Welcome

For over 50 years, we have produced actors, directors, theatre practitioners and technicians for the international stage, TV, film and radio

Based in Loughton on the edge of east London and founded by Margaret Bury, East 15 grew from the work of Joan Littlewood’s famed Theatre Workshop, which broke new ground, re-interpreting the classics for a modern age, commissioning new plays from socially committed writers, and creating an ensemble capable of inventing new work.

It evolved into an outstanding ensemble that combined inspired, improvisational brilliance with method, technique, research, text analysis and the intense expression of truthful emotion. Much of the original approach was based on the theories of Stanislavski and over the years new training methods at East 15 have now embraced approaches from diverse practitioners such Michael Chekhov, Rudolf Laban, Jerzy Grotowski, Jacques Lecoq, Peter Brook and other important contemporary trainers.

In 2000, East 15 merged with the University of Essex, a leading UK research-intensive university, opening an exciting new chapter in the history of both institutions and offering more opportunities to students.

Since 2007, under the directorship of Leon Rubin, more than £16 million have been spent on new buildings and facilities at our Loughton and Southend Campuses, including the Clifftown Theatre and Studios, once a Victorian gothic church in Southend which now enjoys a new lease of life, converted into studios, workshops and a state-of-the-art theatre and performance space. Several new programmes have also been developed to take the school into a new era of international and culturally diverse stage and screen performance territories.

East 15 is one of a leading group of UK conservatoires and is a member of the Federation of Drama Schools. We are now one of the largest specialist theatre schools in the UK, with a distinguished international teaching staff and over 850 students.

Introduction

This Handbook is designed to provide you with an overview of all the essential information about the University and East 15 Acting School. Your Student Handbooks provides details of your department, including staff and contact details, facilities and ways to communicate and receive updates, as well as information relating to your course of study, including Rules of Assessment and the related policies, student feedback and meetings, and University regulations regarding progress, appeals and extenuating circumstances.

At our three uniquely intimate campuses we celebrate diversity and challenge inequality. Whatever your background, race or sexual orientation, you are part of a vibrant community that lives, learns and plays together.

Essex is about more than just getting a degree: we have so much to offer our students! This Student Handbook contains information on your Essex Experience, including the Students’ Union, sports clubs and societies, Essex Sport, Careers Services, campus information, IT support and services and our extensive range of student support and services.

The Student Directory contains a wealth of other helpful sources of information which can be found at https://www.essex.ac.uk/student.
Practicalities and Getting Started

You’ve made it to Essex! We’ve outlined below the most important things you need to make sure you do as soon as possible to get your time at Essex started.

Complete your Registration

Whilst you have accepted your offer and made your way to Essex, you still need to officially register yourself. At the start of each academic year, all new and returning students are required to register at the University. Registration is not only a formal procedure of enrolling you into the University, but it also connects you up to a number of vital systems you will need access to, including your IT account. As part of this process, you will need to complete online pre-arrival, physically attend a registration event on campus, and also activate your IT account.

To begin your registration, use one of the links below:

New students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/registration

Returning students: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/registration/returner-registration

enROL

You may have to select options to select as part of your course structure. If you do, you must choose the options that you wish to enrol on before the academic year begins. New students will access the system from the end of August. Returning students will access the system from the April preceding the next academic year. Departments will approve your selections within a few weeks of them being made, and timetables will take module enrolment into account when planning for the next academic year. Early module enrolment will ensure that you know which modules to attend and where the lectures and classes are ready for the start of term. You can view and choose your specific options through the enROL system.

enROL: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/enrol/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2Fenrol%2F

MA/MFA Theatre Directing students should consult with Matthew Lloyd about module selection before using enROL.

Explore your Campus

There is a broad range of facilities across each of our campuses to support your living and learning experience at Essex. The Students’ Union also runs facilities, bars and activities. Full details on all on-campus facilities feature on our student webpages and in the campus guide you received with your welcome information when you joined us as a student member.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/life/student-facilities

Get connected

Your IT account

You will need to set up your IT account and create a password through the University website www.essex.ac.uk/it/getaccount. You will need to register an external email address and passphrase to set up your account. Once you’re set up, you can access your email, log on to lab computers, connect to campus wi-fi, and much more.

You must change your password within four weeks of your account being created, and then once every four months after that. You should receive email notifications to change your password shortly before it is due to expire. The easiest way to change your password is online at: www.essex.ac.uk/password. If you have forgotten your password, you can also reset it through this link using your external email address and passphrase. If you have forgotten those also, you should visit the IT Helpdesk. Make sure you keep your password safe and do not share it with others!
Campus Wi-fi
Wi-fi is available across all campuses. Simply find the ‘eurodam’ network on your device and use the same log in details as your IT account to connect up!

MyEssex
MyEssex is your online account. You can use it to keep your personal details up-to-date, request replacement registration cards or supporting documents, such as council tax exemption certificates, see how you’re doing on your course or contact the Student Services Hub.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/myessex/

Your personal belongings
University insurance cover is very limited for the belongings of students using graduate study rooms. Therefore, you are strongly advised to take out personal insurance cover for your possessions. This is especially important for items of particular value, such as personal electronic devices (i.e., laptops, phones and tablets). The University does not cover costs for personal damage or loss of your possessions; only in instances where the University has been negligent would a claim be viable for compensation for personal belongings.

