

UNIVERSITY OF ESSEX

UNDERGRADUATE RULES OF ASSESSMENT

Applicable to students starting in Academic Year 2019-20

4 Four-Year Honours Degree

- 4.1 These Rules of Assessment apply to:
- (a) Courses with a Year Abroad or a Placement Year in Year Three
 - (b) Courses where all four years are spent at Essex.
- 4.2 These rules do not apply to courses which involve a Foundation Year followed by a Three-Year Honours Degree, and which do not include a Year Abroad or Placement Year. For such courses the Foundation Year and Three-Year Honours Degree Rules of Assessment will apply instead.

Year One

Requirement to pass Year One

- 4.3 To pass Year One and proceed to the next Year, you must:
- (a) Pass all modules and achieve 120 credits in the year at Level 4;
 - (b) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course;
 - (c) Achieve a minimum Year mark of 50 on all courses with a Year or term abroad.
- 4.4 You may be allowed to proceed to the next Year, following an attempt at reassessment, having passed a minimum of 90 credits, provided you have passed all the core modules for the year.
- 4.5 You can only fail 30 non-core credits across your degree. For example, if you fail 30 non-core credits in Year One, you cannot fail any more credits in your degree. Carrying forward failed credits to following years is called condonement. Where credits are condoned, the module mark will still be used to calculate the year mark. Table 4.1 below sets out the possibilities for condonement across a Four Year Honours Degree.

Pass with Distinction

- 4.6 To achieve a Distinction in Year One, you must have the following at the first attempt, either:
- (a) A Year mark of 70 or above, or
 - (b) A mark of 70 or above in at least 60 credits with no module mark lower than 60.

Reassessment: general principles

- 4.7 If you have failed any module(s) after you have completed all your assessments, but you have a Year mark of 20 or above, you will need to take reassessment before you can progress to the next Year of study. It is not possible to progress and take the reassessment or repeat the module while you are studying in the next Year.
- 4.8 The Board of Examiners can permit up to two further attempts at any module. However, your module mark(s) for those further attempts will be capped at 40.
- 4.9 The Board of Examiners will offer you all the reassessment opportunities that are available to you. If you are a Tier 4 student, your immigration status will not have been taken into account by the Board and some options offered may not be available to you due to the Home Office rules and guidance.

Table 4.1: Condonement of non-core credits across a Four Year Honours Degree

Year	Possibilities for condonement
One	Following compulsory reassessment failure may be condoned in up to 30 non-core credits.
Two	(a) If you have failed 30 credits in Year One you must pass 120 credits in Year Two. (b) If you have failed 15 credits in Year One, following reassessment, failure may be condoned in up to 15 non-core credits in Year Two. (c) If you passed 120 credits in Year One (ie you had no failures), following reassessment, failure may be condoned in up to 30 non-core credits in Year Two.
Three (where all four Years are spent at Essex)	(a) If you have failed 30 credits across Year One and Year Two you must pass 120 credits in Year Three. (b) If you have failed 15 credits across Year One and Year Two, following reassessment, failure may be condoned in up to 15 non-core credits in Year Three. (c) If you passed 240 credits in your previous Years (ie you had no failures), following reassessment, failure may be condoned in up to 30 non-core credits in Year Three.
Three (which is a Placement Year or a Year Abroad)	Condonement during a Year Abroad or in a Placement Year is not available
Final	(a) If you have failed a total of 30 credits in your previous Years, you must pass 120 credits in your Final Year. (b) If you have failed a total of 15 credits in your previous Years, failure may be condoned in up to 15 non-core credits in your Final Year. (c) If you passed all the credits in your previous Years (ie you had no failures), failure may be condoned in up to 30 non-core credits in your Final Year.

