

University of Essex

We contribute

£584m

to the UK economy

"The University of Essex is a powerhouse that helps to boost productivity – by leading life-changing research and development, and by educating the people who create and lead successful businesses. We are making an important contribution to the growth of the East of England and the UK."

Professor Anthony Forster
Vice-Chancellor

In 2018-19 the University of Essex achieved

11.12%
growth

THE AWARDS
2018

Winner
University of the Year

£584,430,150

Total economic impact 2018-2019

Our economic impact in detail:

Colchester Campus

economic impact £508 million
students' contribution to economy £62 million
provides 2,290 jobs
indirectly supports a further 3,298 jobs

Southend Campus

economic impact £58 million
students' contribution to economy £5 million
provides 120 jobs
indirectly supports a further 173 jobs

£30.9m

Research income

£28.8m

Business and community engagement income

TOP 25

for research quality
The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2020

TOP 3

in the UK for Innovate UK's Knowledge Transfer Partnerships
January 2020

UEZ

Awarded University Enterprise Zone status
by the UK Government

GOLD

rated in the 2017 Teaching Excellence Framework

University of Essex 2018-19 economic impact report based on student headcount methodology rather than full-time equivalence. Figures exclude all UK and international partnerships, pre-sessional language and year abroad students.