Welcome from the Head of Department

A very warm welcome to new students and an equally warm welcome back to returning students. My colleagues and I hope that the academic year 2019-20 will be a productive and happy one for you.

I would like to say a big thanks to all of you for making the Department of Government your academic home. We are deeply committed to making your time at Essex an exciting and rewarding experience. We promise to provide you with the best possible learning environment for accomplishing your personal development and career goals.

The Department of Government has consistently been ranked as the top politics department in the UK. In the last Research Excellence Framework, the department was yet again ranked first for its excellence in research, so it is no exaggeration to say that you are taught by the very best scholars in the field. The department is also recognized as one of the leading departments globally, with a stellar reputation for academic excellence.

Equally important, the department places great value on fostering a strong sense of community among all of its members – students and staff. You will see plenty of evidence of this throughout the academic year in the form of invitations to our student-staff conferences, monthly opportunities to meet with me and my leadership team, departmental seminars and various social events.

In addition, we have a very active Politics Society that features an exciting program throughout the academic year. The department boasts a welcoming common room, 5B.303, which is open to all students and staff. We strongly encourage you to make use of these great opportunities and facilities to engage with your fellow department members.

We sustain our academic excellence through a rigorous curriculum with high standards. This requires hard work from you. We demand a lot of you throughout your studies in order to prepare you for successful careers after university. At the same time, we expect you to demand a lot from us. The Department and University have a wealth of resources to support your studies, and I encourage you to make use of them.

This handbook is an essential guide to regulations, procedures and organisational issues, and should be your first stop for answers to questions about the department or the university. In addition, you may wish to consult the departmental website (http://www.essex.ac.uk/government) and the university module directory (http://www.essex.ac.uk/modules/). If you cannot find answers to your questions in the handbook or online, you can contact our Professional Services Team (govquery@essex.ac.uk, Room 5B.322), the Director of Education, Professor Paul Bou-Habib (pbou@essex.ac.uk, Room 5.017) or the Co-Director of Education UG, Dr Tom Quinn (tquinn@essex.ac.uk, Room 5.012). All of us want you to have a happy, safe and transformative educational experience.

You should of course also always feel free to talk to me as Head of Department if you have any questions or concerns. The best way to reach me is by e-mail (shane.martin@essex.ac.uk). As I mentioned above I’ll also be holding a weekly coffee hour with various cohorts during the autumn and spring terms; these will be advertised to you via email. So, please do pop along and say hello.

Welcome again, and all the very best for the new academic year!

Professor Shane Martin
Head of Department & Anthony King Chair in Comparative Government

Introduction

This Handbook is designed to provide you with an overview of all the essential information about the University and the Department of Government. Your Student Handbooks provides details of your department, including staff and contact details, facilities and ways to communicate and receive updates, as well as information relating to your course of study at Essex, including Rules of Assessment and the related policies, prizes awarded by the department each year, student feedback and meetings, and University regulations regarding progress, appeals and extenuating circumstances.

At our three uniquely intimate campuses we celebrate diversity and challenge inequality. Whatever your background, race or sexual orientation, you are part of a vibrant community that lives, learns and plays together.

Essex is about more than just getting a degree: we have so much to offer our students! This Student Handbook contains information on your Essex Experience, including the Students’ Union, sports clubs and societies, Essex Sport, Careers Services, campus information, IT support and services and our extensive range of student support and services.

The Student Directory contains a wealth of other helpful sources of information which can be found at https://www.essex.ac.uk/student.
Practicalities and Getting Started

You’ve made it to Essex! We’ve outlined below the most important things you need to make sure you do as soon as possible to get set up and started at Essex.

Complete your Registration

Whilst you have accepted your offer and made your way to Essex, you still need to officially register yourself. At the start of each academic year, all new and returning students are required to register at the University. Registration is not only a formal procedure of enrolling you into the University, but it also connects you up to a number of vital systems you will need access to, including your IT account. As part of this process, you will need to complete online pre-arrival, physically attend a registration event on campus, and also activate your IT account.

To begin your registration, use one of the links below:

New students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/registration

Returning students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/registration/returner-registration

eNROL

You may have to select options to select as part of your course structure. If you do, you must choose the options that you wish to enrol on before the academic year begins. New students will access the system from the end of August. Returning students will access the system from the April preceding the next academic year. Departments will approve your selections within a few weeks of them being made, and timetables will take module enrolment into account when planning for the next academic year. Early module enrolment will ensure that you know which modules to attend and where the lectures and classes are ready for the start of term. You can view and choose your specific options through the eNROL system.

eNROL: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/enrol/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2Fenrol%2F

Explore your Campus

There is a broad range of facilities across each of our campuses to support your living and learning experience at Essex. We provide study-based services, like the IT helpdesk and group study pods, but also various food and drink venues and leisure facilities. The Students’ Union also runs a wide range of facilities, bars and general stores. Full details on all on-campus facilities feature on our student webpages and in the campus guide you received with your welcome information when you joined us as a student member.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/life/student-facilities

Get connected

Your IT account

You will need to set up your IT account and create a password through the University website www.essex.ac.uk/it/getaccount. You will need to register an external email address and passphrase to set up your account. Once you’re set up, you can access your email, log on to lab computers, connect to campus Wi-Fi, and much more.

You must change your password within four weeks of your account being created, and then once every four months after that. You should receive email notifications to change your password shortly before it is due to expire. The easiest way to change your password is online at: www.essex.ac.uk/password. If you have forgotten your password, you can also reset it. through this link using your external email address and passphrase. If you have forgotten those also, you should either visit the IT Helpdesk or call 01206 872345. Make sure you keep your password safe and do not share it with others!

Campus Wi-Fi
Wi-Fi is available across all campuses. Simply find the ‘eduroam’ network on your device and use the same log in details as your IT account to connect up!

Essex Apps
The University has a variety of online systems and platforms designed to enhance your learning and help make processes, such as submitting coursework, easier. We have rounded up the top platforms, portals and apps that you need to know about!

MyEssex
MyEssex is your online account. You can use it to see your timetable, keep your personal details up-to-date, request replacement registration cards or supporting documents, such as council tax exemption certificates, see how you’re doing on your course, let us know if you’ll miss a lecture or class, contact the Student Services Hub, and much more.

PocketEssex
Pocket Essex is the University's official app for students, giving you access to comprehensive information about living and learning at Essex. The app provides an interface of icons that act as a portal through to a variety of useful links, areas and resources. PocketEssex links to many areas that MyEssex does in a handy app form, but also takes you through to many other key contacts and resources, such as the Students’ Union, FindYourWay and the Library.

Find Your Way
We know that finding your way from one room to another can be challenging to start with. Our Colchester campus in particular can be difficult to navigate with a historically complex room numbering system that leaves even our final year students still baffled! FindYourWay is our interactive campus map that can either be accessed via PocketEssex, downloaded as its own app, or via web browser. It is designed to help you get from A to B on either the Colchester or Southend campuses with quick and easy directions. http://findyourway.essex.ac.uk/

https://www.essex.ac.uk/myessex/

Your personal belongings
University insurance cover is very limited for the belongings of students using graduate study rooms. Therefore, you are strongly advised to take out personal insurance cover for your possessions. This is especially important for items of particular value, such as personal electronic devices (i.e., laptops, phones and tablets). The University does not cover costs for personal damage or loss of your possessions; only in instances where the University has been negligent would a claim be viable for compensation for personal belongings.

Right to Study
The University must ensure all students have the right to study at the University of Essex for the whole duration of their course(s). If you require immigration permission to study in the UK, this will be checked when you first register on your course and as necessary thereafter.

For Tier 4 sponsored students, you will have conditions attached to your leave restricting study and work; some nationals are required to register with the Police. You are expected to have the finances in place to pay your tuition fees and living costs throughout your course and do not have access to state housing or benefits.

The Tier 4 rules and guidance include restrictions relating to the length of time you can spend studying in the UK and academic progress; this may mean you are unable to take an academic option offered to you or that we can’t continue to sponsor you under Tier 4. The University has many duties as a Tier 4 sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our Tier 4 licence. Find out more on the University’s website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/immigration/ and https://www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/regulations

If you would like to get additional support with your English language skills, you can find helpful information and a range of resources here: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/international-students

English classes for the dependants of international students and staff (ECDIS)

The Department of Language and Linguistics offers dependants of international students and staff at the Colchester Campus the chance to improve their English language, through our ECDIS programme, at no extra cost. Classes are taught at three basic levels: Elementary (A1/A2), Intermediate (B1/B2) and Advanced (C1/C2) and will focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing.

