Terms and conditions

Eligibility

- These scholarships are restricted to students who are overseas fee payers and are entirely self-funded*.
- Students must register for the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree at the University of Essex in October 2024-25.
- Students must be commencing study at Essex on one of the UK Law transfer degree routes from one of the partner institutions listed above.
- Students must exceed 68% for 2+1 route and 56% for 1+2 route.
- Students must submit a 500-word essay as part of the scholarship application process.
- The award cannot be held in conjunction with any other University of Essex scholarships.
- This scholarship is available for the first year of study at undergraduate level in 2024-25 only.
- Successful applicants should be available for promotional activities.

*Students receiving a repayable loan to fund their studies will be considered as self-funded.

Students who are not eligible

You are not eligible for the award, even if you meet the criteria above, if you fall into any of the following categories:

- Students undertaking a degree that is normally delivered wholly online.
- This scholarship award does not apply to deferred entry. Where a scholarship has been awarded to a student who subsequently defers entry to the following academic year, the award will be withdrawn and the applicant will be considered again in line with the terms and conditions that apply in the new proposed year of entry.
- Students who are fully or partly sponsored.
- Students who are assessed as Home fee payer.
- Current students whose first year of undergraduate study at the University of Essex, was prior to academic year 2024-25.

How to apply

To be considered for these awards you must complete and submit the application form available on our website by Friday 12th July 2024. Alongside the application form, you must submit a 500-word supporting essay which will be considered by the selection panel alongside other applications.

Payment arrangements

- These scholarships will only be made available as a reduction on the tuition fee that is payable on registration at the University. Payment cannot be offset against a tuition fee deposit if one is required.
- If you intermit from your course, you may, at the discretion of the University, be entitled to a pro-rata payment of the remainder of your award on your return to study. Please contact the Funding Team for further information.

Resolution of disputes

Acceptance of this award constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions. Applicants should contact the Undergraduate Admissions Team in the first instance for guidance regarding this award. Registered students should contact the Funding Team. In cases not covered by the above terms and conditions, or where a student claims exceptional circumstances, or disputes a decision not to make payments due under an award, final appeals on decisions regarding eligibility must be made via the Student Complaints process. The Academic Registrar or their nominee will review the case and his/her decision will be final.

These terms and conditions apply to the academic year 2024-25. The University of Essex reserves the right to update these terms and conditions as necessary.