- 4.10 If you have attempted the reassessment of a module in the resit period or without attending the University and your mark is lower than your previous attempt, the Board of Examiners will use the previous higher mark to determine whether or not you can progress. However, if you repeat the Year (either full time or part time), the marks you achieve during your repeat Year will be the marks that are used by the Board of Examiners to determine whether or not you can progress. They will not take account of marks from a previous year or attempt, even if they are higher.
- 4.11 If you are on a course with a Year or term abroad and you have passed all modules but you have not achieved the minimum Year mark of 50, you may undertake reassessment in one or more modules (up to a maximum of 60 credits) in order to improve your Year mark. Although the marks achieved at the first attempt will remain on your transcript, the marks achieved after reassessment will be used to calculate whether or not you have achieved the required Year mark. Your Year mark and module aggregate will not change. If you have passed all modules but you have not achieved the minimum Year mark required for a course with a Year or term abroad, you may be permitted to transfer to a course which does not include a Year or term abroad instead of undertaking reassessment.
- 4.12 Following an attempt at reassessment, if you have failed up to 30 non-core credits, but have attempted the reassessment for each of the required modules, you may progress with the failed credits provided you have achieved the minimum Year mark of 50. You can fail only a total of 30 non-core credits over your whole degree. You must attempt reassessment before the Board of Examiners can consider your eligibility for condonement of failed credits. Where credits are condoned, the module mark will still be used to calculate the year mark.

Reassessment opportunities at the end of the Year

- 4.13 If you do not pass the year, but have a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered reassessment.

- 4.14 If you fail up to 60 credits you will be offered compulsory reassessment before the start of the next Year. Your module mark(s) will be capped at 40.
- 4.15 If you fail more than 60 credits you will be offered one or more of the following:
- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks;
 - (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks;
 - (c) Reassessment in the following year for capped module marks without attending the University.

Reassessment opportunities following the resit assessment period

- 4.16 Following reassessment, if you do not meet the requirements to progress, but achieve a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered one or more of the following opportunities:
- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks;
 - (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks;
 - (c) Reassessment in the following year for capped module marks without attending the University.
- 4.17 Following reassessment, if you still have not passed an optional module and you are repeating the year, either full or part-time, you can pick a different optional module.
- 4.18 You will not be allowed to progress to the next Year if you have failed any core module.
- 4.19 Following an attempt at reassessment for all the required modules, if you have failed up to 30 non-core credits, the Board of Examiners will offer the following opportunities:
- (a) If you have not had three attempts at the failed module(s), you can remain in Year One and take reassessment (see 4.17 above);
 - (b) Alternatively, if you have not had three attempts at the failed module(s), you can progress to Year Two carrying the failed non-core credits and have no further reassessment attempts at the failed module(s).
 - (c) If you have had three attempts at the module(s) but have still not achieved the pass mark, you can proceed to Year Two carrying the failed non-core credits.
- 4.20 You can only fail 30 non-core credits across your degree (see Table 4.1 above). You will not be able to transfer onto a course where these failed credits are listed as core.
- 4.21 Following reassessment, if you are on a course with a Year or term abroad and you failed to achieve a Year mark of 50 or above, you will be considered for a transfer to a degree programme without a Year or term abroad.

Withdrawal

- 4.22 You will be required to leave the University if:
- (a) Your Year mark is less than 20; or
 - (b) You were absent from all examinations without notifying the University of your absence and/or undertook none of the required reassessment; or
 - (c) You have failed the same module after three attempts and that module is either a core module or you need the module credits in order to progress to the next year; or
 - (d) You cannot complete your studies in your maximum period.

Extenuating circumstances

- 4.23 If you submit Extenuating Circumstances and they are accepted as valid, the Board of Examiners may be able to offer additional assessment opportunities, such as reassessment for uncapped module marks or voluntary reassessment, in line with the Extenuating Circumstances Policy and guidelines.

Year Two (where this is followed by a Placement Year or a Year Abroad)

Requirement to pass Year Two

- 4.24 To pass Year Two and proceed to the next Year, you must:
- (a) Pass all modules and achieve 120 credits in the year at Level 5 or above;
 - (b) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course.