Right to Study
The University must ensure all students have the right to study at the University of Essex for the whole duration of their course(s). If you require immigration permission to study in the UK, this will be checked when you first register on your course and as necessary thereafter.

For Tier 4 sponsored students, you will have conditions attached to your leave restricting study and work; some nationals are required to register with the Police. You are expected to have the finances in place to pay your tuition fees and living costs throughout your course and do not have access to state housing or benefits.

The Tier 4 rules and guidance include restrictions relating to the length of time you can spend studying in the UK and academic progress; this may mean you are unable to take an academic option offered to you or that we can’t continue to sponsor you under Tier 4. The University has many duties as a Tier 4 sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our Tier 4 licence. Find out more on the University’s website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/immigration/ and https://www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/regulations
The Essex Experience

The University and the Students' Union have developed our Student Charter as a part of our ongoing commitment to create an outstanding environment that offers the highest standards of teaching, research and support in an international and multi-cultural community.

The Student Charter reiterates that you are a member of the University of Essex community, not just while you are a student or recent graduate here, but for life.

You can read the full Student Charter at:

www.essex.ac.uk/students/experience/charter

You are welcomed to a truly diverse community where differences are celebrated and individuality is valued. Your contribution is welcomed and encouraged based on your own thoughts and experiences. As part of our community you will have the freedom to explore, experiment, and challenge your discipline and have your ideas shaped by peer and professional knowledge from all over the world.

Your time at Essex will be an experience beyond the classroom; there is so much available to all students so you can make the most of your time at Essex and have a truly unforgettable Essex Experience.

Equality, Inclusion and Diversity

The University recognises the value of diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity within the University. It therefore aims to create the conditions whereby students and staff are treated with dignity and respect, and solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential, regardless of race, ethnic or national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, socio-economic background, family circumstances, religious or political beliefs and affiliations, or any other irrelevant distinction.

The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy is fully effective. You can find out more information on the University’s policy, and get in touch with any comments or questions, here:

https://www.essex.ac.uk/information/equality-and-diversity/equality-and-diversity-policy-and-strategy

Embrace the Essex Values

We are different at Essex. We are brave, we are bold, and we embrace challenges and drive change. Our values are underpinned by this very culture. While we full heartedly encourage students to challenge the status quo and explore the unknown, we expect that students do so respectfully, intelligently and act as true ambassadors for the University.

The University’s Code of Student Conduct can be found on the website:

www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

International Students

We are proud to be a global community and we recognise that living and studying in the UK may be very different from your own country. Essex has a wide range of support covering academic and health and wellbeing issues. Our friendly and professional staff will be able to guide, give advice and assist you during your time at Essex.

You can find helpful information here –

https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/international-students http://www.essex.ac.uk/student/student-communities/international

Mature students

We appreciate that studying as a mature student can present challenges. This is particularly true if this is your first experience of higher education and you have other commitments and responsibilities to meet, such as work and family. We want you to be aware of the support available so that you can make the most of your time at Essex.

You can find more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/groups/mature-students.aspx

Student Ambassadors

Be a Student Ambassador, make a difference to others and also make a difference on your CV! Student Ambassadors help to promote the University and higher education. You'll be a valued part of the Student Recruitment and Outreach teams. Keep an eye out for Student Ambassador vacancies on CareerHub+ in January.

www.essex.ac.uk/careers/job_hunting/on-campus
Students’ Union

We’re famous for our Students’ Union at Essex, and for good reason. Here you’re not just a member of a normal Students’ Union; you’re part of a family. We’re here to cheer you on as you walk into exams and to help you absolutely destroy the competition in interviews and land your dream job. The Students’ Union is run by students for students, and you have the ability to shape what we do. From suggesting what we serve in our venues, to changing aspects of your course, we are here to represent you and work with you to make amazing things happen. There are opportunities to join 45 different Sports Clubs, to get involved with our BUCS teams which offer a wide individual championships programme of activities taking place across the year and lots of competitions take place on Wednesdays and weekends, or if you don’t want to commit to a regular team check out our Just Play programme of activities.

About East 15 Acting School

Meet the team
Our training is by professionals and for professionals, allowing our graduates to work successfully across the globe. Our international, outstanding teaching faculty is made up of professionals from all areas of live and recorded performance.

A full list of all academic and professional services staff for East 15 can be found on our website at: www.east15.ac.uk/staff

Your Personal Tutor
All undergraduate students have a Personal Tutor who will meet you soon after you arrive, and regularly throughout your course. Your Personal Tutor will be a member of the academic staff from within the School and is there to help you feel connected to your department.

Your Personal Tutor is someone who you can talk to if you have questions about your course or encounter any difficulties that may affect your studies, and can recommend and direct you to other support services on campus that might be able to further help and support you. You can find out who your Personal Tutor is through Moodle, and the contact details of all staff can be found on our website.

Departmental resources and facilities
A wide range of facilities and resources are available for all students to access and use as part of their study at Essex. Each department and school also has a selection for the exclusive use of their students. Below is a summary of the facilities and resources that are likely to be most useful to you.

Printing, photocopying and scanning
All students can print, copy and scan for free at Essex! There are over 100+ multi-function devices that can be used at various locations across our three Campuses, including in the following areas:

- All IT labs
- Silberrad Student Centre
- Albert Sloman Library
- Orangery
- Limehouse
- Roding House and Unit 4 (Loughton)
- Gateway Building (Southend)
- The Forum (Southend)

Simply log in to the devices using your Essex login and password, or tap with your student card. These devices can also scan to email and feature mobile printing. Whilst printing is free for all students, please think of your carbon footprint and only print if necessary.