The Essex Experience

The University and the Students' Union have developed our Student Charter as a part of our ongoing commitment to create an outstanding environment that offers the highest standards of teaching, research and support in an international and multi-cultural community.

The Student Charter reiterates that you are a member of the University of Essex community, not just while you are a student or recent graduate here, but for life.

You can read the full Student Charter at:

www.essex.ac.uk/students/experience/charter

You are welcomed to a truly diverse community where differences are celebrated and individuality is valued. Your contribution is welcomed and encouraged based on your own thoughts and experiences. As part of our community you will have the freedom to explore, experiment, and challenge your discipline and have your ideas shaped by peer and professional knowledge from all over the world.

Your time at Essex will be an experience beyond the classroom; there is so much available to all students so you can make the most of your time at Essex and have a truly unforgettable Essex Experience.

Equality, Inclusion and Diversity

The University recognises the value of diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity within the University. It therefore aims to create the conditions whereby students and staff are treated with dignity and respect, and solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential, regardless of race, ethnic or national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, socio-economic background, family circumstances, religious or political beliefs and affiliations, or any other irrelevant distinction.

The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy is fully effective. You can find out more information on the University’s policy, and get in touch with any comments or questions, here:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/information/equality-and-diversity/equality-and-diversity-policy-and-strategy

Embrace the Essex Values

We are different at Essex. We are brave, we are bold, and we embrace challenges and drive change. Our values are underpinned by this very culture. While we full heartedly encourage students to challenge the status quo and explore the unknown, we expect that students do so respectfully, intelligently and act as true ambassadors for the University.

The University’s Code of Student Conduct can be found on the website:

International Students
We are proud to be a global community and we recognise that living and studying in the UK may be very different from your own country.

Essex has a wide range of support covering academic and health and wellbeing issues. Our friendly and professional staff will be able to guide, give advice and assist you during your time at Essex.

You can find helpful information here –

https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/international-students and http://www.essex.ac.uk/student/student-communities/international

Mature and part-time students
We appreciate that studying as a mature student can present challenges. This is particularly true if this is your first experience of higher education and you have other commitments and responsibilities to meet, such as work and family. We want you to be aware of the support available so that you can make the most of your time at Essex.

You can find more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/groups/mature-students.aspx

Student Ambassadors
Be a Student Ambassador, make a difference to others and also make a difference on your CV! Student Ambassadors help to promote the University and higher education. You'll be a valued part of the Student Recruitment and Outreach teams. Keep an eye out for Student Ambassador vacancies on CareerHub+ in January.

Essex Sport
Be active at Essex! Learning doesn't just happen in the classroom. Keeping active during your studies can help relieve stress, increase productivity, provide a sense of community and improve your employability.

Essex Sport offers a great range of sport courses, social active sessions, over 300 fitness classes a month and a state-of-the-art gym, so there's something for everyone!
Visit the Essex Sport website or download the app to discover all the ways you can keep active during your time at Essex.

Students’ Union

We’re famous for our Students’ Union at Essex, and for good reason. Here you’re not just a member of a normal Students’ Union; you’re part of a family. We’re here to cheer you on as you walk into exams and to help you absolutely destroy the competition in interviews and land your dream job. The Students’ Union is run by students for students, and you have the ability to shape what we do. From suggesting what we serve in our venues, to changing aspects of your course, we are here to represent you and work with you to make amazing things happen. There are opportunities to join 45 different Sports Clubs, to get involved with our BUCS teams which offer a wide individual championships programme of activities taking place across the year and lots of competitions take place on Wednesdays and weekends, or if you don’t want to commit to a regular team check out our Just Play programme of activities.

https://www.essexstudent.com

Get involved

We have 120 existing Societies where you can meet people with similar interests, challenge yourself with something new or, if you can't find what you’re looking for, start your own society!

Furthermore, we have our very own letting agency SU Homes designed to offer help and support for students to find off campus accommodation.

Senior Personal Tutor, Study Skills Officer, Departmental Disability Liaison Officer

The Senior Personal Tutor (SPT) has a number of advisory roles within the Department of Government.

Email: govsenioradviser@essex.ac.uk

If you are having any issues that are affecting your studies, whether they are academic or personal, the SPT is able to provide guidance. The SPT also provides guidance on change of course, special syllabus requests, intermissions and extenuating circumstances.

Study Skills Officer

The SPT is also the Study Skills Officer for the department and holds one-to-one Study Skills Sessions, covering topics such as how to structure essays and reference correctly. A timetable of available appointments will be available for you to sign up to these sessions. Alternatively you can email for an appointment to govquery@essex.ac.uk.

Departmental Disability Liaison Officer (DDLO)

If you have a disability, medical condition, specific learning or mental health difficulty, there is a network of support for you. As well as a team of specialist advisers based in the Student Support Office, each department has a representative to help you to access your studies; the SPT is this representative in the department.

The DDLO:
- Is a representative in the department who has an awareness of disability issues and the reasonable adjustments which may be required under the Disability Discrimination Act.
- Has knowledge of the subject area you are studying and the structure of the department.
Can provide advice about the University’s specialist support services.
Can act as a link between the department and Student Support; you can disclose, or discuss your needs, confidentially to them.
Can liaise with lecturers if you are worried about talking to them about disability related difficulties.
Can assist if you feel the reasonable adjustments recommended are not being implemented by the department.
Is a person you can contact if you are experiencing problems with your academic progress as a result of a permanent or temporary disability, medical condition or specific learning difficulty and who will be able to find out about the options available to you.
Will listen to your concerns confidentially.

Contact the DDLO at email: govddlo@essex.ac.uk

Your Module Tutor
All teaching staff hold regular weekly academic support hours during term time. This is a time when you can go and see them about anything to do with your modules, from difficulties you might be having with your seminar readings, to discussions about feedback on your coursework. These academic support hours operate on a ‘drop-in’ basis - this means that you do not need to book an appointment; you can just turn up during the time advertised. Details of academic support hours are posted on office doors and on the website. If you cannot make the advertised time for any reason, you can e-mail your tutor to make an appointment.

Please note that academic staff do not hold regular academic support hours during the vacations, and may, on occasions, be away from the University on research trips and visits. Therefore, if you need to get in touch with them during the vacation periods, you should e-mail them in the first instance.

You can find out who is the module tutor for each Module here https://www1.essex.ac.uk/modules/

Your Personal Tutor
All undergraduate students have a Personal Tutor who will meet you soon after you arrive, and regularly throughout your course. Your Personal Tutor will be a member of the academic staff from within the department and is there to help you feel connected to your department. Your Personal Tutor is someone who you can talk to if you have questions about your course or encounter any difficulties that may affect your studies, and can recommend and direct you to other support services on campus that might be able to further help and support you.

First Years – To be confirmed
Second Years – Dr Tom Quinn
Third and Final Years – Professor Paul Bou Habib

You can contact your Personal Tutor to speak about any academic issues you may be experiencing, during their academic support hours. You may also be invited to meetings with your Personal Tutor throughout the academic year.

Your Peer Mentor
All first-year students are assigned a Peer Mentor. Your Peer Mentor will be a current second or final-year Department of Government undergraduate and should contact you before you arrive at Essex. You will have the opportunity to meet your Peer Mentor at the Induction Day in Welcome Week; from them on, how often you contact or meet your Peer mentor is entirely up to you. You may find that they are an incredibly useful source of information, especially during the first few weeks of term.

Further information on mentoring at Essex role can be found here:
If you find that you do not have one but you would like a Peer Mentor, please contact Sallyann West (govquery@essex.ac.uk) or any of the below students who would be pleased to guide you.

Become a Mentor

If you are in second or final-year and are interested in becoming a Peer Mentor, a call for mentor applications is usually circulated in the Spring term. If you have any questions in the meantime, you can contact Sallyann West (govquery@essex.ac.uk)

Staff research interests

A full list of our academic staff research interests can be found on our website https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/government/people/academic

Departmental resources and facilities

A wide range of facilities and resources are available for all students to access and use as part of their study at Essex. Each department and school also has a selection for the exclusive use of their students. Below is a summary of the facilities and resources that are likely to be most useful to you.