Reassessment: general principles

- 4.25 If you have failed any module(s) after you have completed all your assessments, but you have a Year mark of 20 or above, you will need to take reassessment before you can progress to the next Year of study. It is not possible to progress and take the reassessment or repeat the module while you are studying in the next Year.
- 4.26 The Board of Examiners can permit up to two further attempts at any module. However, your module mark(s) for those further attempts will be capped at 40.
- 4.27 The Board of Examiners will offer you all the reassessment opportunities that are available to you. If you are a Tier 4 student, your immigration status will not have been taken into account by the Board and some options offered may not be available to you due to the Home Office rules and guidance.
- 4.28 If you have attempted the reassessment of a module in the resit period or without attending the University and your module mark is lower than your previous attempt, the Board of Examiners will use the previous higher mark to determine whether or not you can progress. However, if you repeat the Year (either full time or part time), the marks you achieve during your repeat Year will be the marks that are used by the Board of Examiners to determine whether or not you can progress. They will not take account of marks from a previous year or attempt, even if they are higher.
- 4.29 Following an attempt at reassessment for all the required modules, if you have failed up to 30 non-core credits, but have attempted the reassessment for each of the required modules, you may progress with the failed credits. You can only fail a total of 30 non-core credits over your whole degree. You must attempt reassessment before the Board of Examiners can consider your eligibility for condonement of failed credits. Where credits are condoned, the module mark will still be used to calculate the year mark and the degree mark.
- 4.30 If you have failed credits on a Four Year course with a Placement Year or Year Abroad your opportunities to undertake reassessment and progress to the Placement Year or Year Abroad will be limited (see Table 4.2 below).

Reassessment opportunities at the end of the Year

- 4.31 If you do not pass the year, but have a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered reassessment. The Board of Examiners will offer you the options shown in Table 4.2 below.

Reassessment opportunities following the resit assessment period

- 4.32 Following reassessment, if you do not meet the requirements to progress, but achieve a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered one or more of the following opportunities on the Four-Year course or, if possible, on an appropriate Three-Year course:
- (a) A full-time repeat Year for uncapped module marks;
 - (b) A part-time repeat Year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks;
 - (c) Reassessment in the following Year without attending the University for capped module marks.
- 4.33 Following reassessment, if you still have not passed an optional module and you are repeating the Year, either full or part-time, you can pick a different optional module.
- 4.34 You will not be allowed to progress to the next Year if you have failed any core module.

- 4.35 Following an attempt at reassessment for all the required modules, if you have failed up to 30 non-core credits the Board of Examiners will consider whether you can transfer to an appropriate Three-Year course and carry the failed credits.
- 4.36 If you have not had three attempts at the failed module(s), you can remain in Year Two and take reassessment (see 4.34 above);
- 4.37 Alternatively, if you have not had three attempts at the failed module(s), you can proceed to Year Three carrying the failed non-core credits and have no further reassessment attempts at the failed module(s);
- 4.38 If you have had three attempts at the module(s) but have still not achieved the pass mark, you can proceed to Year Three carrying the failed non-core credits.
- 4.39 Following reassessment, where the Board of Examiners had originally allowed you to start your Year Abroad/Placement Year and:
- (a) You have failed up to 30 non-core credits and you have passed 120 credits in Year One; or
 - (b) You have failed up to 15 non-core credits and you have passed 105 credits in Year One; the Board will allow you to remain on the Four-Year course, continue with your Year Abroad/Placement Year (if not already completed), and carry the failed credits.
- 4.40 You can only fail 30 non-core credits across your degree (see table 4.1 above). You will not be able to transfer onto a course where these failed credits are listed as core.

Exit Awards

- 4.41 If you cannot complete your studies or you are withdrawn from the University for any reason, the Board of Examiners will consider you for an Exit Award.
- 4.42 If you have been awarded 120 credits at Level 4 or above, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Certificate of Higher Education.
- 4.43 If you have attempted a minimum of 240 credits (with 120 credits at Level 5 or above) and you have been awarded 225 credits or more, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Diploma of Higher Education.

