Department of Psychology

Undergraduate Welcome

A very warm welcome to the Department of Psychology, and thank you for choosing to study with us at the University of Essex.

We very much look forward to meeting again those of you who are returning to us after the summer vacation, and we are delighted to welcome for the first time those of you who are just starting on a career in higher education this year with us. We are especially pleased to greet those of you who are new to the country, and have chosen the UK, the University of Essex and the Department of Psychology to continue your studies. Wherever you are from, we hope that you will enjoy your studies with us, and that you take every opportunity to get the most out of university life.

As you will discover, the Department provides a vibrant and dynamic place in which to study. We hope that you make full use of our excellent research and computing laboratories, and that you are soon fully engaged in your studies. As you will experience, we provide a research-led education: recent research informs Psychology at Essex at every level from our undergraduate degree schemes (BSc and BA), to MSc degrees and PhD degrees. You will receive up-to-date courses taught by well-qualified, highly-knowledgeable and highly-motivated staff. As student members of the department, you will play a vital role in contributing to our thriving research environment. You will invest time, effort, intelligence, creativity and scholarship into your research project work, and under expert supervision, you will contribute to some truly ground-breaking research. Indeed, Psychology at Essex was ranked 13th out of all UK psychology departments for the overall quality of our research in the latest Research Excellence Framework report (REF2014), and student projects contributed enormously to advances in our knowledge and contributed to our excellent research publications (our publications were rated 8th in the UK in the REF2014).

All of our undergraduate Psychology degrees are fully accredited by the British Psychological Society (BPS), such that our graduates are eligible for the Society's Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership (GBC). Students must achieve a 2.2 class degree or higher and pass the PS300 empirical project module. We hope that you will take full advantage of the high quality undergraduate education and facilities that we provide. You may wish to help us positively in this by getting involved as a student representative for your scheme and year group, where you can contribute through the Undergraduate Student Voice Group (SVG), to help us develop further the learning experience of our students, and to help us respond to changing needs and opportunities.

We look forward to meeting you all during the year. We are sure that you will find your studies both challenging and rewarding. We wish you every success in your studies.

Professor Paul Hibbard,
Department of Psychology

Introduction

This Handbook is designed to provide you with an overview of all the essential information about the University and the Department of Psychology. Your Student Handbooks provides details of your department, including staff and contact details, facilities and ways to communicate and receive updates, as well as information relating to your course of study at Essex, including Rules of Assessment and the related policies, prizes awarded by the department each year, student feedback and meetings, and University regulations regarding progress, appeals and extenuating circumstances.

At our three uniquely intimate campuses we celebrate diversity and challenge inequality. Whatever your background, race or sexual orientation, you are part of a vibrant community that lives, learns and plays together.

Essex is about more than just getting a degree: we have so much to offer our students! This Student Handbook contains information on your Essex Experience, including the Students’ Union, sports clubs and societies, Essex Sport, Careers Services, campus information, IT support and services and our extensive range of student support and services.

The Student Directory contains a wealth of other helpful sources of information, which can be found at https://www.essex.ac.uk/student.
Practicalities and Getting Started

You’ve made it to Essex! We’ve outlined below the most important things you need to make sure you do as soon as possible to get set up and started at Essex.

Complete your Registration

Whilst you have accepted your offer and made your way to Essex, you still need to officially register yourself. At the start of each academic year, all new and returning students are required to register at the University. Registration is not only a formal procedure of enrolling you into the University, but it also connects you up to a number of vital systems you will need access to, including your IT account. As part of this process, you will need to complete online pre-arrival, physically attend a registration event on campus, and also activate your IT account.

To begin your registration, use one of the links below:

New students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/registration

Returning students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/registration/returner-registration

eNROL

You may have to select options to select as part of your course structure. If you do, you must choose the options that you wish to enrol on before the academic year begins. New students will access the system from the end of August. Returning students will access the system from the April preceding the next academic year. Departments will approve your selections within a few weeks of them being made, and timetables will take module enrolment into account when planning for the next academic year. Early module enrolment will ensure that you know which modules to attend and where the lectures and classes are ready for the start of term. You can view and choose your specific options through the eNROL system.

eNROL: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/enrol/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2fenrol%2F

Explore your Campus

There is a broad range of facilities across each of our campuses to support your living and learning experience at Essex. We provide study-based services, like the IT helpdesk and group study pods, but also various food and drink venues and leisure facilities. The Students’ Union also runs a wide range of facilities, bars and general stores. Full details on all on-campus facilities feature on our student webpages and in the campus guide you received with your welcome information when you joined us as a student member.

Get connected

Your IT account

You will need to set up your IT account and create a password through the University website www.essex.ac.uk/it/getaccount. You will need to register an external email address and passphrase to set up your account. Once you’re set up, you can access your email, log on to lab computers, connect to campus wi-fi, and much more.

You must change your password within four weeks of your account being created, and then once every four months after that. You should receive email notifications to change your password shortly before it is due to expire. The easiest way to change your password is online
If you have forgotten your password, you can also reset it through this link using your external email address and passphrase. If you have forgotten those also, you should either visit the IT Helpdesk or call 01206 872345. Make sure you keep your password safe and do not share it with others!

Campus Wi-fi

Wi-fi is available across all campuses. Simply find the ‘eduroam’ network on your device and use the same log in details as your IT account to connect up!

Essex Apps

The University has a variety of online systems and platforms designed to enhance your learning and help make processes, such as submitting coursework, easier. We have rounded up the top platforms, portals and apps that you need to know about!

MyEssex

MyEssex is your online account. You can use it to see your timetable, keep your personal details up-to-date, request replacement registration cards or supporting documents, such as council tax exemption certificates, see how you’re doing on your course, let us know if you’ll miss a lecture or class, contact the Student Services Hub, and much more.

PocketEssex

Pocket Essex is the University's official app for students, giving you access to comprehensive information about living and learning at Essex. The app provides an interface of icons that act as a portal through to a variety of useful links, areas and resources. PocketEssex links to many areas that MyEssex does in a handy app form, but also takes you through to many other key contacts and resources, such as the Students’ Union, FindYourWay and the Library.

Find Your Way

We know that finding your way from one room to another can be challenging to start with. Our Colchester campus in particular can be difficult to navigate with a historically complex room numbering system that leaves even our final year students still baffled! FindYourWay is our interactive campus map that can either be accessed via PocketEssex, downloaded as its own app, or via web browser. It is designed to help you get from A to B on either the Colchester or Southend campuses with quick and easy directions. http://findyourway.essex.ac.uk/

https://www.essex.ac.uk/myessex/

Your personal belongings

University insurance cover is very limited for the belongings of students using graduate study rooms. Therefore, you are strongly advised to take out personal insurance cover for your possessions. This is especially important for items of particular value, such as personal electronic devices (i.e., laptops, phones and tablets). The University does not cover costs for personal damage or loss of your possessions; only in instances where the University has been negligent would a claim be viable for compensation for personal belongings.

