

Cyprus Military Service Scholarship 2021-22

This scholarship is for students who are ordinarily resident in Cyprus and have had to defer their place to 2021 due to compulsory military service. The award will allow the home fee rate of £9,250 for 2021 entry to students for the duration of their studies.

Terms and conditions

Eligibility

- These scholarships are restricted to applicants who are classified as international students for fees purposes and are ordinarily resident in Cyprus.
- Applicants must have completed military service during the year of 2020-21 and provided Certificate of Military Status.
- Applicants must be entirely self-funded. These awards are not available to students who are fully or partly sponsored.
- Applicants must be starting their first year of study on a degree course at the University of Essex in 2021-22
- Undergraduate applicants must make Essex their firm choice on UCAS by 19 July 2021.
- Only one scholarship award can be made per student and the award cannot normally be held in conjunction with other University of Essex awards.

Students who are not eligible

The following students are NOT eligible for the Cyprus Military Service Scholarship regardless of meeting the above criteria:

- Students undertaking courses at East 15 Acting School.
- Students directly continuing from one course to another (for example from Foundation degree or HND on to the final year of an honours degree);
- Students transferring into the second year from another UK higher education institution.

How to apply

- These scholarships will be automatically awarded as long as you meet the eligibility criteria above.
- Successful applicants will be informed, in writing, at the point that their place at Essex is confirmed, of any award to be offered.

Payment arrangements

- These scholarships will only be made available as a reduction on the tuition fee that is payable on registration at the University. Payment cannot be offset against a tuition fee deposit if one is required.
- If you intermit from your course, you may, at the discretion of the University, be entitled to a pro-rata payment of the remainder of your award on your return to study. Please contact the Funding Team for further information.

Resolution of disputes

Acceptance of this award constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions. Registered students should contact the Funding Team in the first instance for guidance regarding this award. In cases not covered by the above terms and conditions, or where a student claims exceptional circumstances, or disputes a decision not to make payments due under an award, final appeals on decisions regarding eligibility must be made via the Student Complaints process <https://www.essex.ac.uk/student/voice/complaints>. The Academic Registrar or his/her nominee will review the case and his/her decision will be final.

These terms and conditions apply to the Cyprus Military Service Scholarship for academic year 2021-22. The University of Essex reserves the right to update these terms and conditions as necessary.