Withdrawal

- 4.44 You will be required to leave the University if:
- (a) Your Year mark is less than 20; or
 - (b) You were absent from all examinations without notifying the University of your absence and/or undertook none of the required reassessment; or
 - (c) You have failed the same module after three attempts and that module is either a core module or you need the module credits in order to progress to the next year; or
 - (d) You cannot complete your studies in your maximum period.

Extenuating circumstances

- 4.45 If you submit Extenuating Circumstances and they are accepted as valid, the Board of Examiners may be able to offer additional assessment opportunities, such as reassessment for uncapped module marks or voluntary reassessment, in line with the Extenuating Circumstances Policy and guidelines.

Year Two and Year Three where all four years are spent at Essex

Requirement to pass from Year Two to Year Three, and from Year Three to the Final Year

- 4.46 To pass Year Two and proceed to Year Three and to pass Year Three and proceed to the Final Year, in each year you must:
- (a) Pass all modules and achieve 120 credits in the year at Level 5 or above;
 - (b) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course.
- 4.47 You may be allowed to proceed to the next Year, following an attempt at reassessment, having passed a minimum of 90 credits, provided that:
- (a) You have passed all the core modules for the Year; and
 - (b) You have sufficient credits from the previous Year(s).
- 4.48 You will need a minimum of 210 credits from Year One and Year Two or 330 credits from Year One, Year Two and Year Three to be allowed to proceed.
- 4.49 You can only fail 30 non-core credits across your degree (see Table 4.1 above). If you are carrying:
- (a) 15 non-core failed credits from Year One, you can fail only an additional 15 non-core credits across Years Two, Three and your Final Year.
 - (b) 30 non-core failed credits from Year One, you cannot fail any more credits.

Reassessment: general principles

- 4.50 If you have failed any module(s) after you have completed all your assessments, but you have a Year mark of 20 or above, you will need to take reassessment before you can progress to the next year of study. It is not possible to progress and take the reassessment or repeat the module while you are studying in the next Year.
- 4.51 The Board of Examiners can permit up to two further attempts at any module. However, your module mark(s) for those further attempts will be capped at 40.
- 4.52 The Board of Examiners will offer you all the reassessment opportunities that are available to you. If you are a Tier 4 student, your immigration status will not have been taken into account by the Board and some options offered may not be available to you due to the Home Office rules and guidance.
- 4.53 If you have attempted the reassessment of a module in the resit period or without attending the University and your mark is lower than your previous attempt, the Board of Examiners will use the previous higher mark to determine whether or not you can progress. However, if you repeat the Year (either full time or part time), the marks you achieve during your repeat Year will be the marks that are used by the Board of Examiners to determine whether or not you can progress. They will not take account of marks from a previous year or attempt, even if they are higher.
- 4.54 Following an attempt at reassessment for all the required modules, if you still have not passed up to 30 non-core credits, but have attempted the reassessment for each of the required modules, you may progress with the failed credits. You can fail only a total of 30 non-core credits over your whole degree. You must attempt reassessment before the Board of Examiners can consider your eligibility for condonement of failed credits. Where credits are condoned, the module mark will still be used to calculate the year mark and the degree mark.

Reassessment opportunities at the end of the Year

- 4.55 If you do not pass the year, but you have a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered reassessment.
- 4.56 If you fail up to 60 credits you will be offered compulsory reassessment before the start of the next Year. Your module mark(s) will be capped at 40.
- 4.57 If you fail more than 60 credits you will be offered one or more of the following:
- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks;
 - (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks;
 - (c) Reassessment in the following year without attending the University for capped module marks.