Right to Study

The University must ensure all students have the right to study at the University of Essex for the whole duration of their course(s). If you require immigration permission to study in the UK, this will be checked when you first register on your course and as necessary thereafter.

For Tier 4 sponsored students, you will have conditions attached to your leave restricting study and work; some nationals are required to register with the Police. You are expected to have the finances in place to pay your tuition fees and living costs throughout your course and do not have access to state housing or benefits.

The Tier 4 rules and guidance include restrictions relating to the length of time you can spend studying in the UK and academic progress; this may mean you are unable to take an academic option offered to you or that we can’t continue to sponsor you under Tier 4. The University has many duties as a Tier 4 sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our Tier 4 licence. Find out more on the University’s website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/immigration/ and https://www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/regulations

If you would like to get additional support with your English language skills, you can find helpful information and a range of resources here: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/international-students

English classes for the dependants of international students and staff (ECDIS)
The Department of Language and Linguistics offers dependants of international students and staff at the Colchester Campus the chance to improve their English language, through our ECDIS programme, at no extra cost. Classes are taught at three basic levels: Elementary (A1/A2), Intermediate (B1/B2) and Advanced (C1/C2) and will focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing.

The Essex Experience

The University and the Students' Union have developed our Student Charter as a part of our ongoing commitment to create an outstanding environment that offers the highest standards of teaching, research and support in an international and multi-cultural community.

The Student Charter reiterates that you are a member of the University of Essex community, not just while you are a student or recent graduate here, but for life. You can read the full Student Charter at:

Your time at Essex will be an experience beyond the classroom; there is so much available to all students so you can make the most of your time at Essex and have a truly unforgettable Essex Experience.

Equality, Inclusion and Diversity

The University recognises the value of diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity within the University. It therefore aims to create the conditions whereby students and staff are treated with dignity and respect, and solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential, regardless of race, ethnic or national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, socio-economic background, family circumstances, religious or political beliefs and affiliations, or any other irrelevant distinction.

The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy is fully effective. You can find out more information on the University’s policy, and get in touch with any comments or questions, here:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/information/equality-and-diversity/equality-and-diversity-policy-and-strategy

While we full heartedly encourage students to challenge the status quo and explore the unknown, we expect that students do so respectfully, intelligently and act as true ambassadors for the University.

Get involved
We have 120 existing Societies where you can meet people with similar interests, challenge yourself with something new or, if you can’t find what you’re looking for, start your own society!

Furthermore, we have our very own letting agency SU Homes designed to offer help and support for students to find off campus accommodation.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/life/colchester-campus/get-involved

The Psychology Society is a University society that encourages students to join and to get involved with its activities. It is run for students by students. It is a great way to meet other students who share an interest in psychology as well as offering various social events. They also provide a small selection of books that can be loaned to its members. Your Module Co-ordinator

All teaching staff will have weekly academic support hours during term time. This is a time when you can go and see them about anything to do with your modules; from difficulties you might be having with your seminar readings, to discussions about feedback on your coursework. You can e-mail your tutor to make an appointment.

Please note that academic staff do not hold regular academic support hours during the vacations, and may, on occasions, be away from the University on research trips and visits. Therefore, if you need to get in touch with them during the vacation periods, you should e-mail them in the first instance.

You can find out who is the module tutor for each Module here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/modules/default.aspx

Your Personal Tutor

All undergraduate students have a Personal Tutor who will meet you soon after you arrive, and regularly throughout your course. Your Personal Tutor will be a member of the academic staff from within the Department of Psychology and is there to help you feel connected to your department. Your Personal Tutor is someone who you can talk to if you have questions about your course or encounter any difficulties that may affect your studies, and can recommend and direct you to other support services on campus that might be able to further help and support you. You can find out who your Personal Tutor is through MyEssex, and the contact details of all staff can be found on our website: https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/psychology/people/academic

Your Peer Mentor
All first-year students are assigned a Peer Mentor. Your Peer Mentor will be a current second or final-year Essex Psychology undergraduate and should contact you before you arrive at Essex. You will have the opportunity to meet your Peer Mentor at the Induction Day in Welcome Week; from them on, how often you contact or meet your Peer mentor is entirely up to you. You may find that they are an incredibly useful source of information, especially during the first few weeks of term.

Further information on mentoring at Essex role can be found here:
http://www.essex.ac.uk/students/study-resources/mentoring/peer-mentoring/default.aspx

Become a Mentor
If you are in second or final-year and are interested in becoming a Peer Mentor, a call for mentor applications is usually circulated in the Spring term. If you have any questions in the meantime, you can contact Amy Cole: a.cole@essex.ac.uk.

Staff research interests
You can find out more about the areas the Department researches here:
https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/psychology/research

The Laboratories
The Department has excellent learning resources and facilities for our students. We have custom-built laboratories and first class equipment. The laboratories are on Floors 1 and 2 of the Psychology Department and are open to undergraduates. They house a large number of computers, each supporting word processing, internet, statistics, spreadsheet and presentation software.

Use of psychology laboratories (1.703, 1.704, 1.705, 2.708)

Your University ID card should give you access to these labs. If you experience any difficulties please contact the technicians in 2.712. Alan Brignull is available between the hours of 9:30 and 13:00; Monika Steinke is available between 12:00 and 3:30.

Computers and experimental booths in labs on Floors 1 and 1 and a half are available for use by students from 9 am to 5 pm providing that the rooms are not required for teaching or testing. The booths in 1.704 and 1.705 can be booked up to 2 weeks in advance using booking forms posted on the doors. It should be noted that both labs have timetabled taught modules running throughout the year and information giving open access times will be posted on the entrance doors. Do not enter when a class is in progress. Any enquiries regarding the use of the psychology labs 1.704 & 1.705 should be addressed to the technical services team (room 2.712, psysupport@essex.ac.uk). For all other lab enquiries or bookings please speak to the Academic Administrator(s) (Sarah Brewer, slbrewer@essex.ac.uk or Mary Cronin, mary.cronin@essex.ac.uk).

For the convenience of others and yourself please be aware that there are a few rules relating to Lab use:
- No food, drink or chewing gum.
- Please do not prop the door open.
- Save your work regularly onto your M drive. (File saved to the desktop or hard drive will be removed)
- Do not install anything onto any computer.
- Please report faults to the Technicians (room 2.712).

Blank CDs, DVDs, and USB memory sticks from the Copy Shop Counter, located on Square 4.

The Psychometric Store

The Psychometric Store is in Room 2.711A on Floor 2 of the Psychology building and is administered by Alan Brignull in Room 2.712. You may borrow items from the Psychometric Store only with permission from your lab tutor or project supervisor. The store contains a wide range of equipment, headphones, questionnaires and psychometric tests, voice recorders and stop watches.