Common Room

Our departmental staff and student common room (5B.303) is free for you to use. We have comfortable couches, tables for working at, a TV and free refreshments. We also have coffee and cake mornings once a term in the common room which are open to all students, so please feel free to come along!
Printing, Photocopying and Scanning
All students can print, copy and scan for free at Essex! There are over 100+ multi-function devices that can be used at various locations across our three Campuses. Facilities are available at the Library, Roding House and Unit 4 at Loughton Campus. In Southend, printing facilities are available on 5th floor of the Gateway Building and in The Forum.

Simply log in to the devices using your Essex login and password, or tap with your student card. These devices can also scan to email and feature mobile printing. Whilst printing is free for all students, please think of your carbon footprint and only print if necessary.

Please note that there are strict laws about infringement of copyright; more information can be found on the library website which explains what and how much you are permitted to copy. Usage is monitored and subject to a fair use policy.

https://library.essex.ac.uk/copyright

Departmental prizes
At the end of each academic year, prizes are awarded to the students who have achieved top marks in the department. The prizes for undergraduate students are:

First Year Undergraduate
- Best First Year Student
- Best First Year BA Politics Student
- Best First Year International Relations Student
- Best First Year Joint Degree Student Prize

Second Year Undergraduate
- The Leatherland Book Prize for the Best Second Year Student

Third Year Undergraduate
- The Jean Blondel Prize for the Best Undergraduate Degree Result
- The Oscar Arias Prize for the Best Undergraduate Dissertation
- Book Prize for the Best Joint Degree
- Award for the Best Empirical Dissertation

Prizes are also given at the Annual Student Conference for the best papers presented in each category.

Communication
It is important to keep up to date with information relating to your department and course. This section also summarises how the department/school will communicate updates with you and provides some guidance on communicating with University staff.

By email
The University’s departments and schools will predominantly use e-mail for routine communication between staff and students. Your Essex e-mail address will have been added to the relevant e-mail groups specific to your department or school, course and modules to ensure that you receive the essential information, updates and general communication related to your study and issues that may affect you. It is therefore vital that you check your Essex email regularly. It is recommended that you check your Essex email each day to ensure you do not miss any important updates to classes and assessment.
If you are elected to a Student Representative position, work as a Student Ambassador, or volunteer in another form or means, it is even more important to regularly check your Essex email as, should other students and staff need to get in touch, they will do so via your Essex email.

You will also automatically be subscribed to a small number of opt-out lists, again, based on your course. These will be used to send useful information and, while some of this may be about events, marketing or other opportunities, we try to avoid sending too much. To opt in or out of such lists, please visit:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/services/forms/default.aspx

How you should communicate

While email can be a quick and easy means of communicating, you should still consider how you structure and write each email to ensure it is appropriate when contacting members of staff at the University. How you communicate is a reflection on your professional and academic self, and so we have provided some useful tips to consider when constructing an email for different purposes. These are also useful when contacting professionals and academics outside of the University and are widely recognised as a matter of courtesy in the United Kingdom.

The level of formality

- If you are writing to your lecturer for the first time, it is good practice to use a relatively formal manner and use their correct title, for example, ‘Dear Dr Bercow’ or ‘Dear Professor Hammond’.

- If your lecturer signs their reply using their first name, then it is generally acceptable to reply using just their first name in your response; if not, continue to address them with their full, formal name.

- If you are unsure of your lecturer’s title, you can find their full details here: https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/government/people/academic. If no title is noted, then you should use the member of staff’s full name.

Identify yourself

- In the first few weeks of term, academic staff will be busy getting to know all of their students. Therefore, it is important that you begin by introducing and identifying yourself to them as they will not know every student right away. For example, ‘I am taking module AB123 and was at your lecture on Research Methods on Tuesday morning…’

- You should always use your Essex email as your full name will appear to the member of staff you are emailing, but still remember to sign off your email with your name, including your preferred name if this is different to your official legal name on your record and account.

Consider your question

- You should always check that who you are contacting is the most appropriate person to answer your query. The useful department contact list provided earlier in this section should help you determine who will be able to help you on a range of different queries.

- Before emailing the member of staff, you should make sure that you have checked the resources provided, including the University website, Student Directory, Departmental Moodle pages and this Student Handbook in case the answer to your question can be found in one of these.

If your question is particularly long or complex, it may be quicker and more useful to see someone in person. Your department office is open daily and all staff hold academic support hours when you can just drop in. If you cannot make the advertised support hours, or wish to notify the member of staff before you drop in, you can always email them beforehand to arrange an alternative time or make them aware you will be coming along.

Our website
Each department and school has its own section of the University website. This is an important source of information and news about all aspects of your studies. You can find the Department of Government website here:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/government

MyEssex
Your MyEssex student portal will alert you to updates about modules and other aspects of your course and studies. It is important that you check your MyEssex regularly, as well as email, to ensure you have the most up to date information.

By telephone
You will only be contacted via phone in emergencies, or when it is otherwise necessary to receive an immediate response, but you should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.

By text message
In instances where a last minute change has been made, and the department or school need to communicate this with short notice, you may receive a text message to communicate the change, such as a lecture or class cancellation. You should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.

By letter
Letters may be attached to your Essex email or posted to your term-time address, so please make sure the University has got your current contact details. Your address and contact details can be updated via the MyEssex portal.

Social media
Our Facebook and Twitter pages are regularly updated with news, upcoming events and student opportunities – add us using the info below:

UoE.Government @uniessexgovt

Noticeboards
We also post important messages on our departmental notice boards, which are located in the common room and corridors. Keep an eye out for events, important notices and things to note that are pinned up here. If you would like to post any notices on our notice boards or on social media, please contact a member of the professional services team on govquery@essex.ac.uk
Learning and Teaching

The University is committed to providing equal opportunities for all our students regardless of where or how you study. Our diverse student population is taken into account when developing the resources, services and facilities on and off campus, when we create our courses, write publications and course materials, and set our policies and regulations.

Expectations

Being a member of the University of Essex means being part of a friendly, inclusive and international academic community, characterised by honesty, respect and pride in diversity. With us, you will be treated fairly and without prejudice and we expect you to treat others in the same way in return.

In the Department of Government students can expect to learn how to construct arguments and supply evidence to support these arguments, and to be taught how to write clearly and in an organised fashion. We aim to help students learn the proper citation methods and how to put together bibliographies and footnotes.

The department expects students to regularly attend classes and lectures and learn proper note taking skills. We expect students to actively participate in class, becoming more comfortable with articulating and debating their thoughts and asking questions. We want students to learn how to present information and arguments succinctly and clearly.

The academic year

The academic year uses a week numbering system that covers the 52 weeks of a calendar year, but corresponds to typical term dates. So, the start of the academic year is week 1, which is Welcome week.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Week numbers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Autumn</td>
<td>2-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring</td>
<td>16-25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer</td>
<td>30-39</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

You can view the University’s week numbers with the equivalent dates in the week by week calendar. The University’s key dates include an overview of the start and end of each term and exam periods. Some courses within departments have slightly different term dates. However, you will find that all campus activities and events make reference to the standard academic year terms and schedule noted above.

The official University teaching day runs from 9am to 6pm, Monday to Friday and you are expected to be available during these times in term time to attend teaching events.

Module enrolment

You may have had to select some optional modules as part of your course structure. If this is the case, you should have done this prior to the start of term. More information on how to do this can be found in the ‘Getting Started’ section of this handbook.

Teaching timetable

Once you have chosen all of your modules (if applicable) and received confirmation, they will appear on your personal timetable. Each student has a personal timetable, this shows you when and where you teaching is taking place, as well as who is teaching you. Check your personal online timetable regularly for up to date teaching information. You can access your timetable on most mobile devices, including smart phones and tablets.
You may find that the first week of your timetable is blank if you do not have any course commitments during Welcome Week (week 1). Due to unforeseen, unavoidable circumstances, there may be some room changes during the year; therefore it is vital that you regularly check your timetable and Essex email where any changes will be communicated immediately.

