Terms and conditions

Eligibility

- This bursary is restricted to students who are UK home fees and are entirely self-funded*.
- Students must register for the foundation year (Year 0) or the first year (Year 1) of a full-time undergraduate degree** for the first time at the University of Essex in October 2027-28.
- Students must have applied for and have been approved for funding from Student Finance England (or other UK funding provider) with the University of Essex as their chosen institution. They must have requested a means-tested assessment for funding to Student Finance England, with consent to be shared with University of Essex and have been assessed as having an annual household within the thresholds stated in the table above.
- To receive the accommodation credit component of the award, students must have applied for, and accepted, a place in university owned or administered accommodation for the academic year 2027-28 by the deadline of 1 October 2027 at 11:59pm GMT.

- If students become eligible during the year due to their Household Income being assessed or reassessed, they will be entitled to the bursary for that academic year.
- Student must have a valid tenancy agreement for university owned or administered accommodation at the time of payment to receive the accommodation credit component of the award.
- This bursary may be held in conjunction with other University of Essex awards, for example (but not limited to) the Schools and Colleges Membership Bursary 2027-28.
- This bursary is available for the first year of study (Year 0 or Year 1) at undergraduate level in the 2027-28 academic year only.
- Students studying distance learning courses, delivered wholly by the University of Essex.
- Successful applicants should be available for promotional activities.

*Students receiving a repayable loan to fund their studies will be considered as self-funded. This includes but isn't restricted to tuition fee loans from Student Finance England or other UK funding bodies.

**Certificate of Higher Education, Diploma of Higher Education, Foundation Degree, Bachelors Degree, Integrated Masters (four years).

Students who are not eligible

The following students are NOT eligible for this scholarship regardless of meeting the above criteria:

- Students who are assessed as overseas fee payers.
- Students undertaking courses at Higher or Degree Apprenticeships.
- Students who are directly continuing from one course to another (for example from foundation degree or Diploma of Higher Education on to the final year of an honours degree). This includes students starting year 1 of an undergraduate degree following the completion of a Foundation Year, Certificate of Higher Education or Diploma of Higher Education at the University of Essex.
- Students transferring in from another UK higher education institution.
- Students awarded the bursary who defer entry to following academic years will be ineligible to receive the award and will be considered in line with the terms and conditions that apply in the new proposed year of entry.
- Students studying University of Essex Online courses, delivered in partnership with Kaplan Open Learning.
- Students who are fully or partly sponsored by their government or other external agency and are not required to make any repayments (this does not include VISA sponsorship).

- Current students whose first year of undergraduate study at the University of Essex, was prior to academic year 2027-2028.

How to apply

- You do not need to complete an application form. If you meet all the eligibility criteria above, you will automatically be awarded the Essex Futures Bursary.
- You will normally be notified of your Essex Futures Bursary award, including any cash bursary and accommodation fee credit, during October 2027. Eligible students will be notified once their eligibility has been confirmed and tenancy requirements have been verified.
- If you become eligible during the academic year following an assessment or reassessment of your household income, you will normally be notified at the next eligibility review point. Eligibility reviews are typically undertaken in January and April, with additional ad hoc reviews completed where necessary.
- Students awarded an accommodation fee credit will normally be notified of their entitlement once eligibility has been confirmed and any accommodation requirements have been verified.

Payment arrangements

- Payment of cash bursary and accommodation fee credit remain subject to confirmation of eligibility, registration and continued compliance with these terms and conditions.
- Payment of the cash bursary will normally be made in two equal instalments, usually in December 2027 and February 2028.
- Payment will take place using the Essex Aspire Platform. You will receive an email from student.info@essex-aspire.co.uk with details on how to register an Essex Aspire Account (if you're not already registered) and how to access your award. Once registered, your award will be available immediately and you will be able to withdraw the award to a UK bank account. Students are required to open a UK bank account to receive payment. Alternatively, if this payment method isn't available, we will contact all successful students by email before the payment date to request that UK bank account details are entered into My Essex to ensure that payment can be made.
- All bursary payments for the 2027-28 academic year must be finalised by 21 July 2028. Where payment is made via the Essex Aspire Platform, bursaries not claimed by this date, either by withdrawing the funds into your bank account or providing your bank details, will no longer be accessible and will be returned to the University. Students who have not been confirmed as eligible by this date will no longer be eligible for the bursary and will not receive payment for the 2027-28 academic year.

- Accommodation credits will be applied before the relevant accommodation payment due dates in October 2027, January 2028 and April 2028. If you become eligible in-year, any previous discount will be added to the next discount date, i.e. January 2028 or April 2028.
- Students must be registered and meet the above conditions to receive payment. The bursary will be suspended during a period of approved leave of absence (intermission) where this period covers a whole or part of an academic year and you may, at the discretion of the University, be entitled to a pro-rata payment of the remainder of your award on your return to study. Please contact the Funding Team for further information. There will be no payment for repeat periods of study in any circumstances.
- If you withdraw from your studies completely, or are required to withdraw, no further outstanding payments will be made.

Resolution of disputes

Acceptance of this award constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions. Registered students should contact the Funding Team in the first instance for guidance regarding this award. In cases not covered by the above terms and conditions, or where a student claims exceptional circumstances, or disputes a decision not to make payments due under an award, final appeals on decisions regarding eligibility must be made via the Student Complaints process. The Academic Registrar or their nominee will review the case and his/her decision will be final.

These terms and conditions apply to the academic year 2027-28. The University of Essex reserves the right to update these terms and conditions as necessary.