Most items in the store are available on a two week loan basis. Requests to renew the loan period must be made by contacting Mr Brignull. Please e-mail Alan Brignull (alanb@essex.ac.uk) at least five working days before you require extending a loan in case the item needs to be recalled. Requests for loan of equipment, laptops, IT and AV equipment should be addressed directly to the Technicians in room 2.712 (psysupport@essex.ac.uk).

Software

The University provides a number of software applications that are free to use whilst you are a student (Microsoft Office, SPSS, Matlab etc.) A full list of applications can be found and installed from the central software hub (https://software.essex.ac.uk).

The Department of Psychology Study Space

The Psychology Study Space is in STEM 3.1 in the STEM building. This space is available most weeks during term time. It is available for you to use on Tuesdays & Wednesdays from 9am-1pm for all Psychology, CSEE, Biological Sciences and Maths students.

Please note that teaching events may occur during these times, which will mean the room can not be used as a study space. Please consult signage outside of the room before using the space to study.

Departmental prizes
In Years 1, 2, and 3, the department awards prizes for Outstanding Achievement and Contribution to the department. These awards are based on diverse aspects of academic performance and engagement, congratulating where a student has excelled.

Communication
It is important to keep up to date with information relating to your department and course. This section also summarises how the department/school will communicate updates with you and provides some guidance on communicating with University staff.

By email
The University’s departments and schools will predominantly use e-mail for routine communication between staff and students. Your Essex e-mail address will have been added to the relevant e-mail groups specific to your department or school, course and modules to ensure that you receive the essential information, updates and general communication related to your study and issues that may affect you. It is therefore vital that you check your Essex email regularly. It is recommended that you check your Essex email each day to ensure you do not miss any important updates to classes and assessment.

If you are elected to a Student Representative position, work as a Student Ambassador, or volunteer in another form or means, it is even more important to regularly check your Essex email as should other students and staff need to get in touch, they will do so via your Essex email.

You will also automatically be subscribed to a small number of opt-out lists, again, based on your course. These will be used to send useful information and, while some of this may be about events, marketing or other opportunities, we try to avoid sending too much. To opt in or out of such lists, please visit:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/services/forms/default.aspx

How you should communicate
While email can be a quick and easy means of communicating, you should still consider how you structure and write each email to ensure it is appropriate when contacting members of staff at the University. How you communicate is a reflection on your professional and academic self, and so we have provided some useful tips to consider when constructing an email for different purposes. These are also useful when contacting professionals and academics outside of the University and are widely recognised as a matter of courtesy in the United Kingdom.

The level of formality

- If you are writing to your lecturer for the first time, it is good practice to use a relatively formal manner and use their correct title, for example, ‘Dear Dr Bercow’ or ‘Dear Professor Hammond’.

- If your lecturer signs their reply using their first name, then it is generally acceptable to reply using just their first name in your response; if not, continue to address them with their full, formal name.
If you are unsure of your lecturer’s title, you can find their full details here: https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/psychology/people/academic. If no title is noted, then you should use the member of staff’s full name.

Identify yourself

- In the first few weeks of term, academic staff will be busy getting to know all of their students. Therefore, it is important that you begin by introducing and identifying yourself to them as they will not know every student right away. For example, ‘I am taking module AB123 and was at your lecture on Research Methods on Tuesday morning…’

- You should always use your Essex email as your full name will appear to the member of staff you are emailing, but still remember to sign off your email with your name, including your preferred name if this is different to your official legal name on your record and account.

Consider your question

- You should always check that who you are contacting is the most appropriate person to answer your query. The useful department contact list provided earlier in this section should help you determine who will be able to help you on a range of different queries.

- Before emailing the member of staff, you should make sure that you have checked the resources provided, including the University website, Student Directory, Departmental Moodle pages and this Student Handbook in case the answer to your question can be found in one of these.

If your question is particularly long or complex, it may be quicker and more useful to see someone in person. Your department office is open daily and all staff hold academic support hours when you can just drop in. If you cannot make the advertised support hours, or wish to notify the member of staff before you drop in, you can always email them beforehand to arrange an alternative time or make them aware you will be coming along.

Our website

Each department and school has its own section of the University website. This is an important source of information and news about all aspects of your studies. You can find the Department of Psychology website here: https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/psychology

MyEssex

Your MyEssex student portal will alert you to updates about modules and other aspects of your course and studies. It is important that you check your MyEssex regularly, as well as email, to ensure you have the most up to date information.

By telephone

You will only be contacted via phone in emergencies, or when it is otherwise necessary to receive an immediate response, but you should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.

By text message

In instances where a last minute change has been made, and the department or school need to communicate this with short notice, you may receive a text message to communicate the change, such as a lecture or class cancellation. You should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.
By letter
Letters may be attached to your Essex email or posted to your term-time address, so please make sure the University has got your current contact details. Your address and contact details can be updated via the MyEssex portal.

Social Media
The Department has a Facebook page, which can be found here: https://www.facebook.com/PsychologyatEssex
Learning and Teaching

The University is committed to providing equal opportunities for all our students regardless of where or how you study. Our diverse student population is taken into account when developing the resources, services, and facilities on and off campus, when we create our courses, write publications and course materials, and set our policies and regulations.

The academic year

The academic year uses a week numbering system that covers the 52 weeks of a calendar year, but corresponds to typical term dates. So, the start of the academic year is week 1, which is Welcome week.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Week numbers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Autumn</td>
<td>2-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring</td>
<td>16-25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer</td>
<td>30-39</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

You can view the University’s week numbers with the equivalent dates in the week by week calendar. The University’s key dates include an overview of the start and end of each term and exam periods. Some courses within departments have slightly different term dates. However, you will find that all campus activities and events make reference to the standard academic year terms and schedule noted above.

The official University teaching day runs from 9am to 6pm, Monday to Friday and you are expected to be available during these times in term time to attend teaching events.

Module enrolment

You may have had to select some optional modules as part of your course structure. If this is the case, you should have done this prior to the start of term. More information on how to do this can be found in the ‘Getting Started’ section of this handbook and a full list of modules available in the department can be found here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/modules/default.aspx.

Teaching timetable

Once you have chosen all of your modules (if applicable) and received confirmation, they will appear on your personal timetable. Each student has a personal timetable, this shows you when and where you teaching is taking place, as well as who is teaching you. Check your personal online timetable regularly for up to date teaching information. You can access your timetable on most mobile devices, including smart phones and tablets.

You may find that the first week of your timetable is blank if you do not have any course commitments during Welcome Week (week 1). Due to unforeseen, unavoidable circumstances, there may be some room changes during the year; therefore it is vital that you regularly check your timetable and Essex email where any changes will be communicated immediately.

Information about teaching timetables, including requesting a class change, reporting a timetable issue and accessing your individual timetable can be found AT: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/timetables/your-timetable

Course structure

Each course at the University has its own syllabus, full details of which can be found in the University’s Programme Specifications Catalogue at:
Programme specifications provide key information, including the aims and learning outcomes of your course. Your own course structure, including your specific programme specification, can be found in the MyStudy section of your MyEssex homepage.

