Welcome to the School of Law and Human Rights Centre. We hope that you will settle in smoothly as you move into the next steps of your academic development - it should be challenging, but very rewarding as you focus on your own special areas of interest. This year we have adapted our teaching and extra-curricular activities to suit your needs and ensure that Covid-19 does not impede the fulfilling experience of studying law that we are proud to offer.

The aim of this handbook is to provide you with information which will be useful to you, and to answer some of the questions you might have.

If you have any problems or queries, do not be reluctant to ask for help. Some issues can be resolved in the School; for others please see the following suggestions to ensure you receive more specialised advice:

- Administrative enquiries and questions about individual courses – ask one of the administrative staff in the Law Education Team (lawugadmin@essex.ac.uk);
- Problems with accommodation – contact the Accommodation Office in the first instance;
- Significant personal or emotional issues – you can make an appointment with the Student Wellbeing and Inclusivity Service at the Silberrad Centre.

Remember, your personal tutor is also available to give advice, or to point you in the direction of someone who can help you.

Dr Karen Brennan
Deputy Head of School

Caveat
The information included in this handbook is correct at the time of publication. However, it is possible that changes will occur, sometimes at very short notice. In such cases, the School of Law and Human Rights Centre reserve the right to update, modify or even withdraw specific courses/modules or staffing arrangements or methods of assessment where academic developments or unexpected contingencies render such action necessary or expedient in the judgment of the Head of School. If there are any discrepancies between this handbook and University or School documents, then official University or School documents take precedence.
Contents

Welcome .......................................................................................................................... 1
Introduction...................................................................................................................... 1
Practicalities and Getting Started.................................................................................... 2
  Registration ..................................................................................................................... 2
  Right to Study .................................................................................................................. 2
  Student visas ................................................................................................................... 2
  Choosing your modules ................................................................................................. 2
  Explore your Campus ..................................................................................................... 2
Get connected ................................................................................................................... 3
  Your IT account ............................................................................................................. 3
  Campus Wi-fi .................................................................................................................. 3
  Essex Apps ..................................................................................................................... 3
  MyEssex .......................................................................................................................... 3
  PocketEssex .................................................................................................................... 3
  Find Your Way ............................................................................................................... 3
Working while studying .................................................................................................. 3
Your personal belongings ............................................................................................... 4
The Essex Experience ........................................................................................................ 4
  Embrace the Essex Values ............................................................................................. 4
  Equality, Diversity and Inclusion .................................................................................. Error! Bookmark not defined.
  Student communities .................................................................................................... 4
  Essex Sport .................................................................................................................... 4
  Students’ Union .............................................................................................................. 5
    Get involved! ............................................................................................................... 5
  Essex spirit, social media and what’s on? ....................................................................... 5
About the School of Law .................................................................................................. 6
Meet the team .................................................................................................................... 6
  The Human Rights Centre ............................................................................................. 6
  Dr Karen Brennan, Deputy Head of School ................................................................... 6
  Dr Anna Hardiman-McCartney, Director of Education .................................................... 7
  Dr Tom Flynn, Director of Undergraduate Studies ........................................................... 7
  Dr Tom Cornford, Director of Assessment ..................................................................... 7
  Bev Jackson, Director of Student Development ............................................................... 7
  Dr Audrey Guinchard, Legal Skills Lead ....................................................................... 7
  The Undergraduate Education Team ............................................................................. 7
  The Events and Communications Team ...................................................................... 7
Teaching staff and support................................................................. 7
Module Directors ............................................................................. 8
Your Peer Mentor/Law Star.............................................................. 8
Staff research interests ..................................................................... 8
School resources and facilities ........................................................ 8
  Moodle ............................................................................................. 9
  Law Common Room ......................................................................... 9
  Printing, photocopying and scanning ............................................. 9
  Premium printing ............................................................................ 9
  Noticeboards .................................................................................. 9
School prizes ...................................................................................... 9
Communications ............................................................................. 10
  Social Media ................................................................................... 10
  Weekly newsletters .......................................................................... 10
The use of personal devices ............................................................... 10
Learning and Teaching ..................................................................... 11
  The academic year .......................................................................... 11
  My Course ....................................................................................... 11
    Credits .......................................................................................... 11
    Learning outcomes ......................................................................... 11
    Grade boundaries .......................................................................... 11
  Module enrolment ........................................................................... 12
    Changing Modules ......................................................................... 12
  Module Directors ........................................................................... 12
Fitness to practise ............................................................................ 12
Professional Accreditation ............................................................... 12
  Solicitor ............................................................................................ 13
  Barrister ........................................................................................... 13
  Modules for professional accreditation ......................................... 13
Employability Modules .................................................................... 14
  Extra-curricular Opportunities ....................................................... 14
Study Abroad ..................................................................................... 14
Work Placements ............................................................................. 14
DBS Checks for Placements ............................................................ 15
Module Materials ............................................................................ 15
Teaching timetable ........................................................................... 15
Recording your attendance ............................................................ 15
Making changes to your study .......................................................... 16
Assessment and Academic Integrity ................................................................. 18
Rules of Assessment ......................................................................................... 18
Core, compulsory and optional modules ....................................................... 18
Academic Integrity and Academic Offences ................................................ 18
Methods of Assessment in the School ............................................................ 19
Continuous Assessment .................................................................................. 19
Coursework ...................................................................................................... 19
Preparation of assignments ............................................................................ 19
Referencing in coursework ............................................................................ 19
Submission of coursework ............................................................................. 20
Problems with FASER ..................................................................................... 20
Late submission of coursework .................................................................... 20
Return of coursework ...................................................................................... 21
Ethics in research ............................................................................................ 21
Examinations .................................................................................................... 21
Exam timetable .................................................................................................. 21
Attending an exam ............................................................................................ 21
Calculators in Examinations .......................................................................... 21
Dictionaries ...................................................................................................... 21
Sample and past papers .................................................................................. 21
Revision classes ............................................................................................... 22
Exam stress ....................................................................................................... 22
Access to your exam script ............................................................................. 22
Moderation and marking ................................................................................ 22
Marking ............................................................................................................ 22
Moderation ...................................................................................................... 22
External Examiners .......................................................................................... 22
Re-marking of coursework .............................................................................. 22
Appeals ............................................................................................................ 23
Feedback .................................................................................................................. 23
The Board of Examiners .................................................................................. 23
Publication of results ...................................................................................... 23
Reassessment .................................................................................................... 23
Resit exams ....................................................................................................... 24
Exit Awards ...................................................................................................... 25
Extenuating Circumstances ........................................................................... 25
Computers, Learning Technologies and your Information .................................. 26
Computers ......................................................................................................... 26
Using a campus computer ................................................................................ 26
IT Help and Guidance ...................................................................................... 26
Learning Technologies and Systems ................................................................. 26
Learner Engagement Activity Portal (LEAP) .................................................... 26
Moodle .............................................................................................................. 26
FASER ............................................................................................................... 27
Online reading lists .......................................................................................... 27
Listen Again ....................................................................................................... 27
Zoom .................................................................................................................. 27
Your information ............................................................................................... 27
Changes to your information .......................................................................... 27
Your personal information ............................................................................. 27
Student Voice .................................................................................................... 28
Student Representatives ................................................................................ 28
Student Voice Groups ..................................................................................... 28
Student Surveys ............................................................................................... 28
National Student Survey .............................................................................. 28
UK Engagement Survey (UKES) ................................................................... 28
Student Module Feedback ............................................................................. 28
You Matter ........................................................................................................ 30
Student Services Hub ..................................................................................... 30
Support for students with disabilities or additional needs ................................ 30
Funding opportunities .................................................................................... 30
Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans (PEEP) ............................................... 30
Essex Accessibility Forum ............................................................................. 30
Seeing a Doctor ................................................................................................. 30
Counselling services ....................................................................................... 30
Drop In/Wellbeing Appointments .................................................................... 31
UK Immigration Advice and Guidance .......................................................... 31
Money management ..................................................................................................................31
Students’ Union Advice ........................................................................................................31
Residence Life ..........................................................................................................................31
Religion, faith and beliefs .......................................................................................................31
Harassment support ................................................................................................................31
COVID-19 (Coronavirus) ........................................................................................................32
Health and safety on campus ..................................................................................................32
Making a Complaint ................................................................................................................32
Student Development .............................................................................................................33
Careers Services ......................................................................................................................33
CareerHub ................................................................................................................................33
Your Personal Development at Essex .........................................................................................33
Volunteering .............................................................................................................................33
Get Work Experience ..............................................................................................................33
You Are Essex ............................................................................................................................34
Graduation and Awards ...........................................................................................................34
Graduation ceremonies ............................................................................................................34
HEAR ........................................................................................................................................34
References .................................................................................................................................34
  Requesting references from members of staff ......................................................................34
  Copies of references ..............................................................................................................35
Alumni .......................................................................................................................................35
What comes next? .....................................................................................................................35
Introduction

Your Student Handbook will tell you everything you need to know about your School, the University its academic policies and procedures, and all of the resources that are available to you.

We know things might be a little different this year, but we remain absolutely determined to provide you with the best Essex education and student experience we can while safeguarding your health and wellbeing. Make sure that you keep up to date with what we all need to do to keep safe as a community.

At Essex we celebrate diversity and challenge inequality. We are a truly diverse community where differences are celebrated, and individuality is valued. Your contribution is welcomed and encouraged based on your own thoughts and experiences. As part of our community you will have the freedom to explore, experiment, challenge your discipline and have your ideas shaped by peer and professional knowledge from all over the world. Essex is about more than just getting a degree: we have so much to offer our students.