Premium services (chargeable) for printing and finishing, including binding your documents for presentational purposes are available at The Copy Centre (Square 4).

Please note that there are strict laws about infringement of copyright; more information can be found on the library website which explains what and how much you are permitted to copy. Usage is monitored and subject to a fair use policy.

https://library.essex.ac.uk/copyright
Noticeboards
At Loughton Campus, noticeboards are located opposite the main reception in Hatfields House and the Café at Roding House. In Southend, there are student noticeboards on the 5th floor adjacent to the lift lobby. Both campuses utilise electronic screens as a means of ensuring students access current information.

Communication
It is important to keep up to date with information relating to the School and your course. This section also summarises how the School will communicate updates with you and provides some guidance on communicating with University staff.

By email
The School will predominantly use e-mail for routine communication between staff and students. Your Essex e-mail address will have been added to the relevant e-mail groups specific to your department or school, course and modules to ensure that you receive the essential information, updates and general communication related to your study and issues that may affect you. It is therefore vital that you check your Essex email regularly. It is recommended that you check your Essex email each day to ensure you do not miss any important updates to classes and assessment.

If you are elected to a Student Representative position, work as a Student Ambassador, or volunteer in another form or means, it is even more important to regularly check your Essex email as should other students and staff need to get in touch, they will do so via your Essex email.

You will also automatically be subscribed to a small number of opt-out lists, again, based on your course. These will be used to send useful information and, while some of this may be about events, marketing or other opportunities, we try to avoid sending too much. To opt in or out of such lists, please visit:
https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/services/forms/default.aspx

How you should communicate
While email can be a quick and easy means of communicating, you should still consider how you structure and write each email to ensure it is appropriate when contacting members of staff at the University. How you communicate is a reflection on your professional and academic self, and so we have provided some useful tips to consider when constructing an email for different purposes. These are also useful when contacting professionals and academics outside of the University and are widely recognised as a matter of courtesy in the United Kingdom.

The level of formality
- Be polite and courteous when emailing members of staff, but please avoid being too familiar – your teachers are your teachers.
- By all means use our first name – we have numerous Doctors and Professors, but we don’t expect you to use those titles.

Identify yourself
- In the first few weeks of term, academic staff will be busy getting to know all of their students. Therefore, it is important that you begin by introducing and identifying yourself to them as they will not know every student right away.
- You should always use your Essex email as your full name will appear to the member of staff you are emailing, but still remember to sign off your email with your name, including your preferred name if this is different to your official legal name on your record and account.
Consider your question

- You should always check that who you are contacting is the most appropriate person to answer your query. The useful department contact list provided on our website should help you determine who will be able to help you with a range of different queries.

- Before emailing the member of staff, you should make sure that you have checked the resources provided, including the website, Departmental Moodle pages, your Course Handbook and this Student Handbook in case the answer to your question can be found in one of these.

If your question is particularly long or complex, it may be quicker and more useful to see someone in person. Your department office is open daily and you can also drop into the Student Services Hub at Hatfields House (Loughton) and The Forum (Southend). You can also speak to your tutors and Head of Course directly, but as our staff teach throughout the week, we recommend that you book a convenient time.

Our website

East 15 Acting School has its own website on which you can access a range of information about your course and your time as a student.

https://www.east15.ac.uk/students

MyEssex

Your MyEssex student portal will alert you to updates about modules and other aspects of your course and studies. It is important that you check your MyEssex regularly, as well as email, to ensure you have the most up to date information.

By telephone

You will only be contacted via phone in emergencies, or when it is otherwise necessary to receive an immediate response, but you should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.

By text message

In instances where a last minute change has been made, and the department or school need to communicate this with short notice, you may receive a text message to communicate the change, such as a lecture or class cancellation. You should ensure that you provide the University with a contact number with your personal details.

By letter

Letters may be attached to your Essex email or posted to your term-time address, so please make sure the University has got your current contact details. Your address and contact details can be updated via the MyEssex portal.
Learning and Teaching

The University is committed to providing equal opportunities for all our students regardless of where or how you study. Our diverse student population is taken into account when developing the resources, services, and facilities on and off campus, when we create our courses, write publications and course materials, and set our policies and regulations.

The academic year
Your term dates are published annually on the East 15 website. If there are ever any changes to these dates during the year, we will inform you via email as soon as possible.

https://www.east15.ac.uk/students

Module enrolment
If you are an MA/MFA Theatre Directing student, you may have had to select some optional modules as part of your course structure. If this is the case, you should have done this prior to the start of term. More information on how to do this can be found in the ‘Getting Started’ section of this handbook. Please discuss module options with Matthew Lloyd before making selections.

Teaching timetable
The teaching timetable at East 15 is very intensive. You should expect to be working more or less from 9.00 am to 6.10 pm (includes some scheduled independent study periods). Classes are usually scheduled in 1½-2 hour timetable slots with half-hour mid-morning breaks and 20 minute mid-afternoon breaks and an hour for lunch.

Class timetables and room allocations are posted on the digital noticeboards and course noticeboards on the ground floor of Hatfields House (Loughton) and on the 3rd & 5th floors of the Gateway Building (Southend). Timetables are also sent to students via Moodle. Please make sure you know where you are supposed to be and when - failure to read the timetable is not an acceptable reason for lateness.

