Wildlife sense 2021

Application link: https://wildlifesense.com/en/volunteer/inquire/WSK20/

We have an agreement with Wildlife Sense that University of Essex students will get a discount for two dates which are 6 June and 12 September 2021 for two-week programmes.

The discount is $50 so the cost of the programme goes from $520 to $470.

You are welcome to apply outside of these dates (dates are available all summer) however you will not receive the discount and you may not be in a group with any other Essex students.

To use the codes you need to:

- Click on the application link
- Fill in the sections - name, email etc…
- Select Argostoli as the location.
- Select 2 weeks as the duration
- Select one of the relevant dates

On the next page you need to:

- Fill in the sections
- Select ‘University of Essex’ from the University/School list
- In the “how did you hear about us” box they need to enter the relevant code
Payment

All applicants to Wildlife Sense are asked to pay the full fee within 7 days of applying. However you can ask for an instalment plan or to make an initial deposit and pay the rest at a later agreed date. If you would like to do this then you should email kefalonia@wildlifesense.com to arrange this directly with Wildlife Sense. You must read and accept the terms and conditions which contains all important information such as refund policy and disclosure of medical information.

Pre departure

For both 6 June and 12 September departures there will be a chance to meet other Essex students who are taking part in this opportunity. Your name and contact details will be shared between Wildlife Sense and Essex Abroad to ensure that you are included in communications and to send you useful information such as insurance and fundraising support.