Reassessment opportunities following the resit assessment period

- 4.58 Following reassessment, if you do not meet the requirements to progress, but achieve a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered one or more of the following opportunities:
- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks;
 - (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks;
 - (c) Reassessment in the following year without attending the University for capped module marks.
- 4.59 Following reassessment, if you still have not passed an optional module and you are repeating the Year, either full or part-time, you can pick a different optional module.
- 4.60 You will not be allowed to progress to the next Year if you have failed any core module.
- 4.61 Following an attempt at reassessment for all the required modules, if you have failed up to 30 non-core credits, the Board of Examiners will offer the following opportunities:
- (a) If you have not had three attempts at the same module, you can remain in the Year and take reassessment (see 4.61 above);
 - (b) Alternatively, if you have not had three attempts at the same module, you can progress to the next Year carrying the failed non-core credits and have no further reassessment attempts at the failed module(s).
 - (c) If you have had three attempts at the module but have still not achieved the pass mark, you can proceed to the next Year carrying the failed non-core credits.
- 4.62 You can only fail a total of 30 non-core credits across your degree (see Table 4.1 above). You will not be able to transfer to a course where these failed credits are listed as core.

Exit Awards

- 4.63 If you cannot complete your studies or you are withdrawn from the University for any reason, the Board of Examiners will consider you for an Exit Award.
- 4.64 If you have been awarded 120 credits at Level 4 or above, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Certificate of Higher Education.
- 4.65 If you have attempted a minimum of 240 credits (with 120 credits at Level 5 or above) and you have been awarded 225 credits or more (including at least 105 credits at Level 5 or above), you will be considered for a Diploma of Higher Education.

Withdrawal

- 4.66 You will be required to leave the University if:
- (a) Your Year mark is less than 20; or
 - (b) You were absent from all examinations without notifying the University of your absence and/or you undertook none of the required reassessment; or
 - (c) You have failed the same module after three attempts and that module is either a core module or you need the module credits in order to progress to the next year; or
 - (d) You cannot complete your studies in your maximum period.

Extenuating circumstances

- 4.67 If you submit Extenuating Circumstances and they are accepted as valid, the Board of Examiners may be able to offer additional assessment opportunities, such as reassessment for uncapped module marks or voluntary reassessment, in line with the Extenuating Circumstances Policy and guidelines.

Year Three (which is a Placement Year or a Year Abroad)

Requirement to pass Year Three which is a Year Abroad

- 4.68 To pass a Year Abroad and proceed to the Final Year, you must:

- (a) Enrol onto and attempt to pass the equivalent of 120 Essex credits. The best 75% of the marks obtained for individual modules will be used to create an average Year Mark which will be converted into an Essex Year Mark and approved by the Board of Examiners. To pass the Year Abroad you must obtain a Year Mark of 40 or above;
- (b) Pass all core modules;
- (c) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course.

Requirement to pass Year Three which is a Placement Year

4.69 To pass a Placement Year and proceed to the Final Year, you must:

- (a) Achieve a pass in your Placement Year;
- (b) Pass all core modules;
- (c) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course.

Pass a Placement Year with Distinction

4.70 On some courses it may be possible to gain a Distinction for your Placement Year. Where this is offered, you must fulfil the course requirements as outlined in the Variations to the Rules of Assessment.

Reassessment opportunities at the end of the Year

- 4.71 Reassessment or repeat study is not normally available for a period of study abroad.
- 4.72 Limited reassessment opportunities, if any, exist for a Placement Year and repeat study is not normally available.
- 4.73 If you have failed your Placement Year or Year Abroad you will be offered the chance to transfer to the Final Year of an appropriate Three-Year course if this is possible.
- 4.74 If you have failed your Placement Year or Year Abroad with a Year mark of 20 or above and the opportunity to undertake reassessment is available, you must take the necessary reassessment. Your module aggregate mark will be capped at 40. If you fail the reassessment no further reassessment opportunity will be offered and you will be offered the chance to transfer to the Final Year of an appropriate Three-Year course if this is possible.