Programmes of Study in the Department of Psychology include:

- BSc or BA Psychology
- BSc Psychology with Cognitive Neuroscience
- BSc Psychology with Economics
- BSc Cognitive Science

British Psychological Society

With the exception of BA Psychological Studies, all our degrees are accredited by BPS. This means they are recognised by British Psychological Society (BPS) for the purposes of Graduate Membership and towards the Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership. Accreditation gives graduates the opportunity to gain Graduate and/or Chartered Membership (GBC) of the Society. GBC is an entry requirement for all postgraduate training programmes leading to chartered status.

In order to gain a degree that confers the British Psychological Society’s Graduate Basis for Chartering (GBC) status, you must obtain an overall classification of at least lower second class honours (2.2) and you must obtain a pass in the PS300 project module. Full details about graduate membership can be found on the BPS website https://www.bps.org.uk/join-us/membership/graduate-membership

Learning Outcomes

Each course has learning outcomes, as outlined in the Programme Specifications. Course learning outcomes are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are also defined more specifically at a modular level highlighting the particular aims, learning outcomes and methods of assessment for each module. Having this information means that you can measure your progress against the outcomes, for example when reviewing coursework feedback, and they can be used to guide you when undertaking independent study.

Credits

You will take 360 credits worth of modules in total during your course at Essex. This is divided into 120 credits per each year of study.

Module information

Most modules taught reflect the individual research interests of members of our academic staff. New modules are regularly explored, researched and developed in collaboration with the University’s Quality and Academic Development Team to expand our transformative educational offering at Essex. Where optional modules are available, information can be found here https://www1.essex.ac.uk/modules/default.aspx

In your final year as an Undergraduate you will complete a full-year research project. You will be allocated a supervisor for this project who will guide you through the process. At the end of your second year you will receive an introductory talk and a handbook explaining everything you need to know. This module is coded PS300 in the Department of Psychology and is co-ordinated by the Year Three Tutor.
Module choice
In the summer term, the department produces a Module and Enrolment information booklet with details of modules running in the following academic year. Meetings can be arranged for first and second-year students to discuss their choices with their Personal Tutor.

Changing Modules
Where you must make a choice as to which optional modules you undertake, you should make every effort to research the module. If you wish to discuss this, you may do so with your Personal Tutor and department. In instances where you need to make a change to your module choice, you may do so up until the second week of the Autumn Term. If you wish to change an optional module after the deadline, you should seek advice from the Department or School Office that runs the particular module that you may wish to change to.

Late changes may be permitted, but will be subject to the approval of the department that runs the module and the relevant Dean. Late changes of modules that run for one term or less will not usually be permitted. Students may not change modules that are core or compulsory for the course for which they are registered.

Module Co-ordinators
Module Co-ordinators are responsible for the individual modules, which make up courses. They design the modules, teach them and examine them. They monitor student progress and talk to students about any academic issues related to their particular module.

Module Materials
Reading lists for each module can be found https://library.essex.ac.uk/home. All other information and module materials can be found on Moodle.

Study Abroad
All/some Psychology courses may also be taken as four-year courses, to include a year studying at a University abroad. It is also possible for students to study abroad for one term in their final year. You may have applied for and been accepted on a course with a Year Abroad. If you have not, but are interested in undertaking a Year Abroad or other international experience, you can get in contact with the Essex Abroad Team here:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/study-abroad

Work Placements
All/some Psychology course may also be taken as four-year courses, to include a Placement Year. It is your responsibility to find a work placement year, however, the Industry and Placements Team can help prepare and support you in finding placements and will advertise relevant placements available to Essex students. If you are interested in undertaking a Placement Year, or other work-based opportunities that may be available to you and your course, you can find more information, including who to contact, here:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/careers/placements/default.aspx

Skills for Success
We are committed to ensuring that every student is able to get the most out of their academic study and achieve their potential on their course. Whether you need support with researching, assignment writing, mathematics and statistics, digital skills, or English language for academic purposes, support is available to help you succeed during your time at University. Reach your potential and enhance your chances of success with classes, workshops, drop-in clinics and on-line resources. Find out more at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/study-resources/tdc/

The use of proofreading services
Many students seek ‘proofreading’ services at some point during their studies, but different editing practices at times go on in this name that may not be appropriate in an academic context, and could potentially qualify as an academic offence. In a context where work is to be assessed, the University is keen to ensure as far as possible that students understand what proofreading work should entail and the acceptable boundaries to which any proofreading or editing must adhere to.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/academic-skills/proofreading
Before considering the use of proofreading services, all students should first discuss their work with their personal tutors.

Learning a Language

Learn a language at Essex to increase your global and cultural awareness. Language learning can give you the confidence to work and travel internationally, expand your options for studying abroad, and get a competitive edge when you’re looking for a job. There are a number of ways to do it, so look online to discover the best option for you.
www.essex.ac.uk/study/why/languages

Attendance Monitoring (Count me in)

Recording attendance

You’ll need to record your attendance at all teaching events using the electronic reader in the teaching room. Just ‘tap in’ for every timetabled teaching event you attend. Your attendance at lectures and classes has a significant impact on how successful you are in your studies. At Essex, we monitor attendance so we can identify students who may need extra guidance and support.

You should not tap in and then immediately leave the teaching event; you should not tap in for someone who is not attending the class. These are recognised by the University as a formal academic offence and may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

Recording an absence

If you are unable to attend a teaching event, you must report your absence in your MyEssex portal. Your department consider the reasons and may record it as an authorised absence. Accepted reasons for absence from teaching include extenuating circumstances (such as illness), participation in certain events (such as a significant extra-curricular University or SU Society event or Jury Service). Examples of reasons that will not be accepted include oversleeping, or missing the bus or train. Be prepared that you may need to provide evidence, including medical evidence, if relevant.

If you need to report an absence from an examination or class test, you must report your absence in your MyEssex portal and submit an extenuating circumstances form. You can find out how to do this in the Extenuating Circumstances section of this Handbook.

Please contact your Personal Tutor, department staff or the Student Services Hub for advice and support, particularly if you are going to be absent for several weeks.

Lost or faulty cards

If you lose your card or it is faulty, please go to the Student Services Hub to get a new card and have your attendance record updated (a fee may be applicable).
https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/advice-and-support/ssh-colchester

Fitness to practise

Fitness to practise is only applicable to students on certain professional courses (such as nursing or social work) and is designed to ensure and regulate that a student is suitable for engagement in the relevant profession. Students are notified at the point of enrolment if their course of study is subject to the terms of this procedure. Students enrolled on courses where a practical professional placement is required have additional responsibilities placed upon them regarding not only their conduct but also their professional suitability as outlined in relevant regulatory and/or professional body codes of practice. Failure to meet these responsibilities can lead to the Breach of Professional Conduct with the Fitness to Practice and Termination of Training Procedure being invoked. If this applies to you, you will have been told by your department. You can find the full Fitness to Practise procedure online at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg
Making changes to your study

Changing your course
If you are thinking about changing course, we recommend that you speak to someone in your school/department as soon as possible. They will be able to advise you if there are any specific requirements for the course you are looking to change to. If the course you are looking to change to is within a different school/department, then you should also speak to someone in that department. If you are thinking of undertaking a placement year or year abroad, you should check the requirements for these programmes and contact the Industry and Placements Team or Essex Abroad Team.