Things might have to change and adapt over the year, so make sure that you’re checking online and keeping in touch with your School for the latest updates. The Student Directory contains a wealth of other helpful sources of information which you may also find useful.
Practicalities and Getting Started

Registration
Whether a new or returning student, you will need to officially register and pay your fees (if required to do so) at the start of each academic year and prior to the published latest Registration date. Registration is not only a formal procedure of enrolling you into the University, but also connects you to a number of vital systems which allow you to access your online Welcome and Induction information and start your studies. As part of this process, you will need to activate your Essex IT account, register online (including payment of fees where required) and, once you arrive on campus, undertake a Right to Study check and collect your student registration card.

Right to Study
The University must ensure all students have the right to study at the University of Essex for the whole duration of their course. If you aren't a UK or Irish national, your immigration permission to study in the UK will be checked when you first arrive on campus and as necessary thereafter. Students have a duty to maintain valid UK immigration permission that allows study for the duration of their course, failure to do so may lead to withdrawal from the University under the University's General Regulations.

Student visas
The University has many duties as a Student Sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our sponsor status. Students with a student visa have responsibilities to the University and the Home Office. There will be conditions attached to your visa that restrict what you can do in the UK, breaking any of the conditions may mean you can’t remain in the UK and complete your course. Please be aware that changes to your course, whether due to academic failure or choice, must be considered against the Immigration Rules and guidance in place at the time, this can mean that some academic options may not be available to you. The Board of Examiners are not aware of a student’s UK immigration status, it is each students responsibility to check what impact any option offered would have on their student immigration status, before making a choice. Continued or future sponsorship is not guaranteed.

Choosing your modules
You may have module options to select as part of your course structure. If you do, you must select the modules you wish to enrol on before the academic year begins. You can view and choose your specific options through the eNROL system. New students can do so from the end of August and returning students can from the April preceding the next academic year. Early module enrolment ensures that timetables can be scheduled effectively. We'll talk more about how you might decide which modules to take in the Learning and Teaching section of this Handbook.

Explore your Campus
There is a broad range of facilities across each of our campuses to support your experience at Essex, whether in person or virtually. For the latest information, see the updates on services on campus and make sure that you're aware of the guidance for those coming onto campus.
Get connected

Your IT account
You will need to activate your Essex IT account. Once you’re set up, you can access your Essex email, log in to Moodle, access lab computers and library services, print for free on campus, connect to campus wi-fi, and much more. When you activate your account, you should register an external e-mail address and passphrase so that if you forget your password, you can also reset it using these details. If you have forgotten those also, you should either visit the IT Helpdesk or call 01206 872345. Make sure you keep your password safe and do not share it with others!

Campus Wi-fi
If you are studying on any of our campuses, connect to our Wi-Fi by simply finding the ‘eduroam’ network on your device and use the same log in details as your IT account to connect up!

Essex Apps
The University has a variety of online systems and platforms designed to enhance your learning and help make processes, such as submitting coursework, easier. We have rounded up the top platforms, portals and apps that you need to know about!

MyEssex
MyEssex is your online account. This is different to your applicant portal – you can use MyEssex to view your timetable, update your personal details, request replacement student cards or supporting documents, monitor your course progress, let us know if you’ll miss a lecture or class, contact the Student Services Hub, and much more.

PocketEssex
Pocket Essex is the University’s official app for students; its interface of icons act as a portal through to a variety of areas and resources. PocketEssex links to many areas that MyEssex does, but also takes you through to other key resources, such as the Students’ Union, FindYourWay and the Library.

Find Your Way
When on campus, we know that finding your way can be challenging to start with. Our Colchester campus in particular can be difficult to navigate with a historically complex room numbering system! FindYourWay is our interactive campus map designed to get you from A to B on either the Colchester or Southend campuses with quick and easy directions.

Working while studying
Many students choose to work part-time to supplement their income. Working during your course can also give you excellent skills and experience to boost your CV. Our Student Services Hub can help you find part-time work. There are also many opportunities to work in paid jobs on campus.

You can access recommendations on working hours, as well as guidance on rates of pay and National Insurance contributions on the Careers Services webpages.

If you have a student visa, please read our information on working in the UK for international students before you start looking for a job. The country you’re from and your visa type will determine whether or not you can work in the UK. If you can work, the type of work you are allowed to undertake and the number of hours you can work will be restricted.
Your personal belongings

The University does not cover costs for personal damage or loss of possessions; only in instances where the University has been negligent would a claim be viable for compensation for personal belongings. Therefore, you are strongly advised to take out personal insurance cover for your possessions. This is especially important for valuable items, such as laptops, phones and tablets.

Essex values

The University of Essex is proud of its values of inclusivity and internationalism. Our campuses are places that are welcoming, where everyone can feel they belong and where you can find the world in one place.

Our Student Charter is a pledge that every member of our learning community signs up to when they join us, but in exchange you’ll receive support and encouragement and a transformational education to achieve great things.

Our Code of Student Conduct outlines the rules and regulations that help us maintain our high standards of behaviour.

The University of Essex is proud of its inclusivity and its international community. Our campuses are places where every single person can feel they belong and where you can find the world in one place. As part of our ongoing commitment we have created a Student Charter as a pledge that every student becomes a part of when they join us. With the Student Charter you agree to support our community and we promise to provide you with a transformational educational experience.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

The University recognises the value of diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity. All of our students and staff are treated with dignity and respect, and solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential, regardless of race, ethnic or national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, socio-economic background, family circumstances, religious or political beliefs and affiliations, or any other irrelevant distinction.

The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy is fully effective.

Student communities

We pride ourselves on being a welcoming and inclusive student community. The University recognises the value of diversity and are committed to equality of opportunity within the University. We aim to create an environment whereby students and staff are treated with dignity and respect, and solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential regardless of their background whether that is race, gender, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, or any other distinction.

We offer a wide range of support to individuals and groups of student members – our student communities - who may have specific requirements, interests or responsibilities - to help fulfil your potential. Whether you are an international student, a mature student, a BAME student or have any other requirements or needs, we want to welcome you with open arms. The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy is fully effective.

Essex Sport

Learning doesn't just happen in the classroom. Keeping active during your studies is a great way to meet new people, help relieve stress, maintain good physical and mental wellbeing, increase productivity, and improve your employability.
Visit the Essex Sport website or download the app to discover all the ways you can keep active during your time at Essex. In order to ensure the welfare of our community there may be changes to opening hours or what’s available, so do check on the website for the latest information.

Students’ Union

We’re famous for our Students’ Union at Essex, and for good reason. Here you’re not just a member of a normal Students’ Union; you’re part of a family. We’re here from day one to the moment you graduate to support you in any way we can.

The Students’ Union is run by students for students, and you have the ability to shape what we do. From deciding who leads the SU, to shaping your own experiences at Essex, we are here to represent your views and work with you to make amazing things happen.

Get involved!

There are opportunities to join Sports Clubs, to get involved with our BUCS teams which offer the opportunity to play competitively in a wide range of sports across the year. If you just want to try a sport, don’t want to commit to a regular team, or would rather not play competitively, check out our Just Play programme.

We have 120 Societies where you can meet people with similar interests, challenge yourself with something new or, if you can’t find what you’re looking for, start your own!

We also train, recruit and support hundreds of student reps each year. These reps gather feedback to share student viewpoints on academic experiences. You can find out more about student reps including how to sign up and getting trained here.

We also have our very own letting agency SU Homes designed to offer help and support for students to find off campus accommodation.

Essex spirit, social media and what’s on?

Keep up to date with important news, events and offers from across the University with our Essex spirit newsletter, delivered directly to your Essex email address.

Follow us on social:

ไลน์: /uniofessex
Facebook: /uniofessex
Twitter: /Uni_of_Essex
Instagram: /uniofessex

Our Events calendar brings together all the events happening across our three campuses, so you can make the most of your time at Essex.
About the School of Law

Meet the team
At Essex we teach the law that matters. Consistent with our founding ethos, we are ‘freer, more daring and more experimental’ than a traditional law school. Your legal education must be relevant and responsive to the needs of a changing society, so our approach is global in outlook, based on justice, and engaged with real-world problems.

Our significantly diverse population of undergraduate and postgraduate students, and academics, supports an approach to research and education which is informed by cross-cultural and comparative insights. We embrace the idea of what Sir Albert Sloman, the University’s founding Vice-Chancellor, called the ‘fundamental unity of human knowledge’ in his first Reith Lecture: law is not a discipline confined to its own sphere, but rather one that is enriched by drawing upon insights from other disciplines and other legal traditions.

We are committed to transnational legal conversations and exploring the meaning of justice in different legal systems. We encourage our students to take up opportunities to study abroad during their time with us. We are proud to run the largest double degree programme in the United Kingdom, with students qualifying to practice in both France and England & Wales. The Essex Human Rights Centre is recognised internationally for its work in the promotion of human rights.

We value building and maintaining personal links and a sense of academic community both on campus and beyond. We seek not only to impart knowledge about the law but also to stimulate critical dialogues about justice, and the operation and purpose of the law.