During ‘Priority Weeks’ (during periods of intensive rehearsal or preparation for practical performance projects) the normal teaching timetable may be partially suspended. Please make sure you know what you are called for and where you are supposed to be – check your year noticeboard regularly during Priority Weeks.

Course structure
In depth information about your course can be found in your Course Handbook. All Course Handbooks are available via Moodle.

Learning Outcomes
Each course has learning outcomes, as outlined in the Course Handbook for your programme. Course learning outcomes are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are also defined more specifically at a modular level highlighting the particular aims, learning outcomes and methods of assessment for each module. Having this information means that you can measure your progress against the outcomes, for example when reviewing coursework feedback, and they can be used to guide you when undertaking independent study.

Credits
For an MA you will take 180 credits worth of modules in total during your course at Essex. For an MFA course, you will take 300 credits across two years of study.
Module information
Most modules taught reflect the individual research or professional interests of members of our academic staff.

Changing Modules
Many undergraduate programmes at the University of Essex allow you to choose alternative modules. This is not the case at East 15. All of the modules on your course are mandatory and you are not able to change modules. If there is ever an exception to this rule, your Head of Course will make you aware.

Heads of Course and Skills
Heads of Course and Skills are responsible for the individual modules which make up courses. They design the modules, teach them and assess them. They monitor student progress and talk to students about any academic issues related to their particular module.

Module Materials
Links to your Reading Lists for each module can be found on Moodle.

Library Services
At Loughton our Library and IT Centre is a modern, stylish, spacious study area accessible over long hours, providing resources tailored to your needs, including the latest plays. You can also request books from the Albert Sloman Library at our Colchester campus. IT facilities are available, and you also have access to a vast array of online resources via the Library website.

The library has a team of Subject Librarians who can help you to find appropriate resources for your assignments and show you how to search effectively. They can also provide advice on referencing and academic integrity, using reference management software, and evaluating sources. Find out who your subject Librarian is and get help with your subject area at library.essex.ac.uk/studyres

Skills for Success
We are committed to ensuring that every student is able to get the most out of their academic study and achieve their potential on their course. Whether you need support with researching, assignment writing, non-specialist digital skills, or English language for academic purposes, support is available to help you succeed during your time at East 15. Reach your potential and enhance your chances of success with classes, workshops, drop-in clinics and on-line resources. Find out more at: https://www.essex.ac.uk/welcome/international-students

The use of proofreading services
Many students seek ‘proofreading’ services at some point during their studies, but different editing practices at times go on in this name that may not be appropriate in an academic context, and could potentially qualify as an academic offence. In a context where work is to be assessed, the University is keen to ensure as far as possible that students understand what proofreading work should entail and the acceptable boundaries to which any proofreading or editing must adhere to.

The University maintain a list of local freelance proofreaders who offer services to students and staff at Essex that have read and agreed to abide by the University’s policy and guidance on proofreading. The University’s full policy and guidance can be found along with the list of local freelance proofreaders on the website: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/academicskills/proofreading

Before considering the use of proofreading services, all students should first discuss their work with their personal tutors.
Learning a Language
Learn a language at Essex to increase your global and cultural awareness. Language learning can give you the confidence to work and travel internationally, expand your options for studying abroad, and get a competitive edge when you’re looking for a job. There are a number of ways to do it, so look online to discover the best option for you.
www.essex.ac.uk/study/why/languages

Absence Monitoring
Full attendance and excellent punctuality is the expectation of both the industry and the School. East 15 Acting School deems that ‘satisfactory’ attendance means attending all scheduled classes and prescribed activities.

Non-attendance makes attainment of the following types of assessment criteria impossible:
  a) Ability to work as part of a team
  b) Contribution to group work or performance
  c) Positive contribution to discussions

Where absence from classes and activities makes it impossible to meet the learning outcomes of the module, a fail grade is applied.

You need to ensure that you are fully aware of both the Professional Code of Conduct and the School’s Absence Procedures which are available on Moodle.

Lost or faulty cards
All students are required to carry their Student ID Card (which is issued at registration). If you lose your card or it is faulty, go to the Student Services Hub to get a new card (a fee may be applicable).

Making changes to your study

Changing your course
If you are thinking about changing course, we recommend that you speak to someone in your school/department as soon as possible. They will be able to advise you if there are any specific requirements for the course you are looking to change to. If the course you are looking to change to is within a different school/department, then you should also speak to someone in that department. If you are thinking of undertaking a placement year or year abroad, you should check the requirements for these programmes and contact the Industry and Placements Team or Essex Abroad Team.

There are deadlines in place for when you need to change course by, so please make sure you are aware of these deadlines before requesting to change. Further details on changing course and the relevant deadlines can be found at www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/changing-course.aspx or by visiting your Student Services Hub.

You should investigate your potential new course by looking at course information on the department’s web pages, talking to students on the course and speaking to tutors. You should also look at our Rules of Assessment for the new course to check whether there are any course-specific requirements.

If you want to change your mode of study from full-time to part-time, you should discuss this with our departmental staff. If this is possible, you will need to make a formal request, to be approved by your Department and Dean, using the online Change of Mode of Study form which you can find online:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/changing-course.aspx
Maximum period of study

Postgraduate students have a maximum period in which to complete their studies. This is set from the date you are first admitted to a taught postgraduate programme. It is based on the normal length of the course, plus one or more additional years. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, periods of intermission will count towards the original maximum period.