There are deadlines in place for when you need to change course by, so please make sure you are aware of these deadlines before requesting to change. Further details on changing course and the relevant deadlines can be found at www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/changing-course.aspx or by visiting your Student Services Hub.

You should investigate your potential new course by looking at course information on the department’s web pages, talking to students on the course and speaking to tutors. You should also look at our Rules of Assessment for the new course to check whether there are any course-specific requirements.

Maximum period of study
Undergraduate students have a maximum period in which to complete their studies. This is set at the point at which you register, and is normally the length of your programme plus two additional years. This is to allow some flexibility in cases where you find you must intermit, or you fail a stage of study and must repeat it, or you want to transfer to a new course and must retake a stage of study.

Thinking of leaving or taking a break from your studies?
You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you’re thinking about leaving Essex, we’re here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice.

Intermission is a temporary withdrawal or leave of absence from the University and provides you with the opportunity to take a break from your studies. Normally, this is for reasons beyond your control (e.g. health or personal problems) although other reasons are permitted. Intermission must be approved by the University first, so if you are thinking about intermitting, we strongly advise you to contact your department and your Student Services Hub to talk to one of our advisers.

You should also read our guidance on intermitting very carefully at www.essex.ac.uk/see/intermit. If your intermission is agreed to, we will also give you the advice and support you need to help you carry on with your studies.

Withdrawing is the formal process for permanently leaving your programme of study and the University. If you are thinking of withdrawing, you should seek advice from your Department or the Student Services Hub at the earliest opportunity. It is very important that you discuss your circumstances with the University and follow the formal procedure for withdrawing. If the university is not formally notified, then you may risk continuing to incur further tuition or accommodation fees. More advice and information is available at www.essex.ac.uk/see/withdraw.

The use of personal devices in teaching
You can use laptops and tablet PCs during teaching classes for purposes related to the class you are attending. You should refrain from using your mobile phone during all teaching events, except in cases where a lecturer uses a programme which requires these devices to be switched on for participation.
Assessment and Good Practice

All schools and departments at the University should employ a variety of assessment methods designed to ensure that the learning outcomes of each module, and course, have been successfully met by the student.

The Regulations relating to Academic Affairs which govern assessment at the University can be found online:

www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

Rules of Assessment

The Rules of Assessment are used to calculate your results. There is a main set of rules for 3 year and 4 year courses, but some departments also have additional variations which can be found in the Variation to the Rules of Assessment.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/ug/default.aspx

In the Department of Psychology we do not have a variation to the Rules of Assessment

Each module you will take will have a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment and the Framework for undergraduate courses give you more information about this.

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

Core, compulsory and optional modules

To understand the requirements to pass your course, you need to know the status of the modules that you are taking. You can find details of the status of your modules in Section C of your programme specification via My Essex.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core</th>
<th>You must take this module</th>
<th>Must pass this module. No failure can be permitted.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Compulsory</td>
<td>You must take this module</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Optional</td>
<td>You can choose which module to study</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Most modules in each year must be passed, with only a small number of credits, if any, being allowed to be failed in the degree.

In order to proceed into the second year and third years of the Psychology degree, students must pass (40% or over) in all Core modules.

Ethics in research

All research involving human participants, whether undertaken by the University's staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You can find our Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants here - https://www.essex.ac.uk/staff/research-governance/ethical-approval-resources-for-applicants - along with a link to the online Ethical Approval application form in ERAMS (https://erams.essex.ac.uk/do/essex-login/login).

‘Human participants’ are defined as including living human beings, human beings who have recently died (cadavers, human remains and body parts), embryos and foetuses, human tissue and bodily fluids, and personal data and records (such as, but not restricted to medical, genetic, financial, personnel, criminal or administrative records and test results including scholastic achievements). Research involving the NHS may require and research involving human tissue or adults lacking capacity to consent will require Health Research Authority approval.

Your supervisor for your PS300 Final year project will apply for Ethics approval for the project that you undertake.

Academic Integrity and Academic Offences

The University expects students to complete all assessment with honesty and integrity and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don’t meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your coursework. An academic offence can take place even if you didn’t mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating with another candidate in an examination.

If you aren’t sure what the conventions are, particularly in relation to referencing, you should ask your department and contact Skills for Success via the Student Services Hub.

More information about academic offences and getting support can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/academic-offences.aspx.

Methods of Assessment in Psychology

Whether a module is core, compulsory or optional, all methods of assessment are compulsory. If you do not complete coursework or attend examinations, and do not have extenuating circumstances to support your non-submission or absence, then you are at risk of being withdrawn from the University.

Psychology modules offer a range of assessments each tailored to assessing the learning outcomes of the module, which can include exams, lab reports, essays, in class tests and oral presentations.

Coursework

Academic writing support

Students studying PS111, Discovering Psychology, receive literacy support classes from the Skills for Success team. These will help you to develop academic skills such as writing, information gathering and utilising feedback. These classes form an integral part of the module. However, all students in the department, whether undergraduate or postgraduate, can access the support of the Skills for Success Team. One-to-one sessions with an academic skills tutor are available to anyone who feels they will benefit. The Helpdesk operates from the Silberrad Student Centre on the ground floor. They are open 10am - 4pm, Monday to Friday. You can drop in and talk to someone about the support on offer.

Samples of coursework

Where possible, sample of coursework are provided within the module.
Referencing in coursework
Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK.

The University takes academic offences very seriously. You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully.

Referencing is a key academic/scientific skill. It is how you will acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all works used directly (quotes) and indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising).

Referencing allows you to give credit to authors' researchers' concepts and ideas/ideas and results, demonstrate your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject, direct readers to your sources, and avoid plagiarism.

You should always use the best available sources of evidence, such as peer reviewed journals and recognised books.

To find out about your departmental referencing style and for help with referencing, visit the library website: library.essex.ac.uk/referencing, or take the Academic Integrity Moodle course: https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/course/view.php?id=5844

Undergraduate Assessment Guide
For more information on how to work on your assessments, please reference the Undergraduate Assessment Guide, which you will be given during welcome week.

Submission of coursework
The online coursework submission system (FASER) can be accessed through myEssex or at this web address: http://faser.essex.ac.uk/ where you will find full instructions. The system allows you to upload a digital copy of your assignment to the web.