Information about teaching timetables, including requesting a class change, reporting a timetable issue and accessing your individual timetable can be found AT: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/timetables/your-timetable

Course structure
Each course at the University has its own syllabus, full details of which can be found in the University’s Programme Specifications Catalogue at:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/programmespecs/

Programme specifications provide key information, including the aims and learning outcomes of your course. Your own course structure, including your specific programme specification, can be found in the MyStudy section of your MyEssex homepage.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/myessex/

Learning Outcomes
Each course has learning outcomes, as outlined in the Programme Specifications. Course learning outcomes are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are also defined more specifically at a modular level highlighting the particular aims, learning outcomes and methods of assessment for each module. Having this information means that you can measure your progress against the outcomes, for example when reviewing coursework feedback, and they can be used to guide you when undertaking independent study.

Credits
You will take 360 credits worth of modules in total during your course at Essex. This is divided into 120 credits per each year of study.

Module information
Most modules taught reflect the individual research interests of members of our academic staff. New modules are regularly explored, researched and developed in collaboration with the University’s Quality and Academic Development Team to expand our transformative educational offering at Essex.

Module choice
In the summer term, the department/school produces a Module and Enrolment information booklet with details of modules running in the following academic year. Meetings for first and second-year students will be held where students can discuss their choices with their Personal Tutor.

Changing Modules
Where you must make a choice as to which optional modules you undertake, you should make every effort to research the module and discuss with your Personal Tutor and department before selecting them. In instances where you need to make a change to your module choice, you may do so up until the second week of the Autumn Term. If you wish to change an optional module after the deadline, you should seek advice from the Department or School Office that runs the particular module that you may wish to change to.
Late changes may be permitted, but will be subject to the approval of the department that runs the module and the relevant Dean. Late changes of modules that run for one term or less will not usually be permitted. Students may not change modules that are core or compulsory for the course for which they are registered.

Module Directors
Module Directors are responsible for the individual modules, which make up courses. They design the modules, teach them and examine them. They monitor student progress and talk to students about any academic issues related to their particular module.

Module Materials
Reading lists for each module can be found here https://essex.rl.talis.com/departments/gv.html. All other information and module materials can be found on Moodle - https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/.

Study Abroad
All students have the option to take a four-year undergraduate variation of their course, which includes a year studying abroad. ‘Study Abroad’ is a fantastic opportunity, offering the chance to become immersed in a different culture, providing a new perspective on the world, not to mention an impressive experience to present to future employers.

Study Abroad is available at more than 150 partner institutions in 39 countries worldwide. You will not be charged tuition fees from Essex during your year abroad, and the majority of host universities won’t charge fees either, making it more affordable than you may have thought. Should you wish to find out more information regarding Essex Abroad, you can find their website here: www.essex.ac.uk/essexabroad/default.aspx.

The department’s Study Abroad Officer is Dr Laura Montanaro lmonta@essex.ac.uk

Work Placements
Some courses may also be taken as four-year courses, to include a Placement Year. It is your responsibility to find a work placement year, however, the Industry and Placements Team can help prepare and support you in finding placements and will advertise relevant placements available to Essex students. If you are interested in undertaking a Placement Year, or other work-based opportunities that may be available to you and your course, you can find more information, including who to contact, here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/careers/placements/default.aspx

A work placement is a period of work experience embedded into your degree. It can vary in length ranging from a few weeks to a whole year. This experience will:

- Help you to develop professional skills sought after by graduate employers.
- Enable you to learn more about a particular sector, company or job role.
- Allow you to apply your academic knowledge in a practical working environment.
- Provide you with ideas for future career pathways.

It is important to gain professional work experience before you graduate. In a recent survey, 50% of graduate recruiters said that:

“Applicants with no previous experience had little chance of being offered a graduate role within their company.” (Source: High Fliers Survey, 2013)

“Up to a third of new graduates are now recruited directly through employers' work experience Programmes.” (Source: High Fliers Survey, 2015)
Different types of work placements

Placement Year (GV834)
A placement equivalent of a year’s academic study (between 30-52 weeks). Your placement will occur between the second and final year of your degree.

Placement-linked projects (GV836)
A short placement (minimum 150 hours), usually taken during the summer vacation preceding the final year, followed by a research project completed during the final academic year of study.

For more information on work placements visit http://www.essex.ac.uk/careers/placements/default.aspx

The Employability Module
GV711 (Career Portfolio) offers you the opportunity to develop necessary employability, citizenship, and life skills to successfully compete in the graduate labour market after graduation and to make a meaningful contribution to society more generally. By the end of the module every student will have completed a portfolio demonstrating engagement with key employability themes and skills and an understanding of his or her place in the world of work. This module also offers students the chance to reflect critically on how this world of work relates to wider social and political contexts and trends at national and global levels.

GV711 is a non-credit-bearing module that is compulsory for all government students. It differs from other government modules in the sense that it runs throughout the entire period of undergraduate studies.

A wide range of activities and events will be on offer to enable you to satisfy the modules’ core requirements, but you will be given the chance to incorporate additional elements into your portfolio if you so wish (for example, with respect to post-graduate study).

The module will be assessed on a pass/fail basis and this mark will appear on students’ final transcript.

Aims
- To develop a solid understanding of employment and post-graduate opportunities available to Politics students after graduation
- To learn how to access employability opportunities throughout the undergraduate degree cycle
- To encourage personal and critical reflection on and planning of possible career paths
- To develop a range of capacities and skills relevant to employability and critical citizenship

Please see the GV711 module outline for more details regarding syllabus, as well as teaching and assessment methods.

Academic Writing Support
The Department provides subject-specific study skills/academic writing support that is available for all students, including:
- group sessions to introduce first-year students to coursework management and requirements, as well as academic writing styles and conventions in the study of politics
One-to-one academic writing/study skills appointments are voluntary and are arranged by students themselves simply by signing up on a weekly timetable (although some students may be referred by their class teachers/module supervisors). They focus on academic writing/reasoning and other study skills issues such as time management, planning, referencing and preparing for class tests, presentations and other forms of coursework:

- Different kinds of coursework and assessment across first-year modules
- Understanding questions/assignments and designing your response
- Planning, structure, argument and coherence in academic writing
- Adequate referencing, preparing bibliographies & avoiding plagiarism
- Effective, critical and comparative reading of source texts
- Gathering, assessing and presenting evidence and ideas
- Clarity & precision in language, especially analytical and conceptual terminology
- Rewriting & rethinking
- Effective preparation for tests & presentations

For further information contact: govsenioradviser@essex.ac.uk

Group sessions

Group sessions for first year students are specifically tailored to provide advice and answer questions about coursework assignments in Government modules. Details about the group sessions scheduled for 2019-2020 will be published shortly. Students should attend only one session for each topic:

- Managing coursework: planning, academic writing & referencing
- Academic writing: focus, structure, analysis & argument
- Writing better: feedback, standards & results

For further information contact: govsenioradviser@essex.ac.uk

Supervision of UG Student Research and Final Year Capstone Projects

Students in the Government Department will be expected to participate in the Capstone Project. The Capstone Project is an original research paper that is accomplished by the student under the supervision of a government staff member.

The Capstone Project can take two main forms. The student-led form is a dissertation of 9,000-10,000 words on a research question that the student chooses. In this student-led form, the Capstone Project is administered as a 30-credit module with the code GV831. In the student-led Capstone Project, students select supervisors for their Capstone Project from a list of supervisors provided by the department at the beginning of the Autumn Term of their final year. Students and supervisors then meet on a regular basis throughout the final year in order to develop the Capstone Project. Students are encouraged to work in pairs for the final project to promote team building and mutual learning. When working on a joint project, projects should run about 12,000 words.

The second form that the Capstone Project can take is the staff-led form. In this form, the Capstone Project consists of a range of research-related tasks, as well as a final research assignment, that are assembled by an academic member of staff in order to further a research project identified by that member of staff. In the staff-led form, the Capstone Project is administered as a 30-credit module with the code GV832. Staff-led projects vary from year to year and can sometimes involve opportunities to work closely with outside agencies such as local schools or the Essex County Council.

Preparation for completing the Capstone Project begins already in the first year in the form of supplementary lectures that help first year students to understand the basics of academic research.
Students in the second year can continue this preparation by opting to study the module, GV275, which explores the research process in greater depth.