Further details on the maximum period for your course can be found in the Credit Framework for Taught Postgraduate courses.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/pgt/assess-rules.aspx

Thinking of leaving or taking a break from your studies?

You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you’re thinking about leaving Essex, we’re here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice.

Intermission is a temporary withdrawal or leave of absence from the University and provides you with the opportunity to take a break from your studies. Normally, this is for reasons beyond your control (e.g. health or personal problems) although other reasons are permitted. Intermission must be approved by the University first, so if you are thinking about intermitting, we strongly advise you to contact your department and your Student Services Hub to talk to one of our advisers.

You should also read our guidance on intermitting very carefully at www.essex.ac.uk/see/intermit. If your intermission is agreed to, we will also give you the advice and support you need to help you carry on with your studies.

Withdrawing is the formal process for permanently leaving your programme of study and the University. If you are thinking of withdrawing, you should seek advice from your Department or the Student Services Hub at the earliest opportunity. It is very important that you discuss your circumstances with the University and follow the formal procedure for withdrawing. If the university is not formally notified, then you may risk continuing to incur further tuition or accommodation fees. More advice and information is available at www.essex.ac.uk/see/withdraw.

The use of personal devices in teaching

You can use laptops and tablet PCs during teaching classes for purposes related to the class you are attending. You should refrain from using your mobile phone during all teaching events, except in cases where a lecturer uses a programme which requires these devices to be switched on for participation.

You should not photograph or video record any aspects of rehearsal or performance work without the express permission of those involved and the person leading the activity (tutor, directors etc). You should also be mindful that recording and publishing performance work may constitute copyright infringement.
Assessment and Good Practice

All schools and departments at the University should employ a variety of assessment methods designed to ensure that the learning outcomes of each module, and course, have been successfully met by the student.

The Regulations relating to Academic Affairs which govern assessment at the University can be found online:

www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

Rules of Assessment

The Rules of Assessment are used to calculate your results. There is a main set of rules for 3 year and 4 year courses, but some departments also have additional variations which can be found in the Variation to the Rules of Assessment.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/pgt/assess-rules.aspx At East 15 Acting School we have a variation to the Rules of Assessment which can be found on the same webpage.

Each module you will take will have a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment and the Framework for taught postgraduate courses give you more information about this.

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

Core, compulsory and optional modules

To understand the requirements to pass your course, you need to know the status of the modules that you are taking. You can find details of the status of your modules in Section C of your programme specification via My Essex.

Ethics in research

We encourage you to be bold, push boundaries and innovate, but we also require that you think about how your work may impact upon you and other people you are working with, our staff and/or your audience.

Be aware of how others may interpret your actions and your work – sometimes it is appropriate to challenge audiences, perceptions and values through art, but sometimes it is also possible to cause unreasonable offense to others by doing so. Please think about how your work may affect people and consider your conduct and work with reference to the University’s Policy on Academic Freedom and Freedom of Speech, the East 15 Professional Code of Conduct and the Student Code of Conduct. In the wake of recent revelations in the theatre world concerning sexual harassment, the member schools of the Federation of Drama Schools have looked carefully at existing rehearsal and training processes to see how improvements can be rapidly made. For details please see FDS Ethical Code March 2018.

With the above in mind, if you have concerns that someone is behaving inappropriately towards you or someone else, it is important that you share your concerns. If you feel comfortable doing so, you can discuss matters with your Head of Course or Personal Tutor. Furthermore, you can also seek advice, guidance and support from the Student Services Hub and/or use the University’s online reporting service, Report and Support. This website also offers information about a range of issues including harassment, sexual violence, relationship abuse and hate crime.

We have a zero tolerance policy in relation to harassment and bullying. To access detailed information around our policy and procedure please visit: www.essex.ac.uk/information/emergencies-security-and-safety/zero-tolerance-of-harassment-and-bullying

Nudity and simulated sexual activity within performance work and rehearsal is sometimes appropriate and may form part of the work you are studying. If this is the case, please bear in mind that identifying boundaries for behaviour and seeking consent from those you work with is imperative. You should refer to the school’s Policy and Guidance for Nudity and Simulated Sex Acts, information about which can be found on the Student Information page on Moodle.

It is clearly very important that, through undertaking your work, you do not put yourself or others at risk of harm. This statement may seem to be more relevant to some courses or modules than others, but please be mindful of it nevertheless. Take advice from teaching staff, stage managers and technicians, and if you think something may pose a risk to you or others, think before acting.

Be mindful that you MUST NOT use potentially hazardous materials within your work without first seeking professional advice and authorisation.

All research involving human participants, whether undertaken by the staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You can find our Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants here - www.essex.ac.uk/reo/governance/human.aspx - along with the Ethical Approval application form.
‘Human participants’ are defined as including living human beings, human beings who have recently died (cadavers, human remains and body parts), embryos and foetuses, human tissue and bodily fluids, and personal data and records (such as, but not restricted to medical, genetic, financial, personnel, criminal or administrative records and test results including scholastic achievements.

Academic Integrity and Academic Offences

The University expects students to complete all assessment with honesty and integrity and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don’t meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your coursework. An academic offence can take place even if you didn’t mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating with another candidate in an examination.

If you aren’t sure what the conventions are, particularly in relation to referencing, you should ask your department and contact Skills for Success via the Student Services Hub.

More information about academic offences and getting support can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/academic-offences.aspx.