The Human Rights Centre
The Human Rights Centre is housed within the School of Law and run by core staff supported by other members from across different departments at the University. The HRC is staffed by what is undoubtedly the strongest team of academic human rights lawyers in the UK, together with philosophers, political theorists and sociologists who have worked on human rights issues. The Centre co-ordinates the University's interdisciplinary human rights teaching programme as well as a programme of research, training, external consultancy and publication on international, comparative and national aspects of human rights. The Schools/Departments of Law, Government, Philosophy and Sociology all contribute to the work of the Centre, which has a worldwide reputation for its teaching and research. Many members of the academic team have extensive practical experience of international human rights work with organisations such as the United Nations, the Council of Europe, the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Amnesty International, and Minority Rights Group. Staff brings their field experience to bear on their teaching and research activities. It is this combination of academic excellence and practical experience that makes the Human Rights Centre a unique and stimulating place to study.

Meet the team
A full list of all staff can be found here. Below is a summary of the roles of staff who can help you with a variety of areas during your time at Essex.

Dr Karen Brennan, Deputy Head of School
The Deputy Head of School is Dr Karen Brennan. The Head of School is elected by the academic staff members within the School and normally serves for a period of three years. The Head of School is responsible to the Vice-Chancellor for ‘maintaining and promoting the efficiency and good order of the School'. The Head is informed of all undergraduate affairs by the Undergraduate Director and Director of Education and is normally only consulted about individual student matters in cases of urgency.

Dr Anna Hardiman-McCartney, Director of Education
Dr Anna Hardiman-McCartney is the Director of Education. She is responsible for the coordination of the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Directors, and also of the Module Directors and Tutors. She has overall responsibility for the Undergraduate and Postgraduate degree courses within the School of Law and Human Rights Centre.

Dr Tom Flynn, Director of Undergraduate Studies
Dr Tom Flynn is the Director of Undergraduate Studies for the School of Law. He is responsible for coordinating and monitoring undergraduate student affairs, student progress, and staff-student liaison matters.

Dr Tom Cornford, Director of Assessment
Dr Tom Cornford is the Director of Assessment for the School of Law. He is responsible for coordinating and monitoring the different forms and questions of module assessment. He oversees the assessment question approvals process.

Bev Jackson, Director of Student Development
Bev Jackson provides support for all students in the School of Law. You can use this support to discuss study skills to help you with your programme, to talk through issues you are experiencing or for feedback on your coursework and advice on how to improve your grades. You can make an appointment for a one-to-one tutorial or you can call at Bev’s office, which is near the Essex Law and Human Rights Centre Clinics.

Dr Audrey Guinchard, Legal Skills Lead
Dr Audrey Guinchard is the module leader for LW105 Legal Skills, the module that equips you with all the skills needed for a successful course throughout your degree.

School Disability Liaison Officer (DDLO)
The Disability Liaison Officer for the School is Bev Jackson.

The Undergraduate Education Team
The Undergraduate Education Team are here to help you with the practicalities of studying at the School of Law. If you have questions about how to access FASER, where to go for support, or how the Extenuating Circumstances system works, Then they are the people to ask. Contact them via lawugadmin@essex.ac.uk, join one of their drop-in sessions, or ask for a Zoom meeting. Their normal working hours are Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm.

The Events and Communications Team
The Events and Communications Team keep you up to date on the various School of Law and Human Rights Centre events that are organised throughout the year. Make the most of your time here and keep an eye out for their quarterly newsletters and regular event invitations. Contact the team by emailing lawhrcevents@essex.ac.uk.

Teaching staff and support
All teaching staff hold weekly academic support hours during term time. This is a time when you can meet with them about anything to do with your modules, from difficulties you might be having with your seminar readings, to discussions about feedback on your coursework.

You can arrange an appointment with the relevant academic by contacting them directly via email. A list of academics can be found here.
Please note that academic staff do not hold regular academic support hours during the vacations, and may, on occasion, be away from the University on research leave or on research trips and visits. Therefore, if you need to get in touch with them during the vacation periods, you should e-mail them in the first instance.

Module Directors
There are dedicated Module Tutors to support students for each module. The module tutor for each module can be found on Moodle. If you have a specific study question please contact the relevant module director.

Your Personal Tutor
All undergraduate students have a Personal Tutor who will meet you soon after you arrive, and regularly throughout your course. Your Personal Tutor will be a member of academic staff and is someone you can talk to about your course or any difficulties that may encounter. They can recommend and direct you to other support services that might be able to further help and support you. You can find out who your Personal Tutor is through MyEssex.

If you have a disability, long term medical condition and/or Specific Learning Difference and have not registered with Student Wellbeing & Inclusivity Service to discuss your support needs, please email include@essex.ac.uk.

Your Peer Mentor/Law Star
All first-year students are assigned a Peer Mentor, known in the School of Law as a ‘Law Star’. Law Stars are either second- and final-year students. They will contact you to introduce themselves and organise how you’ll stay in contact.

Become a Mentor/Law Star
If you are in second or final-year and are interested in becoming a Law Star, a call for applications is usually circulated in the Spring term. If you have any questions in the meantime, you can contact Bev Jackson (bjackson@essex.ac.uk) for further details.

Staff research interests
The School of Law at Essex has a global reputation for its research, particularly in the areas of commercial law, human rights law and practice, and public law.

More than two-thirds of our research was rated ‘world leading’ or ‘internationally excellent’ in the Research Excellence Framework (REF) 2014.

Our research engages with debates about the meaning of justice in the UK and beyond. It provides the foundation of our teaching and allows us to offer a progressive legal education that is relevant and responsive to the needs of a changing society.

Our staff work with the United Nations, governments, human rights organisations and corporations across the globe. We have an excellent record of winning major research grants from funding bodies including the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), the Nuffield Foundation and the Leverhulme Trust.

School resources and facilities
A wide range of facilities and resources are available for all students to access and use as part of their study at Essex. Each department and school also has a selection for the exclusive use of their students. Below is a summary of the facilities and resources that are likely to be most useful to you.
Moodle
Check out the Law Learning Essentials Moodle page, which has useful resources to help you develop key skills for university and beyond.

Make sure you also keep an eye on the Law and Human Rights Centre Undergraduate Information page. You can find answers to most practical questions on this page.

Law Common Room
The School of Law Common Room is located in room 5S.6.17 and is for the use of all students and staff.

The University has increased its cleaning rota and hand sanitisers will be available. Whilst using the Common Room, students and staff will be expected to open the windows for ventilation.

Students are expected to comply with current Government and University Covid guidance.

Printing, photocopying and scanning
All students can print, copy and scan for free at Essex! You can even print from your mobile by sending your attachment to mobileprinting@essex.ac.uk.

Once you’ve located a device, simply log in using your Essex login and password, or tap with your student card to print. Whilst printing is free for all students, please think of your carbon footprint and only print if necessary.

Please note that there are strict laws about infringement of copyright; more information can be found on the library website which explains what and how much you are permitted to copy. Usage is monitored and subject to a fair use policy.

Premium printing
Premium services for printing and finishing, including binding your documents for presentational purposes, are available at The Copy Centre (Square 4, Colchester Campus). These services are chargeable.

Noticeboards
Every department and school has their own noticeboard providing information on staff updates, careers, events and opportunities.

All the School’s noticeboards are located in the ground floor corridor accessed through entrance 4SE. If you wish to add a notice to one of the Boards, please contact the Law Events and Communications Team via lawhrcevents@essex.ac.uk first. Any unauthorised notices will be removed.

School prizes
Each year we are pleased to award prizes signifying excellence. The following prizes are available for award to undergraduate students:

- Gordon Sagar Prize for the best overall performance by a first year LLB student;
- Suffolk and North Essex Law Society Prize for the best overall performance by a second year LLB student;
- Sweet and Maxwell Law Prize for the best overall performance by a final year LLB student;
- Achievement Award for outstanding performance by a third-year student on a joint honours degree course;
- School of Law Prize for Equity & Trusts for the best performing student in Equity & Trusts;
- Rob Wight Memorial Prize for the best performing student in Tort Law;
- Southend and District Law Society Prize for the best performing student in Land Law;
- Oxford University Press Prize for the best performing student in Foundations of Public Law;
- Pearson Education Prize for the best performing student in Current Issues in Public Law;
- Hammonds Commercial Law Prize for the best performing student in Commercial Law;
- Palgrave Law Prize for the best performing student in Family Law;
- Dalloz French Law Prize for the best performing second-year student on a Maîtrise course;
- School of Law Prize for Best Performance in the Final Year Dissertation;
- Fernne Brennan Prize for the best performance in Criminal Law.

Communications

The University will predominantly use e-mail for routine communication between staff and students. Your Essex e-mail address will have been added to the relevant e-mail groups specific to your department or school, course and modules to ensure that you receive the essential information relevant to you. It is recommended that you check your Essex e-mail each day to ensure you do not miss any important updates to classes and assessment.

You will also automatically be subscribed to a small number of opt-out lists, again, based on your course. You can always opt in or out of these communications online.

Social Media

Our social media channels are a good source of information on what is happening around the University and, more specifically, the School of Law and Human Rights Centre. Please do not contact the pages asking for information about your course; you should contact the module leaders or School administrators for this.

Follow us on Twitter @EssexLawSchool or on Facebook @UoELaw for all our latest news and events as well as information on placement opportunities.

Weekly newsletters

We send out a weekly newsletter on a Friday to your Essex email, which will provide you with information on the week ahead, and includes information on training, placements and other university events.