The Capstone Project is a unique opportunity for students to gain a variety of skills that are valuable for anyone intending to further their studies at some time in the future or to use research skills in their professional careers. Students will learn the skills of how to put together a well-written, well-conceived and researched dissertation. Students will also learn about taking initiative in their work and gaining self-discipline in setting deadlines and adhering to them. In the process of preparing for and writing the dissertation, students will gain knowledge in a subject matter that they are interested in. They will also be able to pursue their original ideas in depth.

Library Services
At our Colchester Campus, the Albert Sloman Library on Square 5 is open 24/7 and has a variety of study spaces over six floors, including individual and group work areas. The Library offers a wide range of learning resources, online and in print, with a dedicated Helpdesk, live chat and the opportunity to book appointments with your Subject Librarian to help you through your studies and beyond.

library.essex.ac.uk

The library has a team of Subject Librarians who can help you to find appropriate resources for your assignments and show you how to search effectively. They can also provide advice on referencing and academic integrity, using reference management software, and evaluating sources. Find out who your subject Librarian is and get help with your subject area at library.essex.ac.uk/studyres

Skills for Success
We are committed to ensuring that every student is able to get the most out of their academic study and achieve their potential on their course. Whether you need support with researching, assignment writing, mathematics and statistics, digital skills, or English language for academic purposes, support is available to help you succeed during your time at University. Reach your potential and enhance your chances of success with classes, workshops, drop-in clinics and on-line resources. Find out more at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/study-resources/tdc/

The use of proofreading services
Many students seek ‘proofreading’ services at some point during their studies, but different editing practices at times go on in this name that may not be appropriate in an academic context, and could potentially qualify as an academic offence. In a context where work is to be assessed, the University is keen to ensure as far as possible that students understand what proofreading work should entail and the acceptable boundaries to which any proofreading or editing must adhere to.

The University maintain a list of local freelance proof-readers who offer services to students and staff at Essex that have read and agreed to abide by the University’s policy and guidance on proofreading. The University’s full policy and guidance can be found along with the list of local freelance proof-readers on the website:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/academic-skills/proofreading

Before considering the use of proofreading services, all students should first discuss their work with their personal tutors.

Learning a Language
Learn a language at Essex to increase your global and cultural awareness. Language learning can give you the confidence to work and travel internationally, expand your options for studying abroad, and get a competitive edge when you’re looking for a job. There are a number of ways to do it, so look online to discover the best option for you.

Attendance Monitoring (Count me in)

Recording attendance
You’ll need to record your attendance at all teaching events using the electronic reader in the teaching room. Just ‘tap in’ for every timetabled teaching event you attend.

Your attendance at lectures and classes has a significant impact on how successful you are in your studies. At Essex, we monitor attendance so we can identify students who may need extra guidance and support.

You should not tap in and then immediately leave the teaching event; you should not tap in for someone who is not attending the class. These are recognised by the University as a formal academic offence and may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

Recording an absence
If you are unable to attend a teaching event, you must report your absence in your MyEssex portal.

Your department consider the reasons and may record it as an authorised absence. Accepted reasons for absence from teaching include extenuating circumstances (such as illness), participation in certain events (such as a significant extra-curricular University or SU Society event or Jury Service). Examples of reasons that will not be accepted include oversleeping, or missing the bus or train. Be prepared that you may need to provide evidence, including medical evidence, if relevant.

If you need to report an absence from an examination or class test, you must report your absence in your MyEssex portal and submit an extenuating circumstances form. You can find out how to do this in the Extenuating Circumstances section of this Handbook.

Please contact your Personal Tutor, department staff or the Student Services Hub for advice and support, particularly if you are going to be absent for several weeks.

Lost or faulty cards
If you lose your card or it is faulty, please go to the Student Services Hub to get a new card and have your attendance record updated (a fee may be applicable).

Fitness to practise
Fitness to practise is only applicable to students on certain professional courses (such as nursing or social work) and is designed to ensure and regulate that a student is suitable for engagement in the relevant profession. Students are notified at the point of enrolment if their course of study is subject to the terms of this procedure. Students enrolled on courses where a practical professional placement is required have additional responsibilities placed upon them regarding not only their conduct but also their professional suitability as outlined in relevant regulatory and/or professional body codes of practice. Failure to meet these responsibilities can lead to the Breach of Professional Conduct with the Fitness to Practice and Termination of Training Procedure being invoked. If this applies to you, you will have been told by your department. You can find the full Fitness to Practise procedure online at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg
Making changes to your study

Changing your course
If you are thinking about changing course, we recommend that you speak to someone in your school/department as soon as possible. They will be able to advise you if there are any specific requirements for the course you are looking to change to. If the course you are looking to change to is within a different school/department, then you should also speak to someone in that department. If you are thinking of undertaking a placement year or year abroad, you should check the requirements for these programmes and contact the Industry and Placements Team or Essex Abroad Team.

There are deadlines in place for when you need to change course by, so please make sure you are aware of these deadlines before requesting to change. Further details on changing course and the relevant deadlines can be found at www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/Changing-Course.aspx or by visiting your Student Services Hub.

You should investigate your potential new course by looking at course information on the department’s web pages, talking to students on the course and speaking to tutors. You should also look at our Rules of Assessment for the new course to check whether there are any course-specific requirements.

Maximum period of study
Undergraduate students have a maximum period in which to complete their studies. This is set at the point at which you register, and is normally the length of your programme plus two additional years. This is to allow some flexibility in cases where you find you must intermit, or you fail a stage of study and must repeat it, or you want to transfer to a new course and must retake a stage of study.

Thinking of leaving or taking a break from your studies?
You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you’re thinking about leaving Essex, we’re here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice.

Intermission is a temporary withdrawal or leave of absence from the University and provides you with the opportunity to take a break from your studies. Normally, this is for reasons beyond your control (e.g. health or personal problems) although other reasons are permitted. Intermission must be approved by the University first, so if you are thinking about intermitting, we strongly advise you to contact your department and your Student Services Hub to talk to one of our advisers.

You should also read our guidance on intermitting very carefully at www.essex.ac.uk/see/Intermit. If your intermission is agreed to, we will also give you the advice and support you need to help you carry on with your studies.

Withdrawing is the formal process for permanently leaving your programme of study and the University. If you are thinking of withdrawing, you should seek advice from your Department or the Student Services Hub at the earliest opportunity. It is very important that you discuss your circumstances with the University and follow the formal procedure for withdrawing. If the university is not formally notified, then you may risk continuing to incur further tuition or accommodation fees. More advice and information is available at www.essex.ac.uk/see/Withdraw.

The use of personal devices in teaching
You can use laptops and tablet PCs during teaching classes for purposes related to the class you are attending. You should refrain from using your mobile phone during all teaching events, except in cases where a lecturer uses a programme which requires these devices to be switched on for participation.
Assessment and Good Practice

All schools and departments at the University should employ a variety of assessment methods designed to ensure that the learning outcomes of each module, and course, have been successfully met by the student.

The Regulations relating to Academic Affairs which govern assessment at the University can be found online:

www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

Rules of Assessment

The Rules of Assessment are used to calculate your results. There is a main set of rules for 3 year and 4 year courses, but some departments also have additional variations which can be found in the Variation to the Rules of Assessment.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/ug/default.aspx

Each module you will take will have a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment and the Framework for undergraduate courses give you more information about this.

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

Core, compulsory and optional modules

To understand the requirements to pass your course, you need to know the status of the modules that you are taking. You can find details of the status of your modules in Section C of your programme specification via My Essex.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core</th>
<th>You must take this module</th>
<th>Must pass this module. No failure can be permitted.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Compulsory</td>
<td>You must take this module</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Optional</td>
<td>You can choose which module to study</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Most modules in each year must be passed, with only a small number of credits, if any, being allowed to be failed in the degree.

Ethics in research

All research involving human participants, whether undertaken by the University's staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You can find our Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants here - https://www.essex.ac.uk/staff/research-governance/ethical-approval-resources-for-applicants - along with a link to the online Ethical Approval application form in ERAMS (https://erams.essex.ac.uk/do/essex-login/login).

‘Human participants’ are defined as including living human beings, human beings who have recently died (cadavers, human remains and body parts), embryos and foetuses, human tissue and bodily fluids, and personal data and records (such as, but not restricted to medical, genetic, financial, personnel, criminal or administrative records and test results including scholastic achievements). Research involving the NHS may require and research involving human tissue or adults lacking capacity to consent will require Health Research Authority approval.