Methods of Assessment

Whether a module is core, compulsory or optional, all methods of assessment are compulsory. If you do not complete coursework or attend examinations, and do not have extenuating circumstances to support your non-submission or absence, then you are at risk of being withdrawn from the University.

Coursework

Referencing in coursework

Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK.

The University takes academic offences very seriously. You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully.

Referencing is a key academic/scientific skill. It is how you will acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all works used directly (quotes) and indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising).

Referencing allows you to give credit to authors/researchers' concepts and ideas/ideas and results, demonstrate your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject, direct readers to your sources, and avoid plagiarism.

You should always use the best available sources of evidence, such as peer reviewed journals and recognised books.

Your departmental referencing style is Harvard “Cite Them Right”. To find out about your departmental referencing style and for help with referencing, visit the library website: library.essex.ac.uk/referencing, or take the Academic Integrity Moodle course: https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/course/view.php?id=5844.
Submission of coursework

The online coursework submission system (FASER) can be accessed through myEssex or at this web address: http://faser.essex.ac.uk/ where you will find full instructions. The system allows you to upload a digital copy of your assignment to the web.

You are encouraged to log on to FASER at the start of the year so that you understand how it works before you reach your first deadline. There is a trial module and deadline for you to use as a practice submission. There is a helpful guidance on how to use FASER here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/e-learning/tools/faser/Student/HelpCentre#uploading

You can upload as many draft versions of your work as you like onto the server and are encouraged to use this as a safe and secure area to store your coursework. This can help to avoid the problem of your computer crashing at the last minute and your important files being lost. If you need to exclude any drafts from your final submission you will need to make any which you do NOT want to be included in the final submission a ‘draft’ otherwise just the most recently uploaded file will be taken as the final version. The maximum file upload size is 50MB.

Problems with FASER

If you have technical difficulties: Please contact the Learning Technology Team ltt@essex.ac.uk as soon as possible to find out if this is a University issue or whether it may be a problem with your computer. This will count towards your claim when submitting a late coursework form should you need to. You can also contact IT Services helpdesk on it.helpdesk@essex.ac.uk

If you are confused or unsure how to upload, or are having any non-technical difficulties you should contact your Undergraduate Administrator

Late submission of coursework

We have a single policy at the University of Essex for the late submission of coursework in undergraduate courses: all coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero. No extensions will be granted. A student submitting coursework late will have the University’s and Department's arrangements for late submission drawn to their attention. The policy states that the mark of zero shall stand unless you submit satisfactory evidence of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline.

Where a student is unable to undertake the assessment by the deadline, and it is deemed impossible to consider a late submission request due to the nature of the assessment (e.g. absence from in-class tests, practical assignments and presentations), an extenuating circumstances form should be submitted which will be considered by the Board of Examiners.

The University’s full Late Submission policy and further information can be found on the website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx

Moderation and marking

The University’s Marking Policy can be found online and includes our policy and procedure on the moderation of work.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marketing_policy/defualt.asp

Moderation

Moderation is a process separate from that of marking and provides assurance that the assessment criteria have been applied appropriately. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given. In instances where the moderator feels marks may not be entirely appropriate, the moderator would not change individual marks for the work, but would liaise with the first marker to agree whether marks should be reviewed across the particular piece of assessment or module. Should a review of marks be agreed, this may lead to marks being adjusted accordingly.

External Examiners
External Examiners are typically academics from other universities, but may also be from industry, business or the relevant profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education. External Examiners write reports on the courses and modules they are responsible for which are made available to you via your department. Unless the External Examiner has been specifically sent work to arbitrate on a dispute between internal markers, the External Examiner’s role will in assessment will be as a moderator. You can find the name and institution of the External Examiner for your course and modules by looking on the Programme Specifications Catalogue and the Module Directory.

You can find out more about how the University uses External Examiners here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/external_examiners/default.asp

Please note: you may not contact External Examiners directly under any circumstances. If you have any concerns about the quality and standards of your course, please contact your Student Representative, your Head of Department, or the Students’ Union.

Second marking
Second marking is where a second marker marks the work but has access to the first marker’s marks and/or comments. Where two members of staff are involved in marking a piece of work, the markers should make every effort to agree a mark, rather than merely averaging the two marks. Departments keep a full record of both individual and agreed marks for all work which is second marked.

Anonymous marking
Anonymous marking is when your work is marked anonymously, i.e. your name is not attached to the piece of work for marking.

Where it is practical to do so, all coursework which contributes to your final module mark should be marked anonymously. Where this is not possible, departments will inform you in advance of the assessment task.

All formal examinations at the University of Essex are marked anonymously. You will be provided with a candidate number on your exam entry form. This will be in large print in the centre of the page. This is the number you should write on your examination scripts. It is important that you do this so we can, once the paper has been marked, allocate the marks to your record correctly.

Re-marking of coursework
You may, under certain circumstances, have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework. Should you feel that your work needs to be reviewed and potentially re-marked, you should first contact your department to advise you accordingly and assess whether you meet the criteria to be able to submit a request for re-marking.

The re-marking of work is included within the University’s Marking Policy can be found here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marking_policy.

In order to make a request, you will need to complete a form. By submitting your work for re-marking, your marks are not guaranteed to increase, but the mark awarded after re-marking will override your original mark. Therefore, please be aware that in all incidences where coursework is re-marked, it is possible that your marks could go down, as well as up.
Appeals

Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. There are limited grounds available to appeal on and strict deadlines to adhere to. As such, we strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact the SU Advice Centre.