The use of personal devices

You can use laptops and tablet PCs during teaching classes for purposes related to the class you are attending. You should refrain from using your mobile phone during all teaching events, except in cases where a lecturer uses a programme which requires these devices to be switched on for participation.
Learning and Teaching

The University is committed to providing equal opportunities for all our students regardless of where or how you study. Our diverse student population is considered when developing the resources, services and facilities on and off campus, when we create our courses, write publications and course materials, and set our policies and regulations.

The academic year

The academic year uses a week numbering system that covers the 52 weeks of a calendar year but corresponds to typical term dates. So, the start of the academic year is week 1, which is Welcome week, with teaching commencing in week 2.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Week numbers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Autumn</td>
<td>2-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring</td>
<td>16-25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer</td>
<td>30-39</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You can view the University’s week numbers with the equivalent dates in the week by week calendar. The University’s key dates include an overview of the start and end of each term and exam periods.

Some courses have slightly different term dates. In the School of Law this does not apply. However, you will find that all activities and events refer to the standard academic year terms and schedule noted above.

You are expected to be available during term time to attend teaching events, unless otherwise advised by your Department/School.

My Course

Each course at the University has its own syllabus, full details of which, including the aims and learning outcomes of your course, can be found in the University’s Programme Specifications Catalogue.

Your own course structure, including your specific programme specification, can be found in the MyStudy section of your MyEssex homepage.

Credits

Your course will be made up of a certain number of credits. Generally, undergraduate degrees contain 360 credits worth of modules in total during your course at Essex. This is divided into 120 credits per each year of study, with credits allocated to each module that you take.

Learning outcomes

Each course has learning outcomes which need to be met in order to progress. Course learning outcomes are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are also defined more specifically at a modular level. Having this information means that you can measure your progress against the outcomes, for example when reviewing coursework feedback.

Grade boundaries

Marks for undergraduate modules fall into one of the classifications set out in the table below. Bachelor degrees are usually awarded under these classifications too. The method for calculating your final award classification will take into account module marks and any other requirements - full details are set out in the Rules of Assessment.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Degree mark</th>
<th>Class</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>69.5% and over</td>
<td>Class 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>59.5 - 69.4%</td>
<td>Class 2.1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>49.5 - 59.4%</td>
<td>Class 2.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>39.5 – 49.4%</td>
<td>Class 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>39.4% and under</td>
<td>Fail</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Module enrolment

Most modules taught reflect the individual research interests of members of our academic staff. New modules are regularly explored, researched and developed to expand our transformative educational offering at Essex.

The University provide further guidance on choosing modules, and meetings for first and second-year students will be held by your department where students can discuss their choices with their Personal Tutor. Your preferred choices must be submitted prior to the start of term through the eNROL system.

A full list of modules available can be found on this webpage.

Changing Modules

In instances where you need to make a change to your module choice, you may do so up until the second week of the Autumn Term. If you wish to change an optional module after the deadline, you should seek advice from the Department or School Office that runs the particular module that you may wish to change to.

Late changes may be permitted but will be subject to the approval of the department that runs the module and the relevant Dean. Late changes of modules that run for one term or less will not usually be permitted. Students may not change modules that are core or compulsory for the course for which they are registered.

If there is a module that you would like to study that isn’t available as an option on your course, then you can ask for a change to your syllabus to be made by submitting a special syllabus request. Special syllabus requests are not automatically available and require approval. It is a good idea to talk to your Department or School responsible for your course, as well as the Department that teach the module if it is an outside option.

Module Directors

Module Directors are responsible for individual modules. They design, teach and examine them. They monitor student progress and can also talk to students about any related academic issues.

Fitness to practise

Fitness to practise is only applicable to students on certain professional courses (such as nursing or social work) and is designed to ensure and regulate that a student is suitable for engagement in the relevant profession.

Professional Accreditation

Many students studying Law at Essex will wish to practice as lawyers in this country. To do this they must qualify as either a solicitor or a barrister. The qualification routes for the two professions are different and both are in the process of changing, but each currently requires a period of academic study, followed by vocational study and work-based learning.
Solicitor

The current route to qualification as a solicitor, as regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), is to undertake a Qualifying Law Degree (QLD) or a non-law undergraduate degree followed by a Graduate Diploma in Law, followed by a year of professional training in the form of the Legal Practice Course (LPC). This is then followed by a two-year period of supervised training.

Any student who has completed, started or accepted an offer to start a qualifying Law degree before 1st September 2021 will be able to complete their solicitor training under the existing framework. Please contact us if you require any further information.

For more information about the changes being introduced by the SRA from the 1st September 2021 please see https://www.sra.org.uk/students/sqe/

Barrister

The Bar Standards Board (BSB) regulates training to become a barrister. To complete the academic component of training, you need either a law degree or a non-law degree and the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL). Your degree needs to be a minimum of a 2:2. During the academic component, you will cover the seven foundations of legal knowledge. The requirements for the academic stage of training are set by the BSB. Our LLB degrees meet these requirements and, therefore, meet the academic component of training to become a barrister.

Modules for professional accreditation

Essex LLBs meet the requirements for academic training for barristers and solicitors who start or accept a place on their course before 1st September 2021 and entitle you to proceed to the vocational training stage for either profession. In order to meet those requirements, however, a degree course must cover a number of specific areas of law. Each university may organise these differently, but at Essex it comprises the following modules:

- LW101 – Contract Law
- LW103 – Foundations of Public Law
- LW104 – Criminal Law
- LW109 – Foundations of Property Law
- LW201 – Tort Law
- LW202 – Equity and Trusts
- LW302 – European Union Law
- LW303 – Land Law

All courses at Essex which bear the title “LLB” include these modules and entitle you to proceed to vocational training. However, where a student takes an LLB course but fails one of the modules listed above, they may be able to pass the course and receive a degree, but the degree will not entitle them to proceed to vocational training.

If you fail the assessment and reassessment for any of these modules, the School offers the chance to retake the assessment in this module after graduation in order to obtain a pass on all modules required by the Professional Bodies. The Undergraduate administrators will contact you after graduation to arrange ‘resits for professional purposes’ in these modules.
Employability Modules

The School of Law and Human Rights Centre takes the employability of its graduates extremely seriously. All first-year undergraduates are required to take LW111 Career Management Skills, followed by LW211 Career Management Skills II in second year, in order to develop their employability skills and careers awareness alongside their substantive learning in law.

The modules draw upon a wide variety of different activities and will require students to attend presentations and panel discussions, participate in careers fairs and skills sessions, and reflect on their personal career goals.

The modules seek to enhance students’ employability profile in a number of aspects, including personal development planning; identifying personal strengths and goals; understanding the nature of work as a barrister or solicitor; awareness of jobs requiring legal expertise outside the traditional legal profession; skills in identifying and applying for employment opportunities; understanding the general demands of the current job market; identifying the demands of the job markets in law and related professions/industries; and how to interact with legal professionals outside an academic environment.

Extra-curricular Opportunities

- Volunteering at the Essex Law Clinic allows you to work alongside practising solicitors to offer legal advice to clients in Colchester and Southend; at legal help points in local courts; and to prisoners through the independent charity Prisoners’ Advice Service.
- Our University's Frontrunners scheme gives you the chance to undertake paid work placement and training opportunities across our campuses, assisting academic Schools/Departments and professional services teams with a variety of projects.
- Become part of the Human Rights and Law Societies at the University.
- Our student-led commercial awareness initiative helps you understand how law relates to the world of business.
- Mooting competitions give you the chance to argue hypothetical points of law in front of a judge, helping to develop legal research skills, oral presentation techniques, and resilience under pressure.
- Additional extracurricular competitions include client interviewing and negotiation.
- Sign up for a networking skills workshop. Networking is important for law graduates across a wide range of sectors, particularly in relation to client development.
- Using your experience to mentor other students is a great way to develop your communication skills and we provide you with training and opportunities to take on this responsibility.

Study Abroad

Essex Abroad supports you to have an international experience during your time at Essex. You can study, volunteer, intern or complete research abroad as part of our programmes. Many courses can be taken as a four-year variant to include a year studying abroad at one of our partner universities across the world. You can find out more about applying and what you'll need to consider if you're interested in a study abroad year. Students with disabilities should also liaise with the Student Wellbeing and Inclusivity Service – include@essex.ac.uk.

As well as a year abroad, we have a wide range of summer programmes including volunteering programmes, international internships and research abroad opportunities which are open to all Essex students. These programmes vary in duration, location and cost and can be a great addition (or alternative!) to a full year of study abroad.

Work Placements

Our primary concern is for the safety and wellbeing of our students and we want to ensure that students are not put at undue risk. We also want to ensure that students get the best possible placement experience. In many cases placements planned for the Academic year 2021/22 will go ahead - these are being approved on a case by case basis. For further information or to discuss your own placement circumstances, you should contact the Industry Engagement and Placements team (placements@essex.ac.uk) or the Academic Supervisor in your department/School. Students expecting to undertake clinical placements should contact their Academic placement/module supervisor or your Personal Tutor if they have any outstanding questions or concerns.

There are a variety of opportunities to undertake work-based learning and placements either during or as part of your studies. Many courses may also be taken as four-year variant to include a Placement Year. If undertaking a placement year, it is your responsibility to find a work placement, however, the Industry Engagement and Placements Team can help prepare and support you and will advertise relevant placements. If you are interested in undertaking a Placement Year, or other work-based opportunities that may be available to you and your course, contact the Industry Engagement and Placements team. If you have a student visa, please be aware that the immigration rules restrict the length of placements and the type of work you can do.