Exit Awards

- 4.75 If you cannot complete your studies or you are withdrawn from the University for any reason, the Board of Examiners will consider you for an Exit Award.
- 4.76 If you have been awarded 120 credits at Level 4 or above, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Certificate of Higher Education.
- 4.77 If you have attempted a minimum of 240 credits (with 120 credits at Level 5 or above) and you have been awarded 225 credits or more, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Diploma of Higher Education.

Extenuating circumstances

- 4.78 If you submit Extenuating Circumstances and they are accepted as valid, the Board of Examiners may be able to offer additional assessment opportunities, such as reassessment for uncapped module marks or voluntary reassessment, in line with the Extenuating Circumstances Policy and guidelines.

Final Year

Requirement to pass the Final Year

4.79 To pass the Final Year, you must:

- (a) Pass all modules and achieve 120 credits in the year, with at least 90 at level 6;
- (b) Meet any variation to the Rules of Assessment which may apply to your course.

- 4.80 You can fail only a total of 30 non-core credits across your degree (see Table 4.1 above). Where credits are condoned, the module mark will still be used to calculate the year mark and the degree mark. If you are carrying:
- (a) 15 non-core failed credits from the previous Years, you can fail only an additional 15 non-core credits in your Final Year.
 - (b) 30 non-core failed credits from the previous Years, you cannot fail any more credits.

Reassessment: general principles

- 4.81 If you have failed any module(s) after you have completed all your assessments, but you have a year mark of 20 or above, you may need to take reassessment. All failed modules which are core must be reassessed. You must pass a minimum of 450 credits, with at least 90 at level 6, to be awarded your degree.
- 4.82 The Board of Examiners can permit up to two further attempts at a module if the reassessment is required before you can be awarded your degree. This is called 'compulsory reassessment'. However, your module mark(s) for those further attempts will be capped at 40.
- 4.83 If you do not need to take reassessment in order to be awarded your degree, you may choose voluntary reassessment of one or more modules so as to retrieve these fails. In this circumstance you will be permitted only one further attempt at each module. Your mark(s) will be capped at 40 for each module.
- 4.84 The Board of Examiners will offer you all the reassessment opportunities that are available to you. If you are a Tier 4 student, your immigration status will not have been taken into account by the Board and some options offered may not be available to you due to the Home Office rules and guidance.
- 4.85 If you have attempted the reassessment of a module in the resit period or without attending the University and your mark is lower than your previous attempt, the Board of Examiners will use the previous higher mark to determine whether or not you can progress. However, if you repeat the Year (either full time or part time), the marks you achieve during your repeat Year will be the marks that are used by the Board of Examiners to determine whether or not you can progress. They will not take account of marks from a previous year or attempt, even if they are higher.

Compulsory reassessment at the end of the Year

- 4.86 If you do not meet the requirements to pass and complete your degree, but you achieve a Year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered reassessment. The reassessment offered to you will depend on how many credits you have failed in your Final Year and whether you have any failed credits from previous years. You can fail a maximum of 30 non-core credits across the whole of your degree.
- 4.87 In the Final Year you will be offered compulsory reassessment in the minimum number of credits you need to obtain your degree, up to a maximum of 60 credits, before the new academic year begins. Where appropriate, a combination of compulsory and voluntary reassessment will be offered up to a total of 60 credits. Your module mark(s) will be capped at 40. If you fail this reassessment and you cannot complete your degree, you can then be offered further reassessment for more than 60 credits. Table 4.3 below shows the reassessment opportunities available to you in your Final Year.
- 4.88 If you need to take reassessment in more than 60 credits and cannot complete your degree you will be offered either;
- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks; or
 - (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks; or
 - (c) Reassessment in the following year without attending the University for capped module marks.