More information about appeals, including the deadlines and forms to complete, can be found online at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/appeals

Extemuating Circumstances

Extemuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform to less of a standard in your coursework or examinations than you might have expected, or in some instances, may prevent you from submitting coursework or attending an exam entirely. In general, valid extemuating circumstances will be of medical or personal natures that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during assessment.

Your department will review your claim at an Extenuating Circumstances Committee and determine whether it will be accepted or rejected. The Board of Examiners will determine an appropriate course of action and the corresponding methods, if appropriate, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks. Please note that extra marks cannot be given in light of extemuating circumstances.

If you do need to make an extemuating circumstances claim, you should first read the guidance very carefully and seek advice from SU Advice (www.essex.su/advice) or the Student Services Hub (www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/default.aspx).

Please be prepared that you may need to include supporting evidence with your claim. Extenuating circumstance claims must be submitted via MyEssex by the appropriate deadline noted.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/myessex/ExtenuatingCircumstancesHome.aspx

Further information and the full Extenuating Circumstances Policy can be found on the website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ.aspx

Feedback

You will be given regular feedback throughout the year. This will often take the form of informal verbal feedback in classes, but may also be delivered to you in written form. If you have any concerns about the feedback you receive, please speak to your Tutor or Head of Course/Skills.

The Board of Examiners

The Board of Examiners meet at the end of the Summer Term and use the Rules of Assessment to determine whether:

- you can be awarded credit for the modules you have studied
- you have met the requirements to progress to the next stage of your course (if you are on a course which lasts more than one year)
- you have met the requirements to pass your course
- you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

If it determined that you have not passed sufficient credits to progress to the next stage of study, or, for final year students, to graduate, the Board of Examiners will also determine:

- what reassessment you could be offered and when you can take it
Failure to pass
The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

If you fail your course you are not able to repeat it. The Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards only allow reassessment for up to a maximum of 60 credits worth of modules for taught masters degrees. The Board of Examiners will inform you if you are eligible for reassessment once it has considered your marks.

If you fail your dissertation you may be permitted by the Board of Examiners to resubmit your work, provided you meet the criteria as set out in the Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards. Alternatively, if you have obtained enough credits in your taught modules, you may be eligible for another award such as a postgraduate diploma or certificate.

Reassessment
You may only undertake reassessment if the Board of Examiners says that you may do so.

If you have to take compulsory reassessment, it is really important that you do this. If you do not, it is likely that you will be unable to progress with your studies at the University. The Board of Examiners will not consider permitting you to proceed carrying fails if you have not undertaken the required reassessment offered.

Reassessed modules are normally capped at the pass mark of 40% unless you have extenuating circumstances which are accepted by the Exam Board. Please be aware that reassessment in examinations and coursework carries a fee.

Exit Awards
If you decide to withdraw from your course before you finish, or you fail too many credits to be awarded a degree, you may be awarded a qualification at a lower level, if appropriate.
Computers, Learning Technologies and your Information

Computers
Using a campus computer

If you need to use a computer on campus our computer labs are the perfect place to study or work. We also have group study pods which are ideal for group projects. You can find a full list of computers available to use on our website: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/it/labs/usage/. Many labs stay open until late and some are open 24/7. Labs may be booked for teaching, and so it is best to check availability first.

As part of your IT account at Essex, all students have full access to:

- Office 365
  Office 365 is an online version of the Microsoft Office suite of programmes. You can access these by logging into your account from anywhere, which means you can use Microsoft programmes from at home too.

- 1TB of OneDrive cloud storage space
  OneDrive lets you create, edit, and share documents online so you can access them from anywhere in the world and from any device.

- 1 GB of local storage
  This is known as your M: drive. You can only access this when logged onto a lab computer on campus. Go to ‘This PC’ and select the M: drive network. If you want to access documents saved here from your personal laptop, you will need to either save them in your OneDrive or transfer the documents in another secure method, such as via USB.

Information on other software available to students and general IT matters is available here: www.essex.ac.uk/it/services/computers-and-software/default.aspx?tab=3

IT Help and Guidance
You can search the Student Directory for more IT information, including how-to guides, answers to frequently asked questions, and links to video screencasts.

https://www.essex.ac.uk/student

If you can’t find what you’re looking for, or if you need to talk to someone, then the IT Helpdesk team are here to assist you further. The contact details for your campus Helpdesk can be found online along with the opening times: https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/it-services/it-helpdesk

Learning Technologies and Systems

Moodle
We use Moodle as our online learning environment, to enhance face-to-face teaching. It lets you get to course materials, and has built-in features to enhance learning such as discussion forums, chat facilities, quizzes, surveys, glossaries and wikis.

Your information

Changes to your information

During your period of study at Essex, you wish to be known by a preferred name or update your legal name on our student record database (ESIS) if your circumstances change. It is important you keep your information up to date. Information about updating your name on your student record is available at: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/default.aspx

Keep your information up to date

During your period of study at Essex, your details may change, including your name. It is really important that your information on our student record database (ESIS) is accurate, so make absolutely sure that if your circumstances change that you let us know. Equally, you may wish to be known by a preferred name. You can add this to your record for staff to use, and find more information about updating your name on your student record at:

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/default.aspx

Your personal information

We collect and hold lots of information about you, your course, and your progress so that we know who you are, what you’re doing, and how you are getting on. This means we can support you and also improve our services to reflect the need of our students.