DBS Checks for Placements

Some placements may require a DBS check where you are engaging in regulated activity with vulnerable groups. This may include placements that are core, compulsory or optional, depending on the relevant module. Some activities may be carried out on an ad hoc basis for research purposes only, which are not required to meet the learning outcomes of the module or course, but will help inform your learning. More information about the DBS check process can be found on the University's DBS webpages.

Module Materials

Online reading lists for your modules can be found via the module Moodle page alongside other information and module materials.

Teaching timetable

Every student has a personal timetable published at the start of term which shows when and where your teaching is taking place, and zoom links if teaching online. You can access your timetable on most mobile devices, including smart phones and tablets. You will need to have registered and activated your University of Essex log-in and selected all of your modules (if applicable) before you will be able to access your teaching timetable.

If you wish to report a timetable clash or request a class change, you should do so via the online timetable.

During Welcome Week (week 1) you may find that your timetable is blank as teaching normally commences week 2. Please be aware that there may be changes to the location of teaching during the year, so regularly check your personal online timetable and Essex e-mail for up to date teaching information.

Information about teaching timetables, including requesting a class change, reporting a timetable issue and accessing your individual timetable can be found on the University's website.

Recording your attendance

We monitor your attendance at teaching sessions on campus using your student card and an electronic recording system called Count-Me-In. Your attendance at online teaching sessions is monitored by reviewing your logins to sessions on Zoom. You're expected to attend all of your mandatory sessions on your individual timetable and report an absence if you are unable to do so. If you have a student visa, please be aware that poor attendance and engagement may mean we have to withdraw our sponsorship and your visa would be cancelled by the Home Office.
It is your responsibility to remember your student registration card. Lost or faulty cards can be replaced at the Student Services Hub.

Please contact your Personal Tutor, department staff or the Student Services Hub for advice and support, particularly if you are going to be absent for several weeks.

Please note that if you forget to tap in during an on-campus event, this cannot be changed on the system and you will be registered as absent during the event.

Making changes to your study

Changing your course
If you are thinking about changing course, you will need to do so by a certain date and should first speak to your department and personal tutor. They will be able to advise of the things you should be thinking about before changing your course. If you are thinking of undertaking a placement year or year abroad, you should check the requirements and any potential visa implications for these programmes by contacting the Industry and Placements Team or Essex Abroad Team. Students with a Tier 4 visa may not be able to change their course without first obtaining a new visa, if eligible.

Thinking of leaving or taking a break?
You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you're thinking about leaving Essex, we're here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice. You can contact your department, Personal Tutor or Student Services Hub to speak in confidence about your concerns, and also the different options available to you and the impact they may have.

Library Services
The library aims to provide all of the resources you will need to succeed in your course, via online reading lists and access to extensive collections of books and journals both on our shelves and online. The library team can help you learn how to search effectively so you can find appropriate resources for your assignments. They can also provide advice on referencing, academic integrity, using reference management software and evaluating sources. A range of online support in these areas is also available via the library website, including subject guides for each department, and support in developing search skills.

At our Colchester Campus, the Albert Sloman Library on Square 5 has a variety of study spaces, including individual and group work areas. The Library offers a wide range of learning resources, online and in print, with a dedicated Helpdesk, live chat and the opportunity to book appointments with your Academic Liaison Librarian to help you through your studies and beyond. See the Library website for the latest information on all our libraries and the services available, including opening hours.

Academic Skills Support
Every student arrives at Essex with the same spirit of determination but different experiences of education and levels of academic readiness. Skills for Success can help you identify your talents and strengthen those areas you need to develop.

We are committed to ensuring that every student is able to get the most out of their academic study and achieve their potential on their course, which is why the Skills for Success team is available to help by providing support, resources, workshops and 1:1s on:

- Academic writing
- Maths and stats
- Digital skills
- Research and referencing
School Support
There is a wide variety of learning resources and support available for your time at Essex. The School has someone dedicated to Student Development; Bev Jackson provides support for all students in the School. You can use this support to discuss study skills to help you with your course, to talk through issues you are experiencing or for feedback on your coursework and advice on how to improve your grades. You can make an appointment for one-to-one support or advice by emailing Bev directly on bjackson@essex.ac.uk.

Weekly newsletter
We send out a weekly newsletter on a Friday to your Essex email, which will provide you with information on the week ahead, and includes information on training, placements and other university events.

Proofreading services
Before considering the use of proofreading services, all students should first discuss their work with their personal tutors. Many students seek ‘proofreading’ services at some point during their studies, but different types of editing can occur under this name which may not be appropriate in an academic context where work is assessed and could potentially qualify as an academic offence. The University is keen to ensure as far as possible that students understand what proofreading work should entail and the acceptable boundaries to which any proofreading or editing must adhere to.

All students should ensure that any agreement entered into with a proofreader conforms to the University’s policy and guidance on proofreading.

Language classes

English classes for dependants
The Department of Language and Linguistics offers dependants of international students and staff at the chance to improve their English language, through our ECDIS programme, at no extra cost. Classes are taught at the Colchester Campus at three basic levels: Elementary (A1/A2), Intermediate (B1/B2) and Advanced (C1/C2) and will focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Learning a Language
Learn a language at Essex to increase your global and cultural awareness. Language learning can give you the confidence to work and travel internationally, expand your options for studying abroad, and get a competitive edge when you’re looking for a job. There are a number of ways to do it, so look online to discover the best option for you.
Assessment and Academic Integrity

All schools and departments at the University employ a variety of assessment methods designed to ensure that the learning outcomes of each module, and course, have been successfully met by the student.

Rules of Assessment

The Rules of Assessment are used to calculate your results. There is a main set of rules for 3 year and 4 year courses, but some schools/departments also have additional variations to the rules, which must be met. These are published alongside the Rules of Assessment for your year of study.

The School of Law has variations to the Rules of Assessment, which can be found in the Variations section of the Rules of Assessment for your individual course and year of study here.

Each module you take has a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment and the Framework for undergraduate courses give you more information about this.

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrators, or SU Advice.

Core, compulsory and optional modules

To understand the requirements to pass your course, you need to know the status of the modules that you are taking. You can find details of the status of your modules in Section C of your programme specification via My Essex.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core</th>
<th>You must take this module</th>
<th>Must pass this module. No failure can be permitted.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Compulsory</td>
<td>You must take this module</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Optional</td>
<td>You can choose which module to study</td>
<td>There might be limited opportunities to continue on the course/be eligible for the degree if you fail it.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Most modules in each year must be passed, with only a small number of credits, if any, being allowed to be failed in the degree.

Academic Integrity and Academic Offences

The University expects students to complete all assessment with honesty and integrity and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don’t meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your assessments. An academic offence can take place even if you didn’t mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating or collaborating with another candidate for assessments that are not explicitly labelled as group work.
Methods of Assessment in the School

Whether a module is core, compulsory or optional, all methods of assessment are compulsory. If you do not complete coursework or attend examinations, and do not have extenuating circumstances to support your non-submission or absence, then you are at risk of being withdrawn from the University.

The modes of assessment for modules can be found on the University’s Module Directory. The modules in the School of Law use one or more of the following methods of assessment:

- Essay
- Problem Question
- Reflective Statement
- Portfolio
- Multiple Choice Questions
- Presentation
- Exam
- Tutorial Preparation Mark
- Tutorial Participation Mark

Continuous Assessment
Every Undergraduate module has a continuous assessment component worth 20% of the overall module mark. Continuous assessment can take many forms, but most modules use multiple choice questions. This assessment takes place throughout the term and will help you understand your modules better and prepare for the final assessments.

Coursework
Coursework is compulsory in all modules and failure to participate in coursework is interpreted as evidence of lack of academic progress. Your academic progress is monitored throughout the year. In severe cases, students with poor academic progress can be required to withdraw from the University (even before the final examinations).

Preparation of assignments
You will be given information about your assignments within each module, and there will be a range of useful resources made available via the module Moodle page, along with guidance on further reading. Many of your modules will have similar or simultaneous deadlines, so it is important that you manage your time carefully: you will sometimes need to work on two or more assignments simultaneously.

Assignment questions will be released at least four weeks before the assignment’s submission deadline, and it is your responsibility to manage your time to ensure that all deadlines are met and that the work submitted is to the best of your ability. We strongly suggest that you use the full four weeks to prepare and write your assignments, so that you have time to ensure you fully understand the material and the assignment.

You can find some useful guidance of preparing for assignments and managing your time on our Law Learning Essentials Moodle Page.

Referencing in coursework
Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK. Referencing is how you acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all work used, whether cited directly (quotes), or indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising).
Referencing allows you to give credit to others' ideas, work, research, theories, concepts, outcomes and results, and demonstrates your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject. If you do not reference properly, this could amount to plagiarism, which is an academic offence.

There are styles of referencing which will determine exactly how you format your reference. The School of Law’s referencing style is OSCOLA, which you must learn and use. You will learn about this in LW105 Legal Skills.

To find out more about OSCOLA and for help with referencing, you can also visit the Library’s referencing and plagiarism website, see the Library’s guidance on OSCOLA, and take the Academic Integrity Moodle course.

Submission of coursework
You should submit all coursework online via FASER – the University’s online submission system. You are encouraged to log on to FASER at the start of the year so that you understand how it works before you reach your first deadline. There is a trial module and deadline available for you to use as a practice submission, as well as helpful guidance on how to use FASER.