Academic Integrity and Academic Offences

The University expects students to complete all assessment with honesty and integrity and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don’t meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your coursework. An academic offence can take place even if you didn’t mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating with another candidate in an examination.

If you aren’t sure what the conventions are, particularly in relation to referencing, you should ask your department and contact Skills for Success via the Student Services Hub.

More information about academic offences and getting support can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/academic-offences.aspx.

Methods of Assessment in the Department of Government

Whether a module is core, compulsory or optional, all methods of assessment are compulsory. If you do not complete coursework or attend examinations, and do not have extenuating circumstances to support your non-submission or absence, then you are at risk of being withdrawn from the University.

Coursework

Assignment and Essay Length

Assignment and essay lengths will differ depending on which module you are taking and the required assignment (for example, you may be asked to write a 2,500-3,000 word essay or a 600-800 word summary). All assignment criteria will be listed on each module reading list, so ensure you keep a copy so that you can refer back to it. All deadlines can also be found on the reading lists, on the front page. Deadlines are usually set at 09:45 on the day of your lecture, on a week specified by your Module Supervisor.

Details of Samples of Coursework

Samples of projects are available from your department; please email your enquiry to govquery@essex.ac.uk. These documents can be reviewed in the department meeting room but not taken away permanently. If you require assistance with any other coursework format, please speak to the module supervisor.

Referencing in coursework

Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK.

The University takes academic offences very seriously. You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully.

Referencing is a key academic/scientific skill. It is how you will acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all works used directly (quotes) and indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising).
Referencing allows you to give credit to authors' researchers' concepts and ideas and results, demonstrate your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject, direct readers to your sources, and avoid plagiarism.

You should always use the best available sources of evidence, such as peer reviewed journals and recognised books.

Your departmental referencing style is Harvard. To find out more about your departmental referencing style and for help with referencing, visit the library website: library.essex.ac.uk/referencing, or take the Academic Integrity Moodle course: https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/course/view.php?id=5844

Essay Writing Support
If you have any questions regarding the content or subject of your assignments, please contact your Module Supervisor in the first instance (their name will be at the top of the relevant Module Syllabus). You can also contact your relevant personal tutor for advice and guidance.

The Talent Development Centre can be found in the Silberrad Student Centre. They run workshops and one-to-one sessions to help you improve your academic writing. More details can be found on their website (www.essex.ac.uk/students/study-resources/tdc/contact/default.aspx).

Submission of coursework
The online coursework submission system (FASER) can be accessed through myEssex or at this web address: http://faser.essex.ac.uk/ where you will find full instructions. The system allows you to upload a digital copy of your assignment to the web.

You are encouraged to log on to FASER at the start of the year so that you understand how it works before you reach your first deadline. There is a trial module and deadline for you to use as a practice submission. There is a helpful guidance on how to use FASER here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/learning/tools/faser/Student/HelpCentre#uploading

You can upload as many draft versions of your work as you like onto the server and are encouraged to use this as a safe and secure area to store your coursework. This can help to avoid the problem of your computer crashing at the last minute and your important files being lost. In cases where multiple versions are uploaded you will need to make any which you do NOT want to be included in the final submission a 'draft' otherwise just the most recently uploaded file will be taken as the final version. The maximum file upload size is 50MB.

Problems with FASER
If you have technical difficulties: Please contact the Learning Technology Team ltt@essex.ac.uk as soon as possible to find out if this is a University issue or whether it may be a problem with your computer. This will count towards your claim when submitting a late coursework form should you need to. You can also contact IT Services helpdesk on it.helpdesk@essex.ac.uk

If you are confused or unsure how to upload, or are having any non-technical difficulties you should contact your Undergraduate Administrator

Late submission of coursework
We have a single policy at the University of Essex for the late submission of coursework in undergraduate courses: all coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero. No extensions will be granted. A student submitting coursework late will have the University's and Department's arrangements for late submission drawn to their attention. The policy states that the mark of zero shall stand unless you submit satisfactory evidence of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline.
Where a student is unable to undertake the assessment by the deadline, and it is deemed impossible to consider a late submission request due to the nature of the assessment (e.g. absence from in-class tests, practical assignments and presentations), an extenuating circumstances form should be submitted which will be considered by the Board of Examiners.

The University’s full Late Submission policy and further information can be found on the website:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx

Return of marked coursework policy
Coursework marks and feedback will be returned to students electronically on FASER. We aim to upload this information for students three weeks after the original deadline, but please note there may occasionally be a short delay. Please contact the Module Supervisor or Graduate Teaching Assistant directly with any mark queries.

Examinations
Attendance at examinations is compulsory and if you do not attend them and do not have extenuating circumstances then you are at risk of being withdrawn.

You can find your personalised exam timetable online at: www.essex.ac.uk/examtimes/ The exam timetable will be published on the date shown at https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/dates-and-timetables.aspx and you will receive an email to your Essex account when it is available to view.

You must bring your registration card and exam entry form with you to the exam. You will not be allowed entry without them. Remember to check your exam entry form carefully and email the Examinations Office (exams@essex.ac.uk) if there are any errors.

For exams that are more than an hour long, you will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you arrive later than 55 minutes after the start of the exam. If your exam is only an hour long, you will only be admitted up to ten minutes after the start of the exam.

You can download a guide to examinations and watch a short video at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/default.aspx

Sample and past papers
If the paper is not restricted, it will be available on Moodle. Should you have any questions, please contact the department govquery@essex.ac.uk

Revision classes
Revision classes will be timetabled at the beginning of the summer term.

Exam stress
Exams create stress for most people, but there is a lot that you can do to prepare for them and help manage the levels of stress associated with exams. The University’s Skills for Success Team offers a series of Exam Workshops which are run by specialist staff. These sessions cover revision planning and techniques, as well as sessions on relaxation and how to cope with stress. Staff in the Student Services Hub can also provide sessions on stress management if required.

Calculators in Examinations
If you are allowed to use a calculator in your examinations, the only models you are permitted to use are the Casio FX-83GT X, Casio FX-85GT X, Casio FX-83GT PLUS or the Casio FX-85GT PLUS.

The only exception is for certain Finance exams that require a financial calculator, in which case you may use the Hewlett Packard 12c (all variants) or the Texas Instruments BAII Plus (including the BAII Plus Professional).

A limited number of Casio calculators will be available to borrow on the day of your exam from the Exams Office on a first-come, first-served basis, on production of your registration card. Please note financial calculators will not be available.

Dictionaries

Please note that dictionaries are not allowed during exams. If you take a dictionary into an exam, you will be reported on suspicion of committing an academic offence. Even if English is not your first language, you are still not entitled to use a translation dictionary or any other kind of dictionary.

Moderation and marking

The University's Marking Policy can be found online and includes our policy and procedure on the moderation of work.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marketing_policy/default.asp

Moderation

Moderation is a process separate from that of marking and provides assurance that the assessment criteria has been applied appropriately. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given. In instances where the moderator feels marks may not be entirely appropriate, the moderator would not change individual marks for the work, but would liaise with the first marker to agree whether marks should be reviewed across the particular piece of assessment or module. Should a review of marks be agreed, this may lead to marks being adjusted accordingly.

External Examiners

External Examiners are typically academics from other universities, but may also be from industry, business or the relevant profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education. External Examiners write reports on the courses and modules they are responsible for which are made available to you via your department. Unless the External Examiner has been specifically sent work to arbitrate on a dispute between internal markers, the External Examiner’s role in assessment will be as a moderator. You can find the name and institution of the External Examiner for your course and modules by looking on the Programme Specifications Catalogue and the Module Directory.

You can find out more about how the University uses External Examiners here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/external_examiners/default.asp

Please note: you may not contact External Examiners directly under any circumstances. If you have any concerns about the quality and standards of your course, please contact your Student Representative, your Head of Department, or the Students’ Union.

Second marking

Second marking is where a second marker marks the work but has access to the first marker’s marks and/or comments. Where two members of staff are involved in marking a piece of work, the markers should make every effort to agree a mark, rather than merely averaging the two marks. Departments keep a full record of both individual and agreed marks for all work which is second marked.

Anonymous marking

Anonymous marking is when your work is marked anonymously, i.e. your name is not attached to the piece of work for marking.

