

Kaplan International College Progression Scholarship 2022-23

If you are progressing directly from the University of Essex International College to register on a full-time Undergraduate or Postgraduate taught degree at the University of Essex in 2022-23 then you may be eligible to receive a £3,000 scholarship for your first year of study.

Terms and conditions

1. Eligibility

- This scholarship is restricted to applicants who are classified as overseas students for fees purposes and who are progressing directly from the University of Essex International College;
- Have received an offer of admission for entry to the University of Essex for the relevant year of entry;
- Be entirely self-funding your course;
- Be one of the top three performing UG and PG eligible students in the cohort based on your exam results on your course at the University of Essex international College;
- Register for a full-time undergraduate or postgraduate degree at the University of Essex for the relevant academic year of entry (directly after completion of the University of Essex International College programme);
- Be in your first year of study at the University at the start of the award, starting an eligible course following successful completion of the Foundation Certificate or Pre-Masters pathways course at UEIC;
  - Eligible courses include all full-time UG and PGT courses available as pathway progression routes from University of Essex International College (Kaplan) to University of Essex;
- Only one scholarship award can be made per student and the award cannot normally be held in conjunction with other University of Essex awards. This scholarship is available for the first year of study only;
- These awards are based on marks achieved at first examination. Any students required to re-sit will not be eligible to receive this award;

2. Students who are not eligible

- Students who are required to re-sit;
- Students studying International Year One courses;
- Students who have deferred to a different academic year of entry.
- Students who are fully or partly sponsored

3. How to apply

If you meet all the eligibility criteria then you will automatically be considered for this award. You don't need to complete an application form. The International College will assess your eligibility based on your academic performance. No alternative supporting evidence will be accepted.

4. Notification

Successful applicants will be informed by the International College of any award by the beginning of September.

5. Payment arrangements

This scholarship will only be made available as a reduction on the tuition fee that is payable on registration at the University. Payment cannot be offset against a tuition fee deposit if one is required.

6. Resolution of disputes

Acceptance of this award constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions. Registered students should contact the Funding Team in the first instance for guidance regarding this award. In cases not covered by the above terms and conditions, or where a student claims exceptional circumstances, or disputes a decision not to make payments due under an award, final appeals on decisions regarding eligibility must be made via the Student Complaints process. The Academic Registrar or their nominee will review the case and their decision will be final.

These terms and conditions apply to the Kaplan International College Progression Scholarship for academic year 2022-23. The University of Essex reserves the right to update these terms and conditions as necessary.