You can upload as many draft versions of your work as you like onto the server and are encouraged to use this as a safe and secure area to store your coursework. This can help to avoid the problem of your computer crashing at the last minute and your important files being lost. In cases where multiple versions are uploaded you will need to make any which you do NOT want to be included in the final submission a ‘draft’ otherwise just the most recently uploaded file will be taken as the final version. The maximum file upload size is 50MB.

Submissions that are sent in via email will never be accepted unless you were explicitly asked to send something via email by a member of staff.

Problems with FASER
If you have technical difficulties: Please contact the FASER Help centre as soon as possible to find out if this is a University issue or whether it may be a problem with your computer. This will count towards your claim when submitting a late coursework form should you need to. You can also contact IT Services helpdesk on it.helpdesk@essex.ac.uk.

If you are confused or unsure how to upload or are having any non-technical difficulties you should contact your Undergraduate Administrators.

Please note that any submissions that are in draft status will not be seen by the marking teams, so you must make sure that your final submission is completely submitted and no longer in draft.

Late submission of coursework
We have a single policy at the University of Essex for the late submission of coursework in undergraduate courses: all coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero. No extensions will be granted. The policy states that the mark of zero shall stand unless you submit satisfactory evidence of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline.

You should not wait until your Late Submission Claim is accepted before submitting your essay. Always submit your essay first, and do your Late Submission claim later. If the claim is rejected, you can request the feedback for formative purposes. This means that the work may be marked, but the mark will not count towards your final module mark.

Where a student is unable to undertake the assessment by the deadline, and it is deemed impossible to consider a late submission request due to the nature of the assessment (e.g. absence from in-class tests, practical assignments and presentations), an extenuating circumstances form should be submitted which will be considered by the Board of Examiners.

Return of coursework
Coursework feedback will be returned within four weeks of the submission deadline, in line with the University’s coursework and feedback policies. The module director will warn students if the feedback is later than four weeks.

Ethics in research
All research involving human participants and animal subjects, whether undertaken by the University's staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You should first read the Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants or Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Animal Subjects and then submit an Ethical Approval application form via ERAMS. You should be aware that ethical approval cannot be granted retrospectively so it is very important that you make your application before you start to recruit participants or collect data from them.

Research involving the NHS may require and research involving human tissue or adults lacking capacity to consent will require Health Research Authority and / or NHS Research Ethics Committee approval.

Examinations
Attendance at examinations is compulsory and if you do not attend them and do not have extenuating circumstances then you are at risk of being withdrawn.

Exam timetable
The University publishes the dates for exam periods at the start of each year. A link to your personalised exam timetable will be sent to your Essex account when it is ready to view.

Attending an exam
You must bring your registration card to any invigilated exams on campus. You may not be allowed entry without it.

For exams that are more than 1 hour long, you will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you arrive later than 55 minutes after the start of the exam. If your exam is only 1 hour long, you will only be admitted up to 10 minutes after the start of the exam.

Calculators in Examinations
If you are allowed to use a calculator in your examinations, the only models you are permitted to use in invigilated exams are the Casio FX-83GT X, Casio FX-85GT X, Casio FX-83GT PLUS or the Casio FX-85GT PLUS.

The only exception is for certain Finance exams that require a financial calculator, in which case you may use the Hewlett Packard 12c (all variants) or the Texas Instruments BAII Plus (including the BAII Plus Professional).

Dictionaries
Dictionaries are not allowed during invigilated exams, unless explicitly stated on the exam rubric. If you take any kind of dictionary into an invigilated exam, even if English is not your first language, this will be considered and reported as an academic offence.

Sample and past papers
Past exam papers are available on Moodle for each module. You can find them on the top right hand corner of the Moodle module page.
Revision classes
Some module directors choose to organise revision classes before exams. These will be scheduled into your timetable, and the lecturers will inform you well in advance.

Exam stress
Exams create stress for most people, but there is a lot that you can do to prepare for them and help manage the levels of stress associated with exams. The University’s Skills for Success Team offers a series of Exam Workshops which are run by specialist staff. These sessions cover revision planning and techniques, as well as sessions on relaxation and how to cope with stress. Staff in the Student Services Hub can also provide sessions on stress management if required.

Access to your exam script
If you want to see your script for an invigilated exam, you should make the request to the department/School responsible for the module within four weeks of the exam. The department/School should either: let you see the script in the presence of one of the staff responsible for teaching the module or give you a copy or summary of the examiners’ comments on your performance. If you need to undertake an exam as part of reassessment on a module, your department/School will provide you with written feedback on any elements being reassessed.

Feedback on your exam script will not include a discussion of the mark. The marks will have been approved by External Examiners and ratified by the Board of Examiners.

Moderation and marking
The University’s Marking Policy can be found online and includes our policy and procedure on the moderation of work.

Marking
All student work is marked in line with the University’s Marking Policy. If your assessment is worth up to and including 40% of your module mark, it will be marked by one member of academic staff. If it is worth more 40%, then it will also be moderated. If the assessment is worth 30 credits or more, it will be marked by two members of academic staff. The full procedure and assessment marking requirements can be found in the Marking Policy – there is a useful flowchart in Appendix C to visually represent the requirements, and detailed definitions of marking and moderation within the policy itself.

Moderation
Moderation is a process separate from that of marking and provides additional assurance that the assessment criteria has been applied appropriately. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given.

External Examiners
External Examiners are academics from other universities, but may also be from industry, business or the relevant profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that modules and courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education.

Re-marking of coursework
You may, under certain circumstances, have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework. Should you feel that your work needs to be reviewed and potentially re-marked, you should first contact your department/School to advise you accordingly and assess whether you meet the criteria to be able to submit a request for re-marking.

If a request for a re-mark is accepted, your marks are not guaranteed to increase, however, the mark awarded after re-marking will override your original mark. Therefore, please be aware that in all incidences where coursework is re-marked, it is possible that your marks could go down as well as up.

Appeals

Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. There are limited grounds available to appeal on and strict deadlines to adhere to. As such, we strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact the SU Advice Centre.

Feedback

Feedback for any submitted coursework will be provided electronically via FASER, even if the coursework is submitted in paper form. The School of Law uses a standard Cover and Feedback Sheet that students must submit as the first three pages of any essay. The markers may provide feedback on the grid, in comments or in the general feedback box on the cover sheet. You will receive your feedback approximately four weeks after your submission deadline.

If you have failed an exam, the Undergraduate Administrators will aim to send you any feedback from the markers within ten working days after your results have been released by the Board of Examiners.

The Board of Examiners

The Board of Examiners meet at the end of the Summer Term and use the Rules of Assessment to determine whether:

- you have passed the modules you have studied and can be awarded credit
- you have met the requirements to progress to the next year of your course
- you have met the requirements to pass your course and what classification you will receive for each module
- how your module marks are used to calculate your degree classification
- you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

If it determined that you have not passed sufficient credits to progress to the next stage of study, or, for final year students, to graduate, the Board of Examiners will also determine:

- what reassessment you could be offered and when you can take it¹
- whether you must withdraw from your course, with or without an exit award

Publication of results

The publication schedule for results can be found on the website. You will receive an email to your Essex email account as soon as your results are published online.

Reassessment

You may only undertake reassessment if the Board of Examiners says that you may do so.

If you must take compulsory reassessment, whether coursework or examination, it is very important that you do this. If you do not, it is likely that you will be unable to progress with your studies at the University. The Board of Examiners will not consider permitting you to proceed carrying fails if you have not attempted the reassessment.

Reassessed modules are normally capped at the pass mark of 40% unless you have extenuating circumstances which are accepted by the Exam Board. Please be aware that reassessment in examinations and coursework carries a fee.

¹ The Board of Examiners will not be aware of any student’s immigration status. As a result, some reassessment options may be offered that are not compatible with individual student visa rules. All options should be considered in conjunction with applicable visa restrictions.

Unlike initial assessment, which contains multiple components (such as essays, exams, presentations, and MCQs) modules are reassessed by a single piece of assessment only. Where modules are initially assessed by a coursework component and an exam component, the reassessment will always be a single 100% exam. Where a module is reassessed by several coursework components, the module will be reassessed by a single 100% essay. This means that whatever marks you get for continuous assessment (such as MCQs or preparation and participation) these marks will not be combined with the new mark for the reassessment essay or exam.

Continuous assessment, preparation and participation marks are not reassessed. If you fail a module because you failed preparation and participation, you will have to retake the other elements of the assessment in order to gain a higher mark, even if you passed them in the first place. If you failed a module that is assessed by participation and preparation, as well as by exam, you will have to retake the exam, even if you passed it the first time.

There are some modules which are reassessed differently:

LW105 - You will be reassessed in your failed components as follows:

- the continuous assessment MCQs will not be reassessed. If this is the only element you failed, you will have to undertake reassessment in the research essay.
- any other assessment element is reassessed by a resit in the failed element
- the reassessment mark will consist of the following (note that this is ONLY if you undertake the reassessment):
  - Research essay – worth 50% of the mark
  - Reflective statement – worth 25% of the mark
  - Legal resources quiz – worth 25% of the mark

LW254 - You will be reassessed in your failed components as follows:

- the continuous assessment MCQs will not be reassessed. If this is the only element you failed, you will have to undertake reassessment in the research proposal.
- if you failed the presentation or the research proposal, you will be reassessed in the failed element
- the reassessment mark will consist of the following (note that this is ONLY if you undertake the reassessment):
  - Research proposal – worth 75% of the mark
  - Presentation – worth 25% of the mark

Resit exams

Resit exams are usually scheduled in late August and early September or ‘out of residence’ in the summer of the following year. A considerable amount of useful revision material for each module is available on Moodle. Students can contact staff, particularly Module Supervisors for the modules they are resiting if they need help with revision or specific queries (do not leave this until the last minute as staff availability will be reduced throughout the summer). Staff can give individual feedback on summer exam performance, if requested.
Exit Awards
If you decide to withdraw from your course before you finish, or you fail too many credits to be awarded a Bachelor’s degree, you may be awarded a qualification at a lower level, if appropriate.