Table 4.3: Reassessment in the Final Year; number of credits that will be offered before the next academic year

Number of failed non-core credits from previous years	Number of credits failed in the Final Year	Reassessment you may be offered Note: All core modules that you have failed must be retaken
None	45	15 credits compulsory; 30 credits voluntary.
	60	30 credits compulsory 30 credits voluntary
	75	45 credits compulsory 15 credits voluntary
	90	60 credits compulsory; your choice from the 90 failed
15	30	15 credits compulsory 15 credits voluntary
	45	30 credits compulsory 15 credits voluntary
	60	45 credits compulsory 15 credits voluntary
	75	60 credits compulsory; your choice from the 75 failed
30	Between 15 and 60	All failed credits - compulsory

Voluntary reassessment at the end of the Year

4.89 If you have achieved the credits required to be awarded your degree, but have failed up to a total of 30 non-core credits in your Final Year, you will be offered voluntary reassessment in these credits for capped module marks. Voluntary reassessment must be attempted before the start of the next Year. The highest mark you achieve for the failed module(s) will be used for your final degree classification up to a maximum mark of 40. This will be the only opportunity you will have to retrieve these fails.

4.90 You can choose to either:

- (a) Graduate and then attempt reassessment, or
- (b) Graduate without reassessment.

Reassessment opportunities following the resit assessment period

4.91 Following reassessment, if you do not meet the requirements to be awarded your degree but you achieve a year mark of 20 or above, you may be offered one or more of the following opportunities (but be aware that Boards of Examiners will only offer you reassessment in a sufficient number of modules to enable you to meet the minimum criteria for the award, so for example, if you have failed 60 credits' worth of non-core modules in your Final Year, you will only be offered reassessment in 30 credits);

- (a) A full-time repeat year for uncapped module marks; or
- (b) A part-time repeat year for up to 105 credits for uncapped module marks; or
- (c) Reassessment in the following year without attending the University for capped module marks.

Exit Awards

- 4.92 If you cannot complete your studies or you are withdrawn from the University for any reason, the Board of Examiners will consider you for an Exit Award.
- 4.93 If you have been awarded 120 credits at Level 4 or above, the Board of Examiners will consider you for a Certificate of Higher Education.
- 4.94 If you have attempted a minimum of 240 credits (with 120 credits at Level 5 or above) and you have been awarded 225 credits or more, you will be considered for a Diploma of Higher Education.
- 4.95 If you have been awarded 300 credits or more, with 60 credits at Level 6, the Board of Examiners will consider you for an Ordinary Degree, which is unclassified. This includes any credits achieved during a term abroad; however, credits from a foundation year, year abroad or placement year cannot be included.

Withdrawal

- 4.96 You will be required to leave the University if:
- (a) Your year mark is less than 20; or
 - (b) You were absent from all compulsory examinations without notifying the University of your absence and /or undertook none of the compulsory reassessment; or
 - (c) You have failed the same module after three attempts and that module is either a core module or you need the module credits in order to be awarded your degree; or
 - (d) You cannot complete your studies in your maximum period.

Extenuating circumstances

- 4.97 If you submit Extenuating Circumstances and they are accepted as valid, the Board of Examiners may be able to offer additional assessment opportunities, such as reassessment for uncapped module marks or voluntary reassessment, in line with the Extenuating Circumstances Policy and guidelines.

Degree eligibility and classification

- 4.98 To achieve a Four-Year Honours degree, you must attempt 480 credits and pass at least 450 credits across your degree with at least 90 credits at level 6. All core modules must be passed.
- 4.99 There are four different types (Models) of Four-Year degree course, each with its own requirements:
- (a) For courses involving a full-year work placement as Year Three (Model 1 below), the work placement has a credit value of 120 credits. You must pass the work placement to be eligible for the degree, but any marks awarded for the work placement will not count towards the class of degree.
 - (b) For courses involving a Year Abroad as Year Three (Models 2 and 3 below), the Year Abroad has a total credit value of 120 credits. You must pass the Year to be eligible for the degree. The marks awarded for the Year may count towards the class of degree.
 - (c) For courses where all four Years are studied at Essex (Model 4 below), your degree class is based upon your Year Two, Year Three and Final Year marks.
- 4.100 Your marks from Year Two and the Final Year are used to calculate an overall degree mark under Model 1 below. Your marks from Year Two, Year Three and the Final Year are used to calculate an overall degree mark under Models 2, 3 and 4 below. Your Year marks are given different percentage weightings depending upon the Model. The degree mark is used to determine your degree class. These are set out in Tables 4.4 to 4.7 below.
- 4.101 Your degree is classified using your degree mark. If you are within two marks of the next classification you will receive the higher class if you meet the credit requirements across your Final and earlier Years for the relevant Model as set out in Tables 4.4 to 4.7 below.