Where it is practical to do so, all coursework which contributes to your final module mark should be marked anonymously. Where this is not possible, departments will inform you in advance of the assessment task.

All formal examinations at the University of Essex are marked anonymously. You will be provided with a candidate number on your exam entry form. This will be in large print in the centre of the page. This is the number you should write on your examination scripts. It is important that you do this so we can, once the paper has been marked, allocate the marks to your record correctly.

Re-marking of coursework

You may, under certain circumstances, have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework. Should you feel that your work needs to be reviewed and potentially re-marked, you should first contact your department to advise you accordingly and assess whether you meet the criteria to be able to submit a request for re-marking.

The re-marking of work is included within the University’s Marking Policy can be found here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marketing_policy.

In order to make a request, you will need to complete a form. By submitting your work for re-marking, your marks are not guaranteed to increase, but the mark awarded after re-marking will override your original mark. Therefore, please be aware that in all incidences where coursework is re-marked, it is possible that your marks could go down, as well as up.

Appeals

Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. There are limited grounds available to appeal on and strict deadlines to adhere to. As such, we strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact the SU Advice Centre.

More information about appeals, including the deadlines and forms to complete, can be found online at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/appeals

Extenuating Circumstances

Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform to less of a standard in your coursework or examinations than you might have expected, or in some instances, may prevent you from submitting coursework or attending an exam entirely. In general, valid extenuating circumstances will be of a medical or personal nature that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during assessment.

Your department will review your claim at an Extenuating Circumstances Committee and determine whether it will be accepted or rejected. The Board of Examiners will determine an appropriate course of action and the corresponding methods, to take into account your extenuating circumstances, if appropriate, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks. Please note that extra marks cannot be given in light of extenuating circumstances.

If you do need to make an extenuating circumstances claim, you should first read the guidance very carefully and seek advice from SU Advice (www.essex.su/advice) or the Student Services Hub.
Please be prepared that you may need to include supporting evidence with your claim. Extenuating circumstance claims must be submitted via MyEssex by the appropriate deadline noted.

Further information and the full Extenuating Circumstances Policy can be found on the website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ.aspx

The Board of Examiners
The Board of Examiners meet at the end of the Summer Term and use the Rules of Assessment to determine whether:

- you have passed the modules you have studied and can be awarded credit
- you have met the requirements to progress to the next year of your course
- you have met the requirements to pass your course and what classification you will receive for each module
- how your module marks are used to calculate your degree classification
- you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

If it determined that you have not passed sufficient credits to progress to the next stage of study, or, for final year students, to graduate, the Board of Examiners will also determine:

- what reassessment you could be offered and when you can take it
- whether you must withdraw from your course, with or without an exit award

Examination results
You will receive an email to your Essex email account as soon as your results are published. You can find the publication schedule at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/schedule.aspx

Access to exam scripts
If you want to see your exam script, you should normally make the request within four weeks after the exam to the department which is responsible for that module. The department should either: let you see the script in the presence of one of the staff responsible for teaching the module or give you a copy or summary of the examiners’ comments on your performance. If you need to undertake an exam as part of reassessment on a module, your department will provide you with written feedback on any elements being reassessed.

Students must not attempt to engage the member of staff in discussions about whether the work has been marked correctly. The marks will have been approved by the external examiners and ratified by the examination board.

A student who wishes to view an examination script or project should contact their Undergraduate Administrator. You can find further information about Assessment Policies at: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies

Reassessment
You may only undertake reassessment if the Board of Examiners says that you may do so.

If you have to take compulsory reassessment, whether coursework or examination, it is really important that you do this. If you do not, it is likely that you will be unable to progress with your studies at the University. The Board of Examiners will not consider permitting you to proceed carrying fails if you have not undertaken the required reassessment offered.
Reassessed modules are normally capped at the pass mark of 40% unless you have extenuating circumstances which are accepted by the Exam Board. Please be aware that reassessment in examinations and coursework carries a fee.

Resit exams
Resit exams are scheduled in early September or ‘out of residence’ in the summer of the following year. A considerable amount of useful revision material is available on Moodle. Students can contact staff, particularly Module Supervisors for the modules they are resitting if they need help with revision or specific queries (do not leave this until the last minute as staff availability will be reduced throughout the summer). Staff can give individual feedback on summer exam performance, if requested.

You can find further information relating to resitting exams at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/resits.aspx

Feedback
If you need to undertake any reassessment on a module, your department will provide you with written feedback on any elements being reassessed.

Exit Awards
If you decide to withdraw from your course before you finish, or you fail too many credits to be awarded a Bachelor’s degree, you may be awarded a qualification at a lower level, if appropriate.
Computers, Learning Technologies and your Information

Computers
Using a campus computer

If you need to use a computer on campus our computer labs are the perfect place to study or work. We also have group study pods which are ideal for group projects. You can find a full list of computers available to use on our website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/labs/usage/. Many labs stay open until late and some are open 24/7. Labs may be booked for teaching, and so it is best to check availability first.

As part of your IT account at Essex, all students have full access to:

- Office 365
  Office 365 is an online version of the Microsoft Office suite of programmes. You can access these by logging into your account from anywhere, which means you can use Microsoft programmes from at home too.

- 1TB of OneDrive cloud storage space
  OneDrive lets you create, edit, and share documents online so you can access them from anywhere in the world and from any device.

- 1 GB of local storage
  This is known as your M: drive. You can only access this when logged onto a lab computer on campus. Go to ‘This PC’ and select the M: drive network. If you want to access documents saved here from your personal laptop, you will need to either save them in your OneDrive or transfer the documents in another secure method, such as via USB.

Information on other software available to students and general IT matters is available here: www.essex.ac.uk/it/services/computers-and-software/default.aspx?tab=3

IT Help and Guidance
You can search the Student Directory for more IT information, including how-to guides, answers to frequently asked questions, and links to video screencasts.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/student

If you can’t find what you’re looking for, or if you need to talk to someone, then the IT Helpdesk team are here to assist you further. The contact details for your campus Helpdesk can be found online along with the opening times: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/it-services/it-helpdesk

Learning Technologies and Systems

eNROL
The eNROL system is an online tool to review and select available modules specific to a particular course and year of study. All new and returning students should use the online system prior to the start of each academic year.

eNROL: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/enrol/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2fenrol%2F
Learner Engagement Activity Portal (LEAP)

LEAP is our student centred, personalised engagement tool. LEAP displays your engagement with university resources (Moodle, FASER, Listen Again, the Library and university computers usage as well as attendance).

An algorithm within LEAP combines your engagement with university resources and activities to produce an overall engagement indicator. There are 5 engagement indicators (high, good, partial, low and very low) which will help you map and better understand your engagement pattern over time.

By providing you with a more holistic view of your studying experience, LEAP offers you the opportunity to take control of your own learning and make more informed choices about your studies, enabling you to:

- Reflect on your academic activates and overall engagement to make informed decisions about your academic studies
- Discover who your Personal Tutor is
- Review the notes created in LEAP from meetings with Tutors or other university staff
- Check your attendance and ensure the information is correct

Tutors and other university staff may use the information in LEAP to:

- Suggest ways you could achieve better outcomes
- Check that all is well and offer information, advice and guidance
- Help you in areas of their studies that you are finding a challenge

https://leap.essex.ac.uk/login

Moodle

We use Moodle as our online learning environment, to enhance face-to-face teaching. It lets you get to course materials, and has built-in features to enhance learning such as discussion forums, chat facilities, quizzes, surveys, glossaries and wikis.

https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/

FASER

FASER is our online coursework submission and feedback system. Use it to check coursework deadlines, upload coursework and receive electronic feedback all in one place.

Your information

Changes to your information
During your period of study at Essex, you wish to be known by a preferred name or update your legal name on our student record database (ESIS) if your circumstances change. It is important you keep your information up to date. Information about updating your name on your student record is available at: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/default.aspx

Keep your information up to date
During your period of study at Essex, your details may change, including your name. It is really important that your information on our student record database (ESIS) is accurate, so make absolutely sure that if your circumstances change that you let us know. Equally, you may wish to be known by a preferred name. You can add this to your record for staff to use, and find more information about updating your name on your student record at: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/default.aspx

Your personal information
We collect and hold lots of information about you, your course, and your progress so that we know who you are, what you’re doing, and how you are getting on. This means we can support you and also improve our services to reflect the need of our students.