Extenuating Circumstances
Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform less well in your assessment than you might have expected, or in some instances, may prevent you from submitting coursework or attending an exam entirely. In general, valid extenuating circumstances will be of a medical or personal nature that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during assessment.

If you do need to make an extenuating circumstances claim, you should first read the guidance very carefully and seek advice from SU Advice or the Student Services Hub. Please be prepared that you may need to include supporting evidence with your claim. Extenuating circumstance claims must be submitted via MyEssex by the appropriate deadline. Your department will review your claim at an Extenuating Circumstances Committee and determine whether it will be accepted or rejected. The Board of Examiners will determine an appropriate course of action, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks. Please note that extra marks cannot be given in light of extenuating circumstances.

The Extenuating Circumstances Committee meets at set times during the term. Therefore, you may not get an outcome of your Extenuating Circumstances or Late Submission Claims for several weeks after submitting them. Please do not submit multiple claims if you have not yet been notified of the outcome of the original claim, as these only delay the Committee’s response times. Duplicate claims will be rejected.
Computers, Learning Technologies and your Information

Computers

Using a campus computer
If you need to use a computer on campus our computer labs are the perfect place to study or work. We also have group study pods which are ideal for group projects. Many labs stay open until late and some are open 24/7. Labs may be booked for teaching, and so it is best to check availability first.

IT Help and Guidance
You can search the Student Directory for more IT information, including software available to students, how-to guides, answers to frequently asked questions, and links to video screencasts.

If you can’t find what you’re looking for, or if you need to talk to someone, then the IT Helpdesk team are here to assist you further.

Learning Technologies and Systems

Learner Engagement Activity Portal (LEAP)
LEAP is our student centred, personalised engagement tool. LEAP displays your engagement with university resources and an algorithm within LEAP combines your use of these resources and activities to produce an overall engagement indicator. There are 5 engagement indicators (high, good, partial, low and very low) which will help you map and better understand your engagement pattern over time. Full details on the resources included in LEAP, the engagement ratings and how LEAP uses your data can be found on the LEAP webpage.

By providing you with a more holistic view of your studying experience, LEAP offers you the opportunity to take control of your own learning and make more informed choices about your studies, enabling you to:

- Reflect on your academic activities and overall engagement to make informed decisions about your academic studies
- Review the notes created in LEAP from meetings with Tutors or other university staff
- Check your attendance and ensure the information is correct

Tutors and other university staff may use the information in LEAP to:

- Suggest ways you could achieve better outcomes
- Check that all is well and offer information, advice and guidance
- Help you in areas of your studies that you are finding a challenge

The University has a Student Engagement Policy which provides a structured approach based on support and mutual decision-making to maximise the success and achievement of every student.

Moodle
We use Moodle as our online learning environment. It holds key course and module materials, discussion forums, chat facilities, quizzes, surveys, glossaries and wikis.
FASER

FASER is our online coursework submission and feedback system. Use it to check coursework deadlines, upload coursework and receive electronic feedback all in one place.

Online reading lists

Reading lists can be accessed online. Use this service to find out the details of each week’s reading and to access resources through the library.

Listen Again

Did you miss something? Our Listen Again digital recording service lets you listen again to lectures, so you grasp every detail. It's available in teaching rooms or lecture theatres where you see the sign.

Zoom

You can use Zoom to join online lectures delivered by the University or attend online meetings and tutorials. If your lecture or class is going to be online, the link to join will be available in your individual timetable.

This quick start guide gives you an introduction to the essentials of joining and participating in a Zoom webinar or meeting.

Your information

Changes to your information

During your period of study at Essex, you may wish to be known by a preferred name or update your legal name on our student record database (ESIS) if your circumstances change. It is important you keep your information up to date, which you can manage and update online.

Your personal information

We collect and hold lots of information about you, your course, and your progress so that we know who you are, what you're doing, and how you are getting on. This means we can support you and also improve our services to reflect the need of our students.

All information about you is kept securely, and access to your information is only given to staff who need it in order to do their job. Where possible, we will ask you for your permission to share.

You have a right to ask for copies of information we hold about you. To find out more about what information we collect, what we do with it, who gets to see it, and your rights under the data Protection Act 2018, read our Privacy Notice for students.
Student Voice

At the University of Essex, the views, ideas and feedback of our students are at the heart of what the University does. The time students take to offer feedback is hugely appreciated and this feedback, both positive and developmental, is used to help make short and longer-term improvements, both to the experience of current students, but also for Essex students of the future. You can do this in a number of ways at Essex through your Student Voice.

Student Representatives
You can contact or volunteer to be a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Voice Groups (SVG) and other University level committees.

Student Voice Groups
Student Voice Groups (SVGs) are made up of student representatives and members of staff. SVGs typically meet once per term and provide an accessible arena for students to discuss with staff issues connected to teaching, learning and student support. They also provide an opportunity for the department or school to consult with students and receive feedback on new proposals.

Student Surveys
Student satisfaction surveys enable the University to gauge overall satisfaction amongst students. When the results have been reviewed and analysed, the University can then enhance your experience of learning at Essex.

National Student Survey
The National Student Survey (NSS) is an independent survey commissioned by the Office for Students aimed mainly at final-year undergraduate students. The survey provides students the opportunity to provide feedback on their University course and experience. The feedback you provide will be used to help shape the future for your fellow students and published on the Discover Uni website to help prospective students make informed decisions about where and what they want to study.

UK Engagement Survey (UKES)
The UK Engagement Survey (UKES) is a national survey for undergraduate students. It invites you to reflect on your time at University so far in relation to your course and wider learning experience. The survey is run each spring term and is open to first, second and some third/final year students.

We’re keen to make sure students have the best possible experience while studying at the University. To do that we need to know what we are doing well and what we can do better. The survey is a chance to reflect on how you study and what might help your studies in future. The results also help the University and Students Union to make changes that will improve what we do in future and to make sure we keep doing the things that are of value to students.

If you’re eligible to complete the survey, we will contact you to invite you to take part.

Student Module Feedback
Every year, we will ask you to complete Student Module Feedback (previously known as Student Assessment of Module and Teaching, or SAMT). This survey allows you to feedback on each of the modules you have studied. Receiving feedback at this level is critical for the University to understand what works well, and what could be improved, from the perspective of students. All feedback will be summarised and discussed by SVGs and will inform reports written for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.
There are also many other satisfaction surveys taking place, to ensure students are happy with the services the University of Essex provides. From time to time you will be invited to participate via an email.

If you have some feedback but don’t know who to tell, email: studentvoice@essex.ac.uk

Your Department/ School will also welcome your feedback. They will have a range of quick feedback mechanism for you to use. Contact your Professional Services Team if you are not sure what these are.
You Matter
We know university life can throw up all kinds of concerns and questions. Everyone has mental health – sometimes your mental health may be good, other times it may be not so good. It could be stress related to deadlines, general worries or concerns about friends and family members. Whatever is worrying you, if you need some information, advice or support, the University offer a wide range of services and support to help you.

Student Services Hub
If you need practical advice, a confidential conversation, or general information and guidance on University life, no matter what the issue is, the Student Services Hub can help. You can find out about health and wellbeing, accommodation, careers services, money matters and much more. Your questions matter and you’ll get answers from our team of experts.

To Contact the Student Services Hub please use this link to access our web pages and talk to us on Live Chat: Ask the Hub

Support for students with disabilities or additional needs
We encourage all new students with a disability, long term medical condition, specific learning difficulty or mental health difficulty to disclose and register with the Student Services Hub so that we can plan how best to support you in your studies.

Funding opportunities
UK students may be eligible for a Disabled Students’ Allowance grant. If you are not a UK student, you may be eligible for other grants and funding. We would recommend you contacting the Student Services Hub to discuss all the options that may be available to you, as well as for general advice, support and information on health and wellbeing issues.

Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans (PEEP)
If you have a permanent or temporary disability that may mean you have difficulty in evacuating one or more areas, you can arrange for a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP).

Essex Accessibility Forum
The Essex Access Forum is a university-wide discussion and advocacy forum and consultation body working to support excellence in all aspects of physical and intellectual access at Essex (student education, staff employment and visitor experience). Membership is open to both staff and students, with and without disabilities.

Seeing a Doctor
If you’re studying on a course for more than six months, you’re required to register with a local doctor. Our Colchester Campus has its own health centre or you can use the NHS Choices postcode finder to find your nearest doctor. If you require emergency medical or mental health services, there are a number of options available both through the NHS and also the University, regardless which campus you are studying at.

Counselling services
Our University offers a wide range of services and resources to support all of our students, with a variety of counselling opportunities.