You are encouraged to log on to FASER at the start of the year so that you understand how it works before you reach your first deadline. There is a trial module and deadline for you to use as a practice submission. There is a helpful guidance on how to use FASER here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/e-learning/tools/faser/Student/HelpCentre#uploading

You can upload as many draft versions of your work as you like onto the server and are encouraged to use this as a safe and secure area to store your coursework. This can help to avoid the problem of your computer crashing at the last minute and your important files being lost. In cases where multiple versions are uploaded you will need to make any which you do NOT want to be included in the final submission a 'draft' otherwise just the most recently uploaded file will be taken as the final version. The maximum file upload size is 50MB.

Problems with FASER
If you have technical difficulties: Please contact the Learning Technology Team ltt@essex.ac.uk as soon as possible to find out if this is a University issue or whether it may be a problem with your computer. This will count towards your claim when submitting a late coursework form should you need to. You can also contact IT Services helpdesk on it.helpdesk@essex.ac.uk

If you are confused or unsure how to upload, or are having any non-technical difficulties you should contact your Undergraduate Administrator
Late submission of coursework
We have a single policy at the University of Essex for the late submission of coursework in undergraduate courses: all coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero. No extensions will be granted. A student submitting coursework late will have the University’s and Department’s arrangements for late submission drawn to their attention. The policy states that the mark of zero shall stand unless you submit satisfactory evidence of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline.

Where a student is unable to undertake the assessment by the deadline, and it is deemed impossible to consider a late submission request due to the nature of the assessment (e.g. absence from in-class tests, practical assignments and presentations), an extenuating circumstances form should be submitted which will be considered by the Board of Examiners.

The University’s full Late Submission policy and further information can be found on the website:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx

Return of coursework
Your coursework marks will be returned electronically and you will receive an e-mail when it is ready to view. For certain assessments, your coursework may be marked in hard copy, but you will receive your mark electronically. You should also collect your hard copy so that you can see your feedback.

This is important because (a) you can get timely feedback that may help improve other assignments, (b) you can get a gauge as early as possible as to the quality of work that you are submitting, (c) you can gain additional feedback from the marker, if necessary.

The Department hopes to turnaround feedback and marks in 20 working days.

Examinations
Attendance at examinations is compulsory and if you do not attend them and do not have extenuating circumstances then you are at risk of being withdrawn.

You can find your personalised exam timetable online at: www.essex.ac.uk/examtimes/ The exam timetable will be published on the date shown at https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/dates-and-timetables.aspx and you will receive an email to your Essex account when it is available to view.

You must bring your registration card and exam entry form with you to the exam. You will not be allowed entry without them. Remember to check your exam entry form carefully and email the Examinations Office (exams@essex.ac.uk) if there are any errors.

For exams that are more than an hour long, you will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you arrive later than 55 minutes after the start of the exam. If your exam is only an hour long, you will only be admitted up to ten minutes after the start of the exam.

You can download a guide to examinations and watch a short video at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/default.aspx

Sample and past papers
Where possible, sample of past papers are provided within the module.

Revision classes
Revision classes are scheduled at the beginning of the academic year and can be found in your timetable if they are being held.
Exam stress
Exams create stress for most people, but there is a lot that you can do to prepare for them and help manage the levels of stress associated with exams. The University's Skills for Success Team offers a series of Exam Workshops which are run by specialist staff. These sessions cover revision planning and techniques, as well as sessions on relaxation and how to cope with stress. Staff in the Student Services Hub can also provide sessions on stress management if required.

Calculators in Examinations
If you are allowed to use a calculator in your examinations, the only models you are permitted to use are the Casio FX-83GT X, Casio FX-85GT X, Casio FX-83GT PLUS or the Casio FX-85GT PLUS.

The only exception is for certain Finance exams that require a financial calculator, in which case you may use the Hewlett Packard 12c (all variants) or the Texas Instruments BAII Plus (including the BAII Plus Professional).

A limited number of Casio calculators will be available to borrow on the day of your exam from the Exams Office on a first-come, first-served basis, on production of your registration card. Please note financial calculators will not be available.

Dictionaries
Please note that dictionaries are not allowed during exams. If you take a dictionary into an exam, you will be reported on suspicion of committing an academic offence. Even if English is not your first language, you are still not entitled to use a translation dictionary or any other kind of dictionary.

Moderation and marking
The University's Marking Policy can be found online and includes our policy and procedure on the moderation of work.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marking_policy/default.asp

Moderation
Moderation is a process separate from that of marking and provides assurance that the assessment criteria has been applied appropriately. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given. In instances where the moderator feels marks may not be entirely appropriate, the moderator would not change individual marks for the work, but would liaise with the first marker to agree whether marks should be reviewed across the particular piece of assessment or module. Should a review of marks be agreed, this may lead to marks being adjusted accordingly.

External Examiners
External Examiners are typically academics from other universities, but may also be from industry, business or the relevant profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education. External Examiners write reports on the courses and modules they are responsible for which are made available to you via your department. Unless the External Examiner has been specifically sent work to arbitrate on a dispute between internal markers, the External Examiner’s role will in assessment will be as a moderator. You can find the name and institution of the External Examiner for your course and modules by looking on the Programme Specifications Catalogue and the Module Directory.

You can find out more about how the University uses External Examiners here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/external_examiners/default.asp
Please note: you may not contact External Examiners directly under any circumstances. If you have any concerns about the quality and standards of your course, please contact your Student Representative, your Head of Department, or the Students’ Union.

Second marking
Second marking is where a second marker marks the work but has access to the first marker’s marks and/or comments. Where two members of staff are involved in marking a piece of work, the markers should make every effort to agree a mark, rather than merely averaging the two marks. Departments keep a full record of both individual and agreed marks for all work which is second marked.

Anonymous marking
Anonymous marking is when your work is marked anonymously, i.e. your name is not attached to the piece of work for marking.

Where it is practical to do so, all coursework which contributes to your final module mark should be marked anonymously. Where this is not possible, departments will inform you in advance of the assessment task.

All formal examinations at the University of Essex are marked anonymously. You will be provided with a candidate number on your exam entry form. This will be in large print in the centre of the page. This is the number you should write on your examination scripts. It is important that you do this so we can, once the paper has been marked, allocate the marks to your record correctly.

Re-marking of coursework
You may, under certain circumstances, have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework. Should you feel that your work needs to be reviewed and potentially re-marked, you should first contact your department to advise you accordingly and assess whether you meet the criteria to be able to submit a request for re-marking.

The re-marking of work is included within the University’s Marking Policy can be found here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marketing_policy.

In order to make a request, you will need to complete a form. By submitting your work for re-marking, your marks are not guaranteed to increase, but the mark awarded after re-marking will override your original mark. Therefore, please be aware that in all incidences where coursework is re-marked, it is possible that your marks could go down, as well as up.