All information about you is kept securely, and access to your information is only given to staff who need it in order to do their job. Where possible, we will ask you for your permission to share.

You have a right to ask for copies of information we hold about you.

www.essex.ac.uk/records_management/request

To find out more about what information we collect, what we do with it, who gets to see it, and your rights under the data Protection Act 2018, read our Privacy Notice for students.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/records_management/policies/students.aspx
Student Voice

At the University of Essex, the views, ideas and feedback of our students are at the heart of what the University does. The time students take to offer feedback is hugely appreciated. This feedback, both positive and developmental, is used to help make short and longer term improvements, both to the experience of current students, but also for Essex students of the future. You can do this in a number of ways.

Student Representatives
You can contact (or volunteer to be) a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Voice Groups (SVG) and other University level committees.

https://www.essexstudent.com/representation/http://www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/student_rep.asp

Student Voice Groups
Student Voice Groups (SVGs), formerly known as Student Staff Liaison Committees (SSLCs), are made up of elected student representatives and members of staff. SVGs typically meet once per term and provide an accessible arena for students to discuss with staff issues connected to teaching, learning and student support. They also provide an opportunity for the academic department/school/centre to consult with students and receive feedback on new proposals.

https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/SVGs.asp

Student Surveys
Student satisfaction surveys enable the University to gauge overall satisfaction amongst students. When the results have been reviewed and analysed, the University can then enhance your experience of learning at Essex. The University participates in the Office for Students (OfS) PGT survey. You will be invited to participate via a link once it is open. It asks questions about your life at university and your experience studying at Essex.

Student Assessment of Module and Teaching
Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey allows you to feedback on each of the modules you have studied. Receiving feedback at this level is critical for the University to understand what works well, and what could be improved, from the perspective of students. All feedback from SAMT will be summarised and discussed by SVGs and will inform reports written for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

There are also many other satisfaction surveys taking place, to ensure students are happy with the services the University of Essex provides. From time to time you will be invited to participate via an email. If you have some feedback but don’t know who to tell, email studentexperience@essex.ac.uk
You Matter
We know university life can throw up all kinds of concerns and questions - if you need some information, advice or support to succeed, stay healthy and happy, we've got it covered.

Student Services Hub
If you need practical advice, a confidential conversation, or general information and guidance on University life, no matter what the issue is, the Student Services Hub is the place to go. Ask us about health and well-being, accommodation, careers services, money matters and much more. Your questions matter and you'll get answers from our team of experts.

Counselling services
Our University offers a range of services and resources to support students with a variety of counselling opportunities.

Validium
The University works in partnership with an organisation called Validium to offer short-term counselling to help you explore and work through problems and difficulties that are causing distress and interfering with your life at University.

You might be worried, depressed, confused or feeling bad about yourself. There might be a problem in your family, friendships or with your partner, or you might be experiencing difficulties with your work and exams. Counselling can provide a safe space for you to talk through and explore your feelings.
You can also contact the Validium 24-hour Student Wellbeing Support Line. You will be able to have an initial chat, in confidence, about the difficulties you’re experiencing and the support available to you. Call 0800 970 5020 or +44 141 271 7168.

Chat with Charlie
Chat with Charlie offers online mental health support every evening between 6pm – 10pm. You can get support with exam stress, relationships, low mood, anxiety or anything else which may be troubling you, however big or small it may seem.

Log on just to chat or find out how to get additional support. For more information, contact wellbeing@essex.ac.uk.

Essex Interns
Essex interns create paid internships exclusively for you as an Essex student. They're flexible too: part time during term time or full time in vacations. You can even take part up to three years after you graduate, as part of our Essex graduates support package. Sign up for Essex Interns to kick-start your career.

You Are Essex

Year and Degree Marks
As your studies draw to a close, and once your exam board has met, it takes up to five working days for your results to be confirmed. You will be sent an email to inform you when the results are live on a password protected web page. You will be able to see your marks obtained and any decisions that you must make in order to progress to the next stage of study.

When in your final year of study, graduating students will receive a degree certificate at Graduation and graduating undergraduate students also be able to access their electronic HEAR which gives details of all marks obtained during their studies.

www.essex.ac.uk/students/graduation/award-documents/default.aspx

GradIntel
Postgraduate students do not currently have access to the Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR); this is only available for undergraduate students. However, you can use GradIntel to record any extra-curricular activities you may be involved in through the Big Essex Awards but not full access to your academic achievements.

Graduation
The culmination of all your hard work, Graduation ceremonies take place at our Colchester Campus each July in the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall. All eligible students studying at our Colchester, Loughton and Southend Campuses will be invited to attend. For more information visit our graduation pages:

Requesting References

Requesting references from members of staff
If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject.

For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, and core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first-year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for reference for a student who has undertaken study within our Department. Requests received from students who have graduated from the University within the last three years will be prioritised. Requests received outside of this period may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information and is willing to provide a reference.

It is always helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – it is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references
A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our department for no longer than three years for taught students.
Alumni
Essex is forever and although your time here will fly by, you'll be part of the Essex family for life. When you graduate, you'll get an alumni card and join a community of over 100,000 fellow graduates around the world. We'd love to keep in touch and invite you to our alumni events, networking and volunteering opportunities, as well as offer you special alumni benefits. Want to know more?