If you feel you would benefit from support, including counselling, please contact your Student Services Hub. You can find more information, including the full range of counselling services available to you.
Drop In/Wellbeing Appointments
The Wellbeing Assessors provide support to students with anything affecting their wellbeing, mental health and/or disability through pre-booked appointments (whilst remote working) or face to face appointments within the Silberrad Centre. To book an appointment please find further information on the website and scroll down to “enquiry form”.

UK Immigration Advice and Guidance
Immigration advice and guidance is regulated in the UK by the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC) and can only be given by those that are authorised to do so. We publish lots of information and guidance on our website for students and you can contact one of our authorised advice services via the ‘ask us a question section’ for further advice about the UK’s student immigration rules.

Money management
If you get into financial difficulty you should get help and talk to someone as soon as possible. The sooner your problem is identified, the sooner it can be solved. You may be eligible to apply for financial support to assist you with short-term unexpected and unforeseen costs. Advisers in our Student Services Hub and our independent Students’ Union Advice can listen and talk you through the issues you are experiencing.

Students’ Union Advice
Our SU Advice service also offers free, confidential, independent and impartial advice on many issues that might be affecting you. Our friendly, trained staff are on hand to support you throughout your time at Essex. You can speak to us about Academic processes and procedures, representation at University meetings, student UK visa extensions, housing, complaints, welfare and consumer issues.

Colchester students – suadvice@essex.ac.uk; 01206 874034
Southend students – suacsou@essex.ac.uk; 01702 328235 (term time only)
Loughton students – suaclou@essex.ac.uk; 01206 874034

Residence Life
Our Residence Life team is here to help you settle in and support you during your time living on campus. Each residents’ assistant (RA) is assigned an area and will aim to get to know you, provide advice and support with any wellbeing issues and organise a range of social activities to help you connect with others. Find your RAs contact details on your flat kitchen poster if you live on campus. During term-time, our friendly RAs are available for a virtual chat via Zoom every day from 7pm – 8pm use Zoom Meeting ID: 920 1237 9049, all Essex students are welcome to drop in. You can find out about all our exciting events by following us on Facebook or by checking out the University Events page.

Religion, faith and beliefs
We’re proud of our vibrant and diverse multicultural community and welcome everyone, of all faiths and none. The calm, friendly and supportive atmosphere in our Faith Centre is a welcoming place for staff, students and the wider community to meet, interact and engage with each other.

Harassment support
We are Essex. We pride ourselves on being a welcoming and inclusive student community. We offer a wide range of support to individuals and groups of student members who may have specific requirements, interests or responsibilities – to help you fulfil your potential.
We encourage a culture of dignity and respect. We’re committed to upholding an environment that’s free from any form of harassment or bullying. Though rare, these incidents can occur and if they do occur our Harassment Report and Support Service of trained Harassment Support Workers are on hand to help.

COVID-19 (Coronavirus)

The health and wellbeing of our students is our priority. This means we are constantly monitoring advice from the UK Government, Public Health England, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, and the World Health Organisation, and updating our guidance on students in line with their advice.

Our guidance to students on protecting yourself and others from COVID-19 is updated regularly. It is advisable to check the page frequently to be sure you are up to date with the latest guidance and information from the University.

The University offers lateral flow testing on all its campuses at our Asymptomatic Testing Clinic and require students to test twice weekly when studying on campus.

Health and safety on campus

Our campuses are generally very safe environments. We want to ensure that things stay this way. In order to achieve this, we work closely with local agencies including the police and borough councils. Take a look at our website for general information and advice.

Please familiarise yourself with fire safety and emergency evacuation procedures for your accommodation, work or study location. If you have a permanent or temporary disability that may mean you have difficulty in evacuating one or more areas, you can arrange for a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP).

Please take note of our advice on the safe use of electrical items and prohibited electrical items in residential and non-residential areas.

All students residing on campus must complete the Moodle Fire Safety Course for Residents training.

If you have any health and safety concerns or need to report an incident, please use the University’s reporting service to notify us.

Making a Complaint

The University is a large community engaged in many activities of both an academic and non-academic nature. From time to time, you may feel dissatisfied with some aspect of your dealings with the University and, when that happens, it is important that the issue is dealt with constructively and as quickly as possible without risk of disadvantage or recrimination.

The University aims to resolve complaints quickly and informally in accordance with the Student concerns and complaints procedure which can be found on our website.
Student Development

Careers Services
The Careers Services team offer a programme of information, advice, guidance and support through various events, workshops and one-to-one sessions. We also have teams dedicated to Work Based Learning, Placements and Internships that can provide information and support as needed.

CareerHub
Find hundreds of part-time jobs, internships and graduate vacancies, book on to careers events and workshops, take career assessments, practice your interview skills, build your CV, and connect with employers on CareerHub, the online Essex careers and jobs portal. Login with your Essex username and password.

Your Personal Development at Essex
Activate your Gradintelligence account to discover the broad range of extra-curricular and voluntary opportunities available to you at Essex using Chart My Path, your personal development navigation tool. Find activities to inspire and develop you in your life, your studies and for your future. You can achieve Big Essex Awards through the activities that you complete during your time at Essex and gain University recognition on your digital transcript, the Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR).

Join the Career Mentoring Programme and get matched with a mentor who can share their industry expertise, empower you, listen, talk through your plans, fears, and aspirations, and give you the time and space you need to make decisions that are right for you.

If you are a first year and want to start building a network of peers, careers professionals and industry experts, sign-up to Rising Stars and discover opportunities to develop your skills, experience and confidence for the future.

Volunteering
Join the vTeam and be the difference. There are plenty of opportunities to volunteer during your time at Essex. The vTeam, run by the Students Union, is a fantastic opportunity to meet new people, make friends, give something to the local community, and gain valuable skills.

Get Work Experience
Frontrunners is the University’s award winning on-campus placement programme. The scheme provides opportunities to students with little or no previous work experience to gain valuable skills and experience in Frontrunner level placements, as well as supporting more experienced students to develop new career pathways through Frontrunner Plus roles.

Essex Interns create paid internships exclusively for you as an Essex student. They're flexible too; part time during term time or full time in vacations. Sign up for Essex Interns to kick-start your career.
You Are Essex

Graduation and Awards
Once your exam board has met, it can take between 7-10 working days for your results to be published. The University’s exam board and publication of results schedule is updated in the summer term, and you will be notified once this information is available online. As soon as your results are ready, you will be sent an email and directed to a password protected web page. You will be able to see your marks obtained and any decisions that you must make in order to progress to the next stage of study.

You will be able to access your full academic transcript electronically via your Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR).

Upon conferral of your award, all graduates will receive both an electronic and hard copy parchment award certificate. Your electronic Certificate will be available on your GradIntelligence account within 5 working days of your conferral and your hard copy parchment will be available to collect at graduation. If you are unable to attend graduation, the Graduation and Awards team will post this to your home address.

Graduation ceremonies
The culmination of all your hard work! Graduation ceremonies take place at our Colchester Campus in the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall with a departmental Reception held afterwards on campus. All eligible students studying at our Colchester, Loughton and Southend Campuses will be invited to attend their course’s ceremony at the next available Graduation. Confirmed dates for future graduation ceremonies are published online.

Students with exam boards held in Autumn term will be invited to attend our Winter Graduation ceremony where these are held; students with exam boards held in Spring or Summer term will be invited to attend our Summer Graduation ceremony in July.

HEAR
When you study at Essex, you graduate with far more than just a degree. Your Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR) not only showcases a full record of your academic achievements, but also any activities you have undertaken and logged through the Big Essex Award, and any other awards and prizes that you may have received.

Your HEAR will be updated within 5 working days of results being release following ratification at a Board of Examiners.

When you graduate, you will have full electronic access to your HEAR and award certificate for free for life. You will be able to share this with employers and other universities by providing them with a University-certified record of your achievements. You will receive an e-mail from GradIntelligence to enable you to activate your account log-in. As soon as you do this you can start accessing your HEAR!

References

Requesting references from members of staff
If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject.
For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, and core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first-year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for reference for a student who has undertaken study within our Department. Requests received from students who have graduated from the University within the last three years will be prioritised. Requests received outside of this period may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information and is willing to provide a reference.

It is always helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – it is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references
A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our Department/School for no longer than three years for taught students.

Alumni
Essex is forever and although your time here will fly by, you'll be part of the Essex family for life. When you graduate, you’ll get an alumni card and join a community of over 100,000 fellow graduates around the world. We’d love to keep in touch and invite you to our alumni events, networking and volunteering opportunities, as well as offer you special alumni benefits. Want to know more? Visit our website.

What comes next?
The world is your oyster! The options and opportunities open to you as a graduate can sometimes be overwhelming. You might know the path you wish to take, but if you need help to reach your graduate goals, our Careers Services Team offer information, guidance and advice on your different options after graduation. Whether it’s discussing different career paths, bringing your CV or LinkedIn profile up to date, or prepping for that interview you have worked all year for, we offer careers support for life, so we’ll always be here for you.

We know you’ll go on to great things, but you can always come back! As an Essex graduate, you can take advantage of generous discounts on postgraduate qualifications and degrees if you chose to return to study at Essex as a postgraduate student.

We are proud of our world-class research at Essex and your invitation to contribute is lifelong. If you do decide to stay on for further study with us, you’ll develop extensive knowledge in your chosen area and learn from some of the top academics in the field. You can explore our incredible range of courses online.

Whatever you choose to do, please stay in touch. We’d love to hear about your achievements and discover where your Essex degree has taken you.