Appeals
Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. There are limited grounds available to appeal on and strict deadlines to adhere to. As such, we strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact the SU Advice Centre. More information about appeals, including the deadlines and forms to complete, can be found online at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/appeals

Extenuating Circumstances
Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform to less of a standard in your coursework or examinations than you might have expected, or in some instances, may prevent you from submitting coursework or attending an exam entirely. In general, valid extenuating circumstances will be of a medical or personal nature that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during assessment.

Your department will review your claim at an Extenuating Circumstances Committee and determine whether it will be accepted or rejected. The Board of Examiners will determine an appropriate course of action and the corresponding methods, to take into account your extenuating circumstances, if appropriate, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks. Please note that extra marks cannot be given in light of extenuating circumstances.

If you do need to make an extenuating circumstances claim, you should first read the guidance very carefully and seek advice from SU Advice (www.essex.su/advice) or the Student Services Hub (www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/default.aspx). Please be prepared that you may need to include supporting evidence with your claim. Extenuating circumstance claims must be submitted via MyEssex by the appropriate deadline noted.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/myessex/ExtenuatingCircumstancesHome.aspx

Further information and the full Extenuating Circumstances Policy can be found on the website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ.aspx

Feedback

Your coursework marks will be returned electronically and you will receive an e-mail when it is ready to view. For certain assessments, your coursework may be marked in hard copy, but you will receive your mark electronically. You should also collect your hard copy so that you can see your feedback.

This is important because (a) you can get timely feedback that may help improve other assignments, (b) you can get a gauge as early as possible as to the quality of work that you are submitting, (c) you can gain additional feedback from the marker, if necessary.

The Department hopes to turnaround feedback and marks in 20 working days.

The Board of Examiners

The Board of Examiners meet at the end of the Summer Term and use the Rules of Assessment to determine whether:

- you have passed the modules you have studied and can be awarded credit
- you have met the requirements to progress to the next year of your course
- you have met the requirements to pass your course and what classification you will receive for each module
- how your module marks are used to calculate your degree classification
- you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

If it determined that you have not passed sufficient credits to progress to the next stage of study, or, for final year students, to graduate, the Board of Examiners will also determine:

- what reassessment you could be offered and when you can take it
- whether you must withdraw from your course, with or without an exit award

Examination results

You will receive an email to your Essex email account as soon as your results are published. You can find the publication schedule at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/schedule.aspx

Access to exam scripts

If you want to see your exam script, you should normally make the request within four weeks after the exam to the department which is responsible for that module. The department should either: let you see the script in the presence of one of the staff responsible for teaching the module or give you a copy or summary of the examiners’ comments on your performance. If you need to undertake an exam as part of reassessment on a module, your department will provide you with written feedback on any elements being reassessed.
Students must not attempt to engage the member of staff in discussions about whether the work has been marked correctly. The marks will have been approved by the external examiners and ratified by the examination board.

A student who wishes to view an examination script or project should contact their Undergraduate Administrator. You can find further information about Assessment Policies at: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies

Reassessment
You may only undertake reassessment if the Board of Examiners says that you may do so.

If you have to take compulsory reassessment, whether coursework or examination, it is really important that you do this. If you do not, it is likely that you will be unable to progress with your studies at the University. The Board of Examiners will not consider permitting you to proceed carrying fails if you have not undertaken the required reassessment offered.

Reassessed modules are normally capped at the pass mark of 40% unless you have extenuating circumstances which are accepted by the Exam Board. Please be aware that reassessment in examinations and coursework carries a fee.

When a module is failed (having a module aggregate below 40%), each failed component of the module must be reassessed.

Resit exams
Resit exams are scheduled in early September or ‘out of residence’ in the summer of the following year. A considerable amount of useful revision material is available on Moodle. Students can contact staff, particularly Module Supervisors for the modules they are resitting if they need help with revision or specific queries (do not leave this until the last minute as staff availability will be reduced throughout the summer). Staff can give individual feedback on summer exam performance, if requested.

You can find further information relating to resitting exams at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/resits.aspx

Feedback
If you need to undertake any reassessment on a module, your department will provide you with written feedback on any elements being reassessed via email as soon as possible after you receive your outcome.

Exit Awards
If you decide to withdraw from your course before you finish, or you fail too many credits to be awarded a Bachelor’s degree, you may be awarded a qualification at a lower level, if appropriate.
Computers, Learning Technologies and your Information

Computers

Using a campus computer

If you need to use a computer on campus our computer labs are the perfect place to study or work. We also have group study pods which are ideal for group projects. You can find a full list of computers available to use on our website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/labs/usage/. Many labs stay open until late and some are open 24/7. Labs may be booked for teaching, and so it is best to check availability first.

As part of your IT account at Essex, all students have full access to:

- Office 365
  Office 365 is an online version of the Microsoft Office suite of programmes. You can access these by logging into your account from anywhere, which means you can use Microsoft programmes from at home too.

- 1TB of OneDrive cloud storage space
  OneDrive lets you create, edit, and share documents online so you can access them from anywhere in the world and from any device.

- 1 GB of local storage
  This is known as your M: drive. You can only access this when logged onto a lab computer on campus. Go to ‘This PC’ and select the M: drive network. If you want to access documents saved here from your personal laptop, you will need to either save them in your OneDrive or transfer the documents in another secure method, such as via USB.

Student Voice

At the University of Essex, the views, ideas and feedback of our students are at the heart of what the University does. The time students take to offer feedback is hugely appreciated. This feedback, both positive and developmental, is used to help make short and longer term improvements, both to the experience of current students, but also for Essex students of the future. You can do this in a number of ways.

Student Representatives

You can contact (or volunteer to be) a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Voice Groups (SVG) and other University level committees. https://www.essexstudent.com/representation/ http://www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/student_rep.asp

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey will be summarised and discussed by SSLCs and will inform reports written by us for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

Student Voice Groups

Student Voice Groups (SVGs), formerly known as Student Staff Liaison Committees (SSLCs), are made up of elected student representatives and members of staff. SVGs typically meet once per term and provide an accessible arena for students to discuss with staff issues connected to teaching, learning and student support. They also provide an opportunity for the academic department/school/centre to consult with students and receive feedback on new proposals. https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/SVGs.asp

Student Surveys

Student satisfaction surveys enable the University to gauge overall satisfaction amongst students. When the results have been reviewed and analysed, the University can then enhance your experience of learning at Essex.