All information about you is kept securely, and access to your information is only given to the staff who need it, in order to do their job. Where possible, we will ask you for your permission to share.

You have a right to ask for copies of information we hold about you.
www.essex.ac.uk/records_management/request

To find out more about what information we collect, what we do with it, who gets to see it, and your rights under the data Protection Act 2018, read our Privacy Notice for students.

Student Voice

At the University of Essex, the views, ideas and feedback of our students are at the heart of what the University does. The time students take to offer feedback is hugely appreciated. This feedback, both positive and developmental, is used to help make short and longer term improvements, both to the experience of current students, but also for Essex students of the future. You can do this in a number of ways.

Student Representatives

You can contact (or volunteer to be) a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Voice Groups (SVG) and other University level committees.

https://www.essexstudent.com/representation/
http://www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/student_rep.asp

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey will be summarised and discussed by SSLCs and will inform reports written by us for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

Student Voice Groups

Student Voice Groups (SVGs), formerly known as Student Staff Liaison Committees (SSLCs), are made up of elected student representatives and members of staff. SVGs typically meet once per term and provide an accessible arena for students to discuss with staff issues connected to teaching, learning and student support. They also provide an opportunity for the academic department/school/centre to consult with students and receive feedback on new proposals.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/SVGs.asp

Student Surveys

Student satisfaction surveys enable the University to gauge overall satisfaction amongst students. When the results have been reviewed and analysed, the University can then enhance your experience of learning at Essex.

National Student Survey

The National Student Survey (NSS) is an independent survey commissioned by the Office for Students aimed mainly at final-year undergraduate students. The survey provides students the opportunity to provide feedback on their University course and experience. The feedback you provide will be used to help shape the future for your fellow students, and published on the Unistats website to help prospective students make informed decisions about where and what they want to study.

https://www.thestudentsurvey.com

Student Assessment of Module and Teaching

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey allows you to feedback on each of the modules you have studied. Receiving feedback at this level is critical for the University to understand what works well, and what could be improved, from the perspective of students. All feedback from SAMT will be summarised and discussed by SVGs and will inform reports written for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

There are also many other satisfaction surveys taking place, to ensure students are happy with the services the University of Essex provides. From time to time you will be invited to participate via an email. If you have some feedback but don't know who to tell, email: studentexperience@essex.ac.uk

Counselling services
Our University offers a range of services and resources to support students with a variety of counselling opportunities.

Validium
The University works in partnership with an organisation called Validium to offer short-term counselling to help you explore and work through problems and difficulties that are causing distress and interfering with your life at University.
You might be worried, depressed, confused or feeling bad about yourself. There might be a problem in your family, friendships or with your partner, or you might be experiencing difficulties with your work and exams. Counselling can provide a safe space for you to talk through and explore your feelings.

You can also contact the Validium 24-hour Student Wellbeing Support Line. You will be able to have an initial chat, in confidence, about the difficulties you’re experiencing and the support available to you.

Call 0800 970 5020 or +44 141 271 7168.

Chat with Charlie

Chat with Charlie offers online mental health support every evening between 6pm – 10pm. You can get support with exam stress, relationships, low mood, anxiety or anything else which may be troubling you, however big or small it may seem.

Log on just to chat or find out how to get additional support. For more information, contact wellbeing@essex.ac.uk.

Nightline

Established at Essex in 1970, Nightline is a friendly help and support service run by students, for students. We work under strict confidentiality ensuring complete anonymity, and we’re always willing to listen. From tea and toast to camp beds, whether you’re waiting for a taxi, need a revision break, or just want to chat, pop in or call us.

www.essex.ac.uk/students/health-and-wellbeing/nightline.aspx

If you feel you would benefit from support, including counselling, please contact your Student Services Hub. You can find more information, including the full range of counselling services available to you, on the website: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/mental-and-emotional-health/counselling

Money management

If you get into financial difficulty you should get help and talk to someone as soon as possible. The sooner your problem is identified, the sooner it can be solved. Advisers in our Student Services Hub and our independent SU Advice can listen and talk you through the issues you are experiencing.

www.essex.ac.uk/fees-and-funding/money/

Students’ Union Advice

Our SU Advice service also offers free, confidential, independent and impartial advice on many issues that might be affecting you. Our friendly, trained staff are on hand to support you throughout your time at Essex. You can speak to us about Academic processes and procedures, representation at University meetings, Tier 4 UK visa extensions, housing, complaints, welfare and consumer issues.

Residence Life

Our Residence Life team is here to help you settle in and support you during your time living on campus. Each residents’ assistant (RA) is assigned an area and will aim to get to know you and organise a range of social activities. Plus they can help if you’ve got any concerns or complaints. Residence Life operates outside of office hours when other University support services are closed.

Harassment support

We are Essex. We encourage a culture of dignity and respect. We’re committed to upholding an environment that’s free from any form of harassment or bullying. Though rare, these incidents can occur and if they do our Harassment Report and Support Service of trained Harassment Support Workers are on hand to help.

Health and safety on campus

Our campuses are generally very safe environments. We want to ensure that things stay this way. In order to achieve this we work closely with local agencies including the police and borough councils. Take a look at our website for general advice and information:

www.essex.ac.uk/students/experience/safety.aspx

Please familiarise yourself with fire safety and emergency evacuation procedures for your accommodation, work or study location. If you have a permanent or temporary disability that may mean you have difficulty in evacuating one or more areas, you can arrange for a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP).

Making a Complaint

The University is a large community engaged in many activities of both an academic and non-academic nature. From time to time, you may feel dissatisfied with some aspect of your dealings with the University and, when that happens, it is important that the issue is dealt with constructively and as quickly as possible without risk of disadvantage or recrimination.

The University aims to resolve complaints quickly and informally in accordance with the Student concerns and complaints procedure which can be found on our website.

You Are Essex

Year and Degree Marks
As your studies draw to a close, and once your exam board has met, it takes up to five working days for your results to be confirmed. You will be sent an email to inform you when the results are live on a password protected web page. You will be able to see your marks obtained and any decisions that you must make in order to progress to the next stage of study.

When in your final year of study, graduating students will receive a degree certificate at Graduation and graduating undergraduate students also be able to access their electronic HEAR; which gives details of all marks obtained during their studies.

Further information can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/graduation/award-documents/default.aspx

HEAR
When you study at Essex, you graduate with far more than just a degree. Along with showcasing your academic achievements, the Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR) records any activities you have undertaken and logged through the Big Essex Award, and any other awards and prizes that you may have received.

When you graduate, you will have full electronic access to your HEAR for free for life. You will be able to share this with employers and other universities by providing them with a University-certified record of your achievements. To start making the most of your HEAR, visit our website to activate your account:
https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/awards-and-achievements/hear

Graduation
The culmination of all your hard work, Graduation ceremonies take place at our Colchester Campus each July in the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall. All eligible students studying at our Colchester, Loughton and Southend Campuses will be invited to attend. For more information visit our graduation pages: www.essex.ac.uk/students/graduation/default.aspx

Job References

Requesting references from members of staff
If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject.

For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, and core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first-year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for reference for a student who has undertaken study within our Department. Requests received from students who have graduated from the University within the last three years will be prioritised. Requests received outside of this period may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information and is willing to provide a reference.

It is always helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – it is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references
A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our department for no longer than three years for taught students.

Alumni
Essex is forever and although your time here will fly by, you’ll be part of the Essex family for life. When you graduate, you’ll get an alumni card and join a community of over 100,000 fellow graduates around the world. We’d love to keep in touch and invite you to our alumni events, networking and volunteering opportunities, as well as offer you special alumni benefits. Want to know more? Visit our website https://www.essex.ac.uk/alumni

What comes next?
The world is your oyster! The options and opportunities open to you as a graduate can be overwhelming. You may know the exact path and next steps that you wish to take, or you might not, and this is okay. Our Careers Services can offer information, guidance and advice on your different options after graduation and you can return to Essex for these services at any time. Whether it is discussing different career paths, bringing your CV or LinkedIn profile up to date, or prepping for that interview you have worked all year for, the Student Development Team are here to support you.

Spread your wings graduand; but you can always come back! As an alumnus of Essex, you can take advantage of generous discounts on postgraduate qualifications and degrees if you chose to return to study at Essex as a postgraduate student.
