)
- Philosophy and Politics (including Year Abroad) (LV2M)
- Philosophy, Politics and Economics (L0V0)
- Philosophy, Politics and Economics (including Year Abroad) (L0VA)
- Politics (L200)
- Politics (including Year Abroad) (L201)
- Politics with Human Rights (LM29)
- Politics with Human Rights (Including Year Abroad) (LFM9)
- Politics and Law (LM21)
- Politics and Law (including Year Abroad) (LM2C)
- Politics and Modern Languages (LR29)
- Politics and Sociology (LL32)
- Politics and Sociology (Including Year Abroad) (LL23)

You can apply for the scholarship to study one of the following Masters courses:

- MA/MSc Conflict Resolution
- MA/MSc European Integration and European Politics
- MA/MSc Global and Comparative Politics
- MA Ideology and Discourse Analysis
- MA/MSc International Relations
- MA International Relations and the Media
- MA/MSc Political Science
- MA/MSc Political Behaviour
- MA/MSc Political Economy
- MA Political Theory
- MA/MSc Public Opinion and Polling
- MA Politics