National Student Survey

The National Student Survey (NSS) is an independent survey commissioned by the Office for Students aimed mainly at final-year undergraduate students. The survey provides students the opportunity to provide feedback on their University course and experience. The feedback you provide will be used to help shape the future for your fellow students, and published on the Unistats website to help prospective students make informed decisions about where and what they want to study. https://www.thestudentsurvey.com

Student Assessment of Module and Teaching

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey allows you to feedback on each of the modules you have studied. Receiving feedback at this level is critical for the University to understand what works well, and what could be improved, from the perspective of students. All feedback from SAMT will be summarised and discussed by SVGs and will inform reports written for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

There are also many other satisfaction surveys taking place, to ensure students are happy with the services the University of Essex provides. From time to time you will be invited to participate via an email. If you have some feedback but don't know who to tell, email: studentexperience@essex.ac.uk https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/feedback/student-voice

Departmental Seminars
Research Seminars provide a vibrant and intellectually rich research-intensive ground for both academics and students. Leading researchers with an international reputation are invited to the Department to present cutting-edge, state-of-the-art research in their field of expertise. Titles and dates will be announced near the beginning of each term. Brief outline of each talk will be posted online closer to the event and circulated via email the week before. For the academic year 2019-2020, these will take place on Tuesdays at 4:00pm in STEM 3.1.
As part of a continuous research-led educational programme in our Department all undergraduates and postgraduates are very welcome and particularly encouraged to attend our Research Seminar events. Examples of past speakers include Prof Matt Lambon Ralph on the neural basis of conceptual knowledge, Prof Gina Conti-Ramsden on language development and disorders, Prof Philippe Schyns on visual information processing, Prof Wolfgang Klimesch on the functional role of human brain oscillatory activity, Dr Greg Maio on social values and Prof Charles Vincent on safety in the NHS.

In addition, the seminars will be presented by members of the Department including postgraduate research students. This might be a good opportunity for you to discover your own research interests, familiarize with ongoing research in the department, and may be helpful when deciding how to rank your PS300 project supervisor preferences or chose the area of your MSc dissertation. Following the seminar, a drinks and nibbles session with the speaker is generally held at 5pm in the CBS reception area providing a friendly environment to discuss scientific matters with our guests. You are very welcome to attend.

Participation in research

In the first year, undergraduate students will be required to undertake some research training (details provided in lectures). For this training, you may either choose to write an essay on an aspect of Research Methods or you may choose to participate in 8 hours of departmental research.

Year-II and Year-III students are not required to participate in ongoing research in the department. However, it is expected that you will help your fellow students doing Year-III (PS300) projects by participating for at least a few hours each term. One potential benefit for you is that it may give you the opportunity to ask final-year students how their projects are going and perhaps gain valuable tips and advice. Through the web-based sign-up system (SONA) you will also find paid opportunities to participate in research ongoing in the department. In general, willingness to participate in research will help students gain insight into problems of method and technique and to gain valuable understanding of what can be expected from the participants you will use in your own research work.

Research Experience Scheme

The RES is aimed at undergraduate students (open to year 1 and 2 students) who have an interest in gaining research experience. The scheme allows students to work together with staff members on ongoing research projects and in doing so develop practical skills in conducting empirical work in Psychology and consequently expanding their repertoire of employability and personal development skills. Student and staff member participation is entirely voluntary. To find out more visit: https://www.essex.ac.uk/departments/psychology/research-experience-scheme

Undergraduate Research Opportunities Programme (UROP)

UROP or the Undergraduate Research Opportunities Programme is our scheme for undergraduate students from the University of Essex to become trainee researchers and to become part of the academic community here at Essex.

UROP students in all departments will have the opportunity to carry out research in placements alongside established academics and to learn first-hand what being a researcher really means. To find out more visit: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/urop
You Are Essex

Year and Degree Marks
As your studies draw to a close, and once your exam board has met, it takes up to five working days for your results to be confirmed. You will be sent an email to inform you when the results are live on a password protected web page. You will be able to see your marks obtained and any decisions that you must make in order to progress to the next stage of study.

When in your final year of study, graduating students will receive a degree certificate at Graduation and graduating undergraduate students also be able to access their electronic HEAR; which gives details of all marks obtained during their studies.

Further information can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/graduation/award-documents/default.aspx

HEAR
When you study at Essex, you graduate with far more than just a degree. Along with showcasing your academic achievements, the Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR) records any activities you have undertaken and logged through the Big Essex Award, and any other awards and prizes that you may have received.

When you graduate, you will have full electronic access to your HEAR for free for life. You will be able to share this with employers and other universities by providing them with a University-certified record of your achievements. To start making the most of your HEAR, visit our website to activate your account:

Graduation
The culmination of all your hard work, Graduation ceremonies take place at our Colchester Campus each July in the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall. All eligible students studying at our Colchester, Loughton and Southend Campuses will be invited to attend. For more information visit our graduation pages: www.essex.ac.uk/students/graduation/default.aspx

Requesting References

Requesting references from members of staff
If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject.

For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, and core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first-year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for reference for a student who has undertaken study within our Department. Requests received from students who have graduated from the University within the last three years will be prioritised. Requests received outside of this period may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information and is willing to provide a reference.

It is always helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – it is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references
A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our department for no longer than three years for taught students.

Academic career advice (for students)

Are you thinking of pursuing a career in academia, or would you like more information about this kind of career?). Speak to your year tutor or project supervisor. They will be more than happy to answer your questions and give you advice.

Do you find yourself excited to learn about psychology research? Do you enjoy reading research articles and find yourself eager to know about the results of a study? Do you enjoy statistics (even if you are sometimes intimidated or find it difficult)? In general, are you passionate about finding out first-hand the factors that shape human behaviour and cognition? If so, you may want to consider an academic career!

A career in academia allows you to teach and do research in the area of psychology that you love alongside other colleagues who are just as passionate as you. An environment that is stimulating, challenging and exciting coupled with following one’s passions can lead to a long and rewarding career. To get started, check out the following road map (and keep in mind there are many, many sub-goals for each step, so don’t get overwhelmed!):

Step 1: Is an academic career right for me?

A first step is to gain as much experience as you can with psychology research. Students are encouraged to attend as many research seminars and read as many primary research articles as you can to get a feel of your favourite areas. Can you see yourself doing this kind of research as well? You should also gain experience by becoming active in doing research. The department’s Research Experience Scheme (RES), Undergraduate Research Opportunities Programme (UROP) and Frontrunners all allow students to gain knowledge and experience of doing research while being guided by a supervisor on a variety of different topics in psychology. These experiences will help you determine if you feel really committed to an academic career as well as make your application for graduate study even more competitive.

Step 2: Graduate study

You will need to do graduate study for an academic career. You may choose to do a Masters before a PhD or go straight to a PhD program. There are different methods to accomplish this:

- Apply for PhD positions that are advertised online on academic job websites, such as http://www.jobs.ac.uk/phd
- Independently identify a supervisor who is enthusiastic to support your PhD studies and develop a project together

Whereas funding often accompanies the former method, applications for funding are often required for the second method via Research Council competitions.

Step 3: After Graduate study

Post-doctoral positions are often required for continuing on in academia. Similar to the PhD, the two main methods of securing a position are to:

- Apply for a post-doc position advertised online on academic job websites
- Independently apply for fellowship funding after having identified a supervisor who is happy to have you join his/her team

If you would like to acquire a first experience of research, or to develop your research skills further, there are many research schemes (paid and unpaid) for which you might like to apply.