- 4.102 There are a limited number of courses that have a variation to this weighting. Full details of these can be found in the variations.
- 4.103 Module marks and your degree mark are rounded to the nearest whole number, with half marks (ie .5) or more being rounded up.
- 4.104 With regard to the weighting for Models 2 and 3 set out in Tables 4.5 and 4.6 respectively, the marks from the Year Abroad will only be used where they improve your degree classification. Where your degree classification is based on the courses you studied at Essex and excludes your Year Abroad marks, you will remain on the Four-Year programme and the transcript of your records for your Year Abroad and your Year Abroad marks will remain on your transcript.

Classification	Requirement to achieve this classification
First Class Honours (1)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 70 or more; or (b) 120 credits (from Year Two and your Final Year) at 70 or above with a degree mark of 68 or 69.
Upper Second Class Honours (2.1)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 60 or more; or (b) 120 credits (from Year Two and your Final Year) at 60 or above with a degree mark of 58 or 59.
Lower Second Class Honours (2.2)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 50 or more; or (b) 120 credits (from Year Two and your Final Year) at 50 or above with a degree mark of 48 or 49.
Third Class Honours (3)	Meet the criteria for the award of an Honours degree (see 4.101 above) but without sufficient marks to obtain a Lower Second Class honours degree or higher.
Weighting	Year Two: 40 Year Three: 0 Final Year: 60

Table 4.5: Degree classification Model 2: Year Abroad (normally as part of a language-related degree) as Year Three

Classification	Requirement to achieve this classification
First Class Honours (1)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 70 or more; or (b) 150 credits (from Year Two, Year Three and your Final Year) at 70 or above with a degree mark of 68 or 69.
Upper Second Class Honours (2.1)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 60 or more; or (b) 150 credits (from Year Two, Year Three and your Final Year) at 60 or above with a degree mark of 58 or 59.
Lower Second Class Honours (2.2)	Either: (a) A degree mark of 50 or more; or (b) 150 credits (from Year Two, Year Three and your Final Year) at 50 or above with a degree mark of 48 or 49.
Third Class Honours (3)	Meet the criteria for the award of an Honours degree (see 4.101 above) but without sufficient marks to obtain a Lower Second Class honours degree or higher.
Weighting	Year Two: 30 Year Three: 20 Final Year: 50 When calculating the number of credits for the purposes of degree classification, the mark obtained for your year abroad is counted as 90 credits, giving a total of 330 credits (120 from Year Two, 90 from Year Three, and 120 from your Final Year) which may count towards the final classification. The marks from your Year Abroad will only be used where they improve your degree classification. Your degree mark will be calculated both with the weightings 30:20:50 described above and with the weightings 40:0:60. The Board of Examiners will award you the better of these two degree marks.

Weighting	Year Two: 30 Year Three: 20 Final Year: 50 When calculating the number of credits for the purposes of degree classification, the mark obtained for your Year Abroad is counted as 60 credits, giving a total of 300 credits (120 from Year Two, 60 from Year Three, and 120 from your Final Year) which may count towards your final classification. The marks from your Year Abroad should only be able to improve your degree classification. Your degree mark will be calculated both with the weightings 30:20:50 described above and with the weightings 40:0:60. The Board of Examiners will award you the better of these two degree marks